EXECUTIVE MANSION,
WASHINGTON.

Sept 15. 1885

E. H. Butler Esq

My dear Sir:

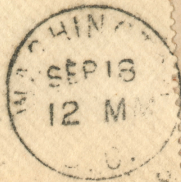

I had last Saturday a conversation with your brother Ambrose in which he told me of your plans and claims in regard to Mr. Crenly's location here. I am quite sure if he will come here we can on convenient be to give him a plan which will further your claims. I am inclined to think he will be a useful man in one of two or three places which are open I believe to the rights kind of an applicant. I am not able to speak with certainty as to the salary which might attach but I suppose somewhere between $1500 and $2000 or $2500. Let me hear from you as soon as this looks like.

I was extremely glad to hear of the promised additional property of the Bureau.

Yours very sincerely
Green Cleaveland
