AN 18-VOICE male choir will make its radio debut over WEBR at 5:30 o'clock this afternoon. Known as the "Royal Serenaders," the group has given numerous concerts in churches and before many service organizations, but today will be its first time on the air.

Directed by Roy A. Mathis, the Serenaders' extensive repertoire includes classics, semi-classics, spirituals and pop tunes.

The Rev. Kenneth A. Bowen, rector of the Hickory Street Christian Center, will be a speaker on today's program.
