Buffalo State Teacher's College

Attention, Freshmen:

For the next three days, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, you will take the role of patriotic bus boys, subject to carry out the orders of the sophomores. The sophomores will be designated by red arm bands lettered C-H-E-F. You are not subject to orders given by those not wearing this band. All activities will be confined to the outside.

The following is the schedule we have planned for you for these three days:

Wednesday morning 8:00 A.M. - Soc. Center

1. Girls will check in with discarded silk or nylon stockings.
2. Boys will check in with scrap metal of any sort.
3. Each of you is required to wear placards of heavy paper or cardboard, which may be connected by string, and are to be worn front and back for the next three days. Print your full name, high school and sketch in the upper left hand corner a civilian defense insignia.

Wednesday afternoon- 3:30

1. There will be a mass meeting of Frosh in the quadrangle behind the main building. Make certain you are there, as you will be checked in by a sophomore.

Thursday morning at 8:00 A.M. Social Centers

1. You will check in this time with a container of waste fats.
2. An original recipe, a substitute dish for rationed food is also required.

Friday morning at 8:00 A.M. Social Centers

1. Frosh will check in with as many bottle caps as possible
2. Friday is poem day. Be prepared to recite an original four line jingle about your particular insignia.

Friday afternoon 3:30-4:30 P.M.

1. All Frosh report to the auditorium for a session of "Frosh Court".

Friday evening

1. Soph-Frosh Get Together in the college gym. Don't forget to come for a lot of fun and to celebrate the end of interclass joshing.

Any questions of yours on any of these activities will be answered by the Sophomores Wednesday morning.

Dear Miss Gillmeister:

I am happy to note that your name was among those on the Dean's List. I congratulate you for attaining this very commendable record. This is an achievement which many desire but only a few are privileged to make.

I hope that it is an indication of your continued ambition for the remainder of your college work and for your future goal. Please keep in mind that my office is always open and that I am always anxious to help and advise you in any way that I can. Hence feel free to drop in for a chat at any time.

With best wishes for a happy and profitable college year, I am

Sincerely yours

Pretty Muses Preside Over Teachers' Moving Up Day

State College Observes 20th Moving Up Day

The big day when all students move upward and onward was celebrated yesterday at Buffalo State Teachers College. The 20th annual Moving-up Day had as its theme This is Worth Fighting For, interpreted by Mary E. Clark, queen, and her eight attendants, who participated in early afternoon ceremonies as Greek Muses. Class members wore warsages, contributing them later to the Student Dormitory Fund.

Chosen as Buffalo's Powers Girl last year, the queen is a native of Canton. She was attended by the Misses Madeleine Vey and Marie C. Ryan, seniors; Constance E. Batt and Betty R. Klein, juniors; Olga T. Milich and Janet C. Smith, sophomores, and Nancy J. Dunn and Charlotte M. Miller, freshmen.

Memorial Gifts Presented

Memorial gifts were presented to Dr. Harry W. Rockwell, president, by classes and sororities. In recognition of her high scholastic record and leadership, Miss Louis Quilty, graduating senior, received the Bishop Award. The school's highest honor, it was established as a tribute to Miss Elizabeth Bishop, former science teacher.

The Roaring Twenties, a gay variety show, climaxed the program. In charge of the program were the Misses Jean Mitchell and Kathryn Gabed as Greek Muses, Queen Mary E. Clark, center, and her eight attendants played prominent roles in yesterday's Moving Up Day ceremonies at State Teachers College. The attendants, left to right, are: Janet C. Smith, Constance E. Batt, Madeleine Vey, Charlotte M. Miller, Nancy J. Dunn, Marie C. Ryan, Betty R. Klein and Olga T. Milich.

Rupert, co-chairmen; James Singletery, assembly; Terry McGuire and Miss Helen McMasters, variety show; Mrs. Sylvia M. Namyet, publicity; Miss Dorothy Land, refreshments, and Miss Celia Adamczak, finance.

Reigns Over Campus

Mary E. Clark of Canton, an art senior at State Teachers College, was enthroned today in the college quadrangle as queen of Moving-Up Day. Clad in a white Grecian dress with gold velvet cloak, she watched the exchange of War Stamp flowers among classes and presentation to the college of the senior gift, the painting "Buffalo in Winter" by Isaac Sawyer. Miss Clark resides here at 17 Tudor place.

1. HAIL S. T. C.

Hail S.T.C. and wake the echo all along Scajaquada;
True we'll be to you whate'er you do -
At class and on the floor and in the field,
For we're from Buffalo State Teachers,
Our songs will ever raise
Praise for our S. T. C.
And ever cheer for victory.

Hail Alma Mater - quicker do our hearts beat at thy very name.
All our love and deep devotion, too
We pledge to you and ever will we sing
The praise of Buffalo State Teachers.
To thee inspiring guide!
Our mother you will be
Forever in our memory.

2. FOREVER IN OUR HEARTS

At dawn the shadows rise,
A view falls on our eyes,
A stately portico whose classic splendor
never dies;
Alma Mater, your glory we'll hold,
Forever in our hearts.

Our school, to thee we sing,
For you mean everything.
Your campus is our roaming place,
Your halls with laughter ring.
Alma Mater, we'll keep you, you know,
Forever in our hearts.

3. TOWER CHIMES

Every morning hear the chimes ring:
Sweet the evening with rejoicing.
Tower chimes, tower chimes glistening on the air, floating everywhere.
All the hours silver ring and sing with the tower chimes,
Tower chimes, sky tones so rare.

Every morning hear the chimes ring:
Sweet the evening with rejoicing.
Tower chimes, tower chimes, waters
ripple light tuned to deep delight, Bathed in vaporous strains so lush we hush to the tower chimes
Tower chimes (pause)
The belfry's prayer!

4. ON THE BANKS OF OLD SCAJAQUADA

On the banks of old Scajaquada
Stands the home of S.T.C.
Most majestic in its meaning
As it beckons you and me.
May we grasp the opportunity
That it offers day by day,
Learning truths of life's great lessons
That shall aid us on our way.

Ever onward, ever upward go,
Never faltering at the task
But resolving still more firmly,
Rising higher at each grasp.
May we climb to heights unheard of,
In our efforts to unfold.
Mindful ever of the meaning,
Alma Mater - new and old.

So when years have come and ended
And the classes come and gone,
May the children's lives be brighter
In a world of work and song.
Alma Mater may thou guide us
As the brook beside thy lawns,
To the lake and far off ocean
Where the daylight ever dawns.

5. CHEER, CHEER FOR S. T. C.

Cheer, Cheer for S. T. C.
Raise your voices high, so that the orange and the black in triumph fly
Rah! Rah!
Cheer, Cheer for S. T. C.
Bring out the spirit that shall in us ever be.

6. COLLEGE DAYS

College days, the happiness of youth,
Care free days of joys we'll long remember.
College days, of ecstasies fading.
In our hearts they will always live and will never die.
Days filled with love and with friendships tender;
Days that are gone, leaving memory's splendor.
Golden days in the sunshine of youth,
College days, too soon gone.

Directs College Singers

TEACHERS COLLEGE GLEE CLUB TO SING AT CONCERT FRIDAY

Choral numbers by the Senior Women's Glee Club of Buffalo State Teachers College will be featured at the final Pop Concert of the Buffalo Philharmonic Orchestra in Kleinhans Music Hall Friday evening. Directed by Silas L. Boyd, the chorus will sing "Holiday Song" by William Schuman, "Hospodi Pomiloi" by Lvovsky-Gore, "Cherubic Hymn" by Gretchaninoff and "Beautiful Saviour" arranged by F. Melius Christiansen.

The Senior Women's Glee Club of the State Teachers College dates back to the old State Normal School in Jersey St. The first glee club was organized in 1912 by Miss Cora Sager, who was succeeded by Miss Ruth Speir in the early 1920s. Mr. Boyd became head of the Music Department and director of the organization when Miss Speir retired in 1942. Although the glee club gives several concerts each year for the student body of the college and one or two open concerts, it never has been heard by Philharmonic audiences.

Also appearing on Friday evening's program will be Robert F. Schulz, Buffalo concert pianist who will play Morton Gould's "American Concertette" and George Gershwin's "Second Rhapsody." At the request of The Buffalo Evening News, sponsors of Friday's concert, the Philharmonic will play under the direction of Franco Autori, rather than a guest conductor as has been the practice for other Pop Concerts. It will be Mr. Autori's second appearance as conductor for a Pop Concert, the previous one being for The News-sponsored pre-Christmas program.

Because it is the final Pop Concert of the season and because Mr. Autori is conducting, there has been more than usual interest and the ticket sale has been brisk.

Ovation Tendered Autori as "Pop" Season Closes

By THEODOLINDA C. BORIS

ANY question that might have existed as to the hold of Franco Autori on local concert-goers must surely have been dispelled by the ovation he received Friday evening at the close of one of the best of the season's "Pop" concerts by the Buffalo Philharmonic Orchestra, and the last of the current season.

Apparently prepared to stay for an indefinite number of encores, the capacity audience in Kleinhans Music Hall, after two encores had been played, was invited by Mr. Autori to sing "Auld Lang Syne," in token of the "Pop" concert season's close. The audience, in tribute to Mr. Autori and the orchestra, stood while singing the song.

The audience had thoroughly enjoyed the program, which held plenty of variety and some very good music-making. Appropriately, for the concert was the fourth "Pop" of the season to be sponsored by The Buffalo Evening News, the bright rhythms of Lampe's Buffalo News March made a lively opening.

Irish Tune Is Pleasing

Grainger's setting of one of the most touching of folk tunes, "Irish Tune from County Derry," was given a fine reading. Chuckles of appreciation greeted Templeton's Mozart Matriculates, the Hippo Dance and Mosquito Dance by Paul White. Greatly relished by the listeners was the genial jest of the Finale from Haydn's "Farewell" Symphony, in which the players leave the stage by twos and threes, till only conductor, concertmaster and first deskman of the second violins are left.

Robert Schulz, talented Buffalo pianist, established some kind of a record by appearing for the fifth time within three years as soloist with the Philharmonic.

In Morton Gould's American Concertette and Gershwin's Second Rhapsody, he showed again his brilliant flair for jazz and modern idioms. His playing was clean-cut, the tone quality seeming to have attained a greater depth than I remembered from previous occasions.

Glee Club Excellent

Coming out to play his original "Autori Stomp" for encore, Mr. Schulz enlivened proceedings with some impromptu remarks which amused the listeners.

Reflecting the sound musical and artistic training of their director, Silas L. Boyd, members of the State Teachers College Women's Glee Club offered a group of songs by Schuman, Lvovsky, Gretchaninoff and Christiansen. Tonally and expressively, the singing was excellent. For the gay "Holiday Song" by Schuman, the only one sung with accompaniment, Kenneth Coghill, also of the college music faculty, was at the piano.

For this, as for everything else during the evening, the audience was emphatically enthusiastic, and for encore the chorus sang Cain's "America My Own."

Music Review

The Buffalo Philharmonic Orchestra closed its "pop" concert series at Kleinhans Music Hall last evening with a gay program. Except for a feeble stab at Haydn, the selections and the playing were on the informal, homespun side. Franco Autori conducted.

The most striking feature was the singing by the State Teachers College Women's Glee Club, a group of 90 young women in party dresses of many hues. They sang and hummed their way through hymns and ditties by Lvovsk, Gretchaninoff, Christiansen and Schuman, to salvos of applause from a capacity audience.

Robert F. Schulz, young Buffalo organist and choir director, in numbers by Gershwin and Gould, entertained the listeners in a musical conversation with the orchestra. Back and forth went the chit-chat, as if they were a group of people talking about the weather, the curfew and this and that. It was good fun, climaxed by the pianist's giddy performance of what he called the Autori Stomp, or Franco in the Groove.

In honor of St. Patrick's Day, the orchestra played an Irish tune from County Derry, by Grainger. Other selections were White's Hippo and Mosquito Dances, and Carmichael-Gould's Star Dust.

Awards Presented

Brunette Miss Betty Klein, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin G. Klein, 333 Northumberland Ave., yesterday was crowned queen of State Teachers College at its 21st Moving Up Day celebration. Wearing a white silk gown, she was attended by the Misses Joanne Cunningham, Constance Batt, Helga Sy, Charlotte Miller, Jean Fitzhenry, Marsha Pettis, Edith Tetter and Janet Smith.

Speaking for the graduating class, Miss Klein said that "today the other classes are moving up a year, but we as seniors will soon be moving out. We leave with the hope that you will carry on and uphold the traditions of our college."

Awards Presented

Dr. Anna Gemmel presented the Bishop Award to Jean Steinmiller. The school's highest honor, it was established as a tribute to Miss Elizabeth Bishop, former science teacher. Lois Stiles won the Artcraft scholarship and the sophomore girls' basketball team, captained by Margaret Engleman, received the Athletic Cup.

Gold basketballs for three years of participation were received by June Gentner, Arlene Guenther, Elsa Lohans, Jean Hyde, Florence Milliken and Shirley Potts. Gold letters for four years were won by Irene Zielinski and Jean Berger.

Memorial gifts were presented to Dr. Harry W. Rockwell, president of the college, by various classes and sororities, with emphasis on a picnic fund. Dr. Rockwell announced that picnic facilities will be built in the immediate future at the rear of the campus.

New officers of the Class of '46 are Marion Smith, president; Janet O'Brien, vice-president; Rut' Sander, secretary, and Jean Arnold, treasurer.

Dear Miss Gillmeister,

Thank you for your employment qualification record. Can offer you position at The Mohawk for the coming season, at $100. a month in addition to your board and room, as an assistant in the kitchens. We employ several Home Economic students to help with food preparation and cooking, help serve meals to guest and crew or help in salad and pastry room. I am sure that at The Mohawk you will gain not only an excellent training in foods but also learn how to work and live with others.

Will be glad to answer any questions you may wish to ask. I hope that you can plan to be with us June 25th to September 5th. Am enclosing a work agreement blank. If you do not wish position, will you kindly return it once unsigned. If you wish position, kindly sign and return to us by May 25th.

Yours very truly,

Margaret C. Wilcox

Dear Aud,
 Received your letter while I was taking a sunbath on this dock. The swimming is swell, & is not too cold! That was really a gossipy letter. Today Helen & I made buttermilk pudding for 24, 8 dozen rolls, 3 recipes of muffins, & 1 recipe of sugar cookies. We have been off work from 2:30 until tomorrow. I'll write a letter tomorrow. Love,
 Alice
