11-21-1985

1985-11-21; Pamphlets; Funeral services for the late James Henry Siddall

Lincoln Memorial United Methodist Church

Follow this and additional works at: http://digitalcommons.buffalostate.edu/lm_pamphlets

Part of the History Commons, and the Religion Commons

Recommended Citation

"1985-11-21; Pamphlets; Funeral services for the late James Henry Siddall." Pamphlets and Commemoration Material. Digital Collections. Monroe Fordham Regional History Center, Archives & Special Collections Department, E. H. Butler Library, SUNY Buffalo State.
http://digitalcommons.buffalostate.edu/lm_pamphlets/3

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Lincoln Memorial United Methodist Church at Digital Commons at Buffalo State. It has been accepted for inclusion in Pamphlets and Commemoration Material by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons at Buffalo State. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@buffalostate.edu.
FUNERAL SERVICES for the late
James Henry Siddall

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 1985
1:00 p.m.

LINCOLN MEMORIAL
UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
641 Masten Avenue (at Main Street)
Buffalo, New York 14209

†
The Reverend Walter C. Barton, Jr.
Senior Pastor
OBITUARY

†

James H. Siddall entered into eternal rest on November 18, 1985 in Millard Fillmore Hospital after a lengthy illness. He was the son of the late James H. and Nannie Cannon Siddall. He was born and grew up in Winston Salem, North Carolina. Prior to moving to Buffalo, New York, James was a member of the St. Andrews Methodist Church in Winston Salem, North Carolina.

He served in the Armed Forces for thirty-three months before being discharged in 1946.

He was united in holy matrimony to Ernestine Salley on June 28, 1947. To this union, two children were born: Gayle and Gregory. James joined the Lincoln Memorial Methodist Church during the pastorate of Reverend William H. Horner and has remained a faithful member since that time. He served on the Trustee Board, Finance Committee and other areas as long as he was able.

He was employed as a Business Representative for United Food and Commercial Workers Union Local 34 at the time of his retirement in 1979 due to illness. He was a devoted husband, father, and friend. He leaves to mourn their loss, his wife: Ernestine and daughter: Gayle (Zellie) Dow of Fountain Valley, California; a son: Gregory (Debra) Siddall of Chicago, Illinois; three grandchildren: Darien and David Siddall and Anthony Dow; sister: Mrs. Marie Davis of Pittsburgh, Pa., and mother-in-law, one brother-in-law, one uncle, three aunts, nieces, nephews cousins and many friends.

Respectfully submitted,

The Family

There comes a time for all of us, when we must say “Good-bye”;
But faith and hope and love and trust can never, never die.
Although the curtain falls at last, is that cause to grieve?
The future’s fairer than the past, if only you believe
And trust in God’s eternal care.
So when the master calls, let’s say that life is still more fair;
Although the curtain falls.

A Service of Worship and Thanksgiving
— for the life of —

James Henry Siddall

September 16, 1917 November 18, 1985

ORDER OF WORSHIP

Prelude ........................................ Mrs. Joyce Petties
Opening Sentences
Hymn ........................................... No. 224
“Blessed Assurance, Jesus is Mine”
Prayer of Hope
Ministry of Music
Moments of Silence and Reflection
The Words of Scripture .............. 2 Timothy 4: 1-8
The Meditation ............................ “The Good Fight of Faith”
The Eulogy ......................... Rev. Walter C. Barton, Jr.
Ministry of Music ............... Mrs. Lauretta Anderson
“My Tribute”, Couch/Fettke
Closing Hymn ................................. No. 247
“Jesus, Savior, Pilot Me”
...Courage, my soul, and let us journey on,
Tho’ the night is dark it won’t be very long ...
Hallelujah! Hallelujah! The storm is passing over Hallelujah!
Lincoln Memorial United Methodist Church
The Reverend Walter C. Barton, Senior Pastor

... Pall Bearers ...

Washington Bennett ....................... Homer Smith
William Leigh .............................. Vernon Taylor
Ray Mathis ................................. Robert White
James Robinson ........................... Monroe Williams

... Acknowledgments ...

The family wishes to acknowledge with deep gratitude and appreciation each act of kindness during our bereavement. God’s blessing one each of you.

Respectfully submitted,

The Family

There comes a time for all of us, when we must say “Good-bye”;
But faith and hope and love and trust can never, never die.
Although the curtain falls at last, is that cause to grieve?
The future’s fairer than the past, if only you believe
And trust in God’s eternal care.
So when the master calls, let’s say that life is still more fair;
Although the curtain falls.