Dedication

To Harry Wescott Rockwell, our new principal, this book is affectionately dedicated by the Elms Staff.

Roadmakers' Revueille

See, in the east, the sun rising high!
All through the night we've been watching the sky.
Armed for our labors, impatient we stand!
Off, fellow workers, the hour is at hand!

Some to the highways, the byways for some!
Roads are uneven; the city says, "Come
And pick up the stones that lie loose in the street—
Come! Make the way clear for the little ones' feet!"

Here Alma Mater has taught us the way
To be strong in the work that we do every day;
To toil in the sunshine; to laugh in the rain;
To tug at the stones tho' our labor seem vain.

Now, that at last our good-byes must be said,
She gives each a charm, White and Victory Red,
Says, "Remember, my children, that all the day long
The white bids 'be pure'; the red 'brave and strong'.

See in the east the sun rising high!
Could any one fear with that blue in the sky?
Road Menders we, and our courage is new.
Alma Mater, we'll try to be worthy of you.

MARION R. WAKEMAN.

O, Normal Fair

Words and Music by Milton John Pfeffer

O, Normal fair, of thee now we sing,
To thee our hearts and voices we raise
In one great theme; our loyalty we bring
To thee in love and praise.

Hail, Normal fair, as we leave thee today,
Within thy walls we honor thy name;
And, parting, now with one accord we say—
Blessings to Normal's fame.

Our long sought goal is won.
But the wise old Elm trees laugh and say,
"You have only just begun."

A. JONES.

Senior Kindergarten

ARNOLD, EMILY P.....
La Salle, N. Y.

"Oh, say, girls have you seen my—(keys, books, purses, money, etc.)"

The only thing Emily hasn't lost is her reputation for losing things. But, we would rather have our Emily who loses things, than no Emily at all. We just couldn't do without her.

"Gone, but not forgotten."

BAIRD, KATHLEEN....."Kay"

life of Buffalo. A jolly, good-natured girl, who is ever willing to help. Our hearts and hands to Mildred.
Clonian Sorority.

BUNDY, FLORENCE.....

A close companion of Myrtle. She can teach anything from kindergarten to the fifth grade; she can contrive anything from a doll to a dissertation on Froebel's Mother plays.

CHAPIN, FRANCELLE....."Fran"
Silver Creek, N. Y.

The whirlwind of our section: Fran is never quiet long enough for anyone to notice it; and this energy is just what is needed in kindergarten. She is a favorite with her children and a favorite with us girls.

CLOSE, PANSY....."Pan"

The calmest person among us. Pansy speaks calmly, teaches calmly, skips calmly—
in fact, she does everything in this same way; and consequently gets it done. Pansy is a girl you enjoy being with; ask the kindergarten girls and they will agree.

COLLORD, EDITH.....
Buffalo, N. Y.

All information regarding any part of the kindergarten course or anything pertaining to it may be obtained from Edith. She is our encyclopedia, "our strength upon our right hand," and we appreciate her—we do. What would we do without you, Edith?

Walk away with laurels,
While we have been left behind.
Says "Oh Dear."
Arethusa Sorority. Y. W. C. A.

GREENWOOD, DOROTHY G..... "Dotty"
Lockport, N. Y.

"Dotty" is the most versatile person imaginable. She is a splendid housekeeper, an excellent cook, a tip-top kindergartner, and a real friend. All these qualities are combined in one very small person.
Arethusa Sorority.

HAGER, HELEN.....
Buffalo, N. Y.

"Hark, hark the lark."
Who else could the lark be but our Helen?
"Say, have you your lesson to-day?"

HARRIS, LUCIE A.....

"The lily-maid of Attica."
A recipe for "Lucie":—Take a generous supply of art; mix in slowly one portion of grace and a little pep; add as much cleverness as needed. When almost cool, add a bright idea and beat thoroughly. This makes a most tempting concoction which will satisfy all members of the family.
Tri Sigma. Elms Staff.

HASSEL, ALMA.....
Buffalo, N. Y.

Admitted that "good-night" was her favorite expression. She is a splendid, helpful, cheery girl whom we all have been glad to have with us these two years. Minister's daughters are so useful. Aren't they, Alma?

HIRSCH, BERNICE..... "Bee"
Gainesville, N. Y.

One of the "happy four" and a true friend of all.

And giveth happiness or peace
Is low—esteemed in her eyes."
Clonian Sorority.

JOHNSON, MAE.....

"Come and trip it as ye go,
On the light fantastic toe."
How is dancing class progressing, Mae?
Given—Two cigar boxes and Mae

Much sawdust,
Endless ingenuity.

"When shall we four meet again?"
Says, "Is that right?"
Clonian Sorority.

LAAS, MYRTLE.....
Mount Vernon, N. Y.

Known by her giggle.
"A job, a job, my kingdom for a job!"

McGOWN, MILDRED.....
Buffalo, N. Y.

Although Mildred has been "one of us" for just one year, she has won a lasting place in our hearts. And isn't she the most helpful child? We don't know how the "salt-cellar ground form" would have progressed with some of us had it not been for Mildred.
Tri Sigma Sorority.

ROSE, EMMA....."Em"
Buffalo, N. Y.

"She came; she saw; she conquered." Who was the gallant leader of the Y. W. Party?
Clonian Sorority.

ROSEN, FRANCES....."Fran"
East Aurora, N. Y.

"Haste ye, Fran, and bring with Thee,

And fill our hearts with true delight."
Y. W. C. A. Record Staff.

TRIGG, ETHEL....."Trigger"

Three-Year Senior Class

BAGLEY, HENRY S....."Bag"
Buffalo, N. Y.

Not the author of "School Discipline." "I don't see why it couldn't be done this way." A builder of houses who expects to be builder of men. Is very quiet and always answers to the point.

BURGOYNE, LEO J....."Leo"
Buffalo, N. Y.

Came from the land of "Baked Beans." "Now I'll tell ya." Devoted to teaching Sheet Metal Work at School No. 47. Has a good appetite and is still waiting for his portion. (Roycroft Inn).

FISHER, LYMAN....."Ly"
Buffalo, N. Y.

"I don't get your question." Machinist and tool-maker. Mild mannered, serious, and gentle. The latest "Benedict" of the class.

GANNON, JOHN....."Jack"
Buffalo, N. Y.

The silent partner. One of the four smooth tops of the class. You know the story about hair and brains. "I don't get you." A good plumber is just as necessary as a doctor.

KAISER, ROBERT....."Bob"
Buffalo, N. Y.

(High-po-the'-sis) is his middle name. Our President. A prompter of social affairs. Designed as a Machinery Man. "Jeff" of the class. We all look down on Bob. "Who's goin' my way?"

KNAPP, HERBERT C....."Herb"
Buffalo, N. Y.

A good example to follow—Patternmaker. Thinks he is an A-1 teacher because he is at School No. 1. His name may lead you to believe that he is asleep, but he is not.

KOLASSA, SYLVESTER T....."Syl"
Buffalo, N. Y.

"I should think so." "How're they comin'?"
Some story teller. Quite a Kidder. Secretary of the class. Star (?) forward of the basketball team.

LINK, GEORGE H....."George"
Buffalo, N. Y.

Not Darwin's. A perspective critic. "Pedagogical Prerogative." "Don't do it this way, do it like this." Another of the Bald Spots.
A maker of patterns—not Butterick's. Three years at Night School and still gaining weight.

LONG, EDWARD F....."Ed."
Buffalo, N. Y.

"I would do it this way." "I noticed in the shop down stairs." Machinist and tool-maker by day and Vice-President by night.
"Girls, he doesn't smoke, chew or drink."

NACHTRIEB, NELSON E....."Nel"
Doesn't "Knock" as his name does. "Mutt" of the class. Always looked up to. "Where are you going to-night?" "Are all the lights out?" Treasurer. Basketball manager. Plumber, Teacher of Drafting, and Shop Mathematics at Black Rock Vocational School.

SHANNON, LUKE S...."Lonesome Luke"
Buffalo, N. Y.

Some traveler. Loves an argument, but is always cool, as he works on iceless refrigerators. "When I was down East." Will teach sheet metal work.

REID, GEORGE E....."Baldy"
Buffalo, N. Y.

Another shining spot of the class. Teaching Machinery at the Peckham "Aristocracy."
Some bowler. His ambition is to beat Dewey,
Thorndike and other lesser lights.

REILLEY, JOSEPH E....."Joe"
Buffalo, N. Y.

A well "Red" man. "What would you do in this case?" "Has anybody heard this story?
Here is a good one." A faculty member of several schools. A pattern maker teaching manual training.

TUTTHILL, HENRY....."Harry," "Tutt"
Buffalo, N. Y.

Silent Harry until he starts and then oh, my. Also loves an argument. "Brevity is the soul of wit." "Taking it from a Psychological standpoint." Favors freehand drawing.
Elms and Record Staff. Press Correspondent.
Disciple of Benjamin Franklin. (Printer).

WERRICK, JEROME H.."Jerry on the job"
Buffalo, N. Y.

Teaches Manual Training. "Don't cha know?" "Yessir." Spends most of his time at home with his "Henry."

Two-Year Senior Class

WILLIAM C. BOLDT, Buffalo, N. Y.
Painter and Decorator.

Bill Boldt, and threw the gauntlet down,
And warbled like a thrush:
I want to paint it red, (the town),
Someone give Bill a brush.

THOMAS DILLON, Buffalo, N. Y.
Machinist.

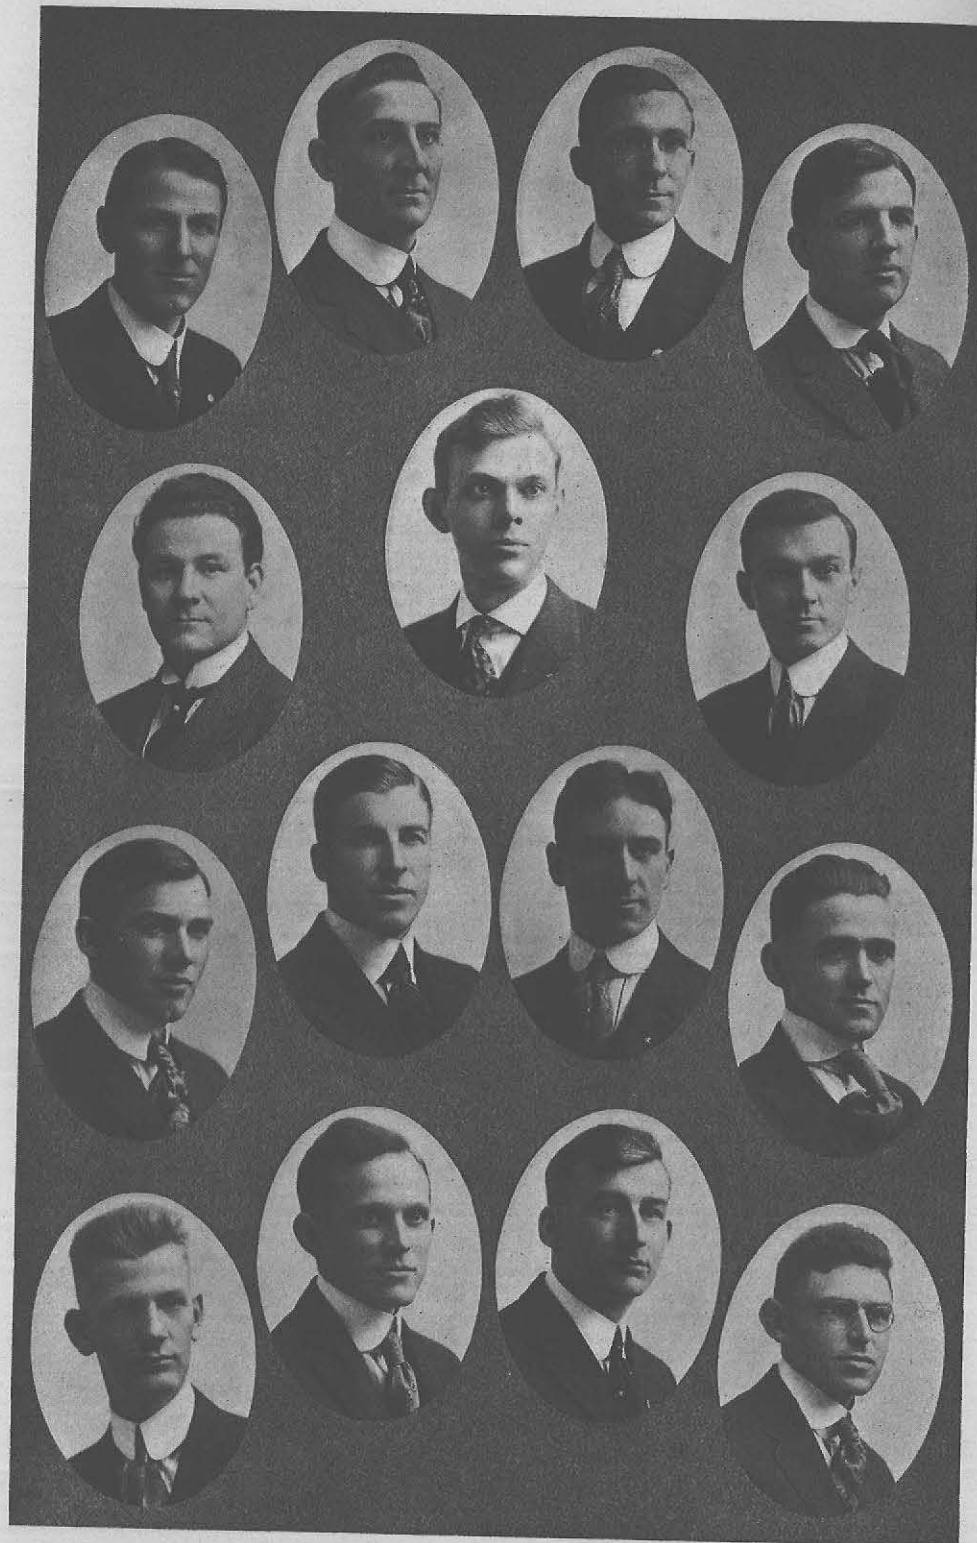

Dillon thinks that he will surely be a teacher,
His family tree has talent, never fear:
With a little "Burbank knowledge," he will win his way to college,
Or the dream that Dillon dreams, will disappear.

GEORGE GILBERT, Buffalo, N. Y.
Carpenter and Cabinet-work.

Another man still in the woods,
That see-saws on through life:
Who makes a cabinet for moods,
And tries to conquer strife.

JAMES H. HOWELL, Buffalo, N. Y.
Machinist.

Another machinist who cannot lie down,
For, dreary of lessons and classes,
He passes the evening with furrow and frown
While others are passing their glasses.

THE VOCATIONAL SENIORS—TWO-YEAR COURSE

WILLIAM LESLIE, Buffalo, N. Y.
Plumber.

Here's a man who wipes a joint with pleasure,
A sleuth, a Sherlock on the trail of leaks.
A knotty problem is to him a treasure.
'Tis a friend of "Plumber Leslie's, now who speaks.

GEORGE M. MOCK, Buffalo, N. Y.
Sheet Metal Worker.

Here is a man upon the road to fame,
Who has a load more heavy than his sin
For all are Mocks, who bear his very name,
And all his efforts lead, alas, to tin.

EDWARD MOESER, Buffalo, N. Y.
Machinist.

One of our men who is named Ed. Moeser
Very much dislikes to leave his home.
The question what to say of him is something of a poser,
Except he sadly sighs when he must roam.

WILLIAM C. JOHNSON, Buffalo, N. Y.
Machinist.

Will Johnson is a lad o' sense
The future will reveal.
He works for love, and not for pence
With gear and shaft and wheel.

P. J. O'DONNELL, Buffalo, N. Y.
Carpenter.

And here's P. J. O'Donnell, an Irishmen
that's true.
The O before O'Donnell is no blarney:
Sure, he'll make the boat that takes him
across the ocean blue,
And he'll sail it on the bosom of Killarney.

LEO H. O'HARA, Buffalo, N. Y.
Electrician.

Here is a live wire in the dark,
And never known to shirk it:
A luminous though tiny spark,
He travels in a circuit.

JOSEPH O'HARA, Buffalo, N. Y.
Electrician.

Two O'Hara's on the scroll,
Wizards of the spark:
This one illuminates his soul,
With visions in the dark.

ROUDENBUSH, ELMER F.,
Buffalo, N. Y.

Mechanical Draughtsman.
"Rodi" seeks but to design a perfect form for a "Lizzie."
"Rodi's" task is one divine, yet "Rodi" is
a sport:
You (auto) see him basketball: to see him
when he's busy,
As he swats the big balloon across the court.

GERHARD W. SJODEN, Buffalo, N. Y.
Patternmaker.

Gerhard Sjoden as a name stands alone,
And surely ought to bring its owner fame;
But Shorty must live up to it or men will say
Alas, we fear there's nothing in a name.

CARL SCHAEFER, Buffalo, N. Y.
Machinist.

"I've been extremely busy for a year or two,"
Says Carl and Carl's no shirk:
But I know machinists, wily through and through.
Who set their outer calipers on work.

HENRY STAUBITZ, Buffalo, N. Y.
Machinist.

Henry is a little backward, Henry cannot talk:
Henry was a crawler first, before he stood
to walk:
Henry is a huge success, he's learning how
to teach,
The greatest talkers on the earth, are barkers on the beach.

LYNN S. WILCOX, Buffalo, N. Y.
Machinist.

Since numbers are supplanting names,
And everybody's sober,
We will give Lynn his "nom de plume,"
And call him "Louie Dobber."

CLARENCE WILSON, Buffalo, N. Y.
Carpenter.

A famous name the world o'er,
Flashed over wire and cable:
May "peace" e'er hover near the door;
Don't sit around the "table."

Treasurer.....	NELSON E. NACHTRIEB
Press Correspondent.....	HENRY TUTTHILL

We are calling this the Three-Year Senior Class because of the shortening of the vocational course to two years, thus making two classes graduate at this time. We feel that whatever time may have been saved to the other students by the shortening of the course was lost in their training; for it is safe to say that not one of this class regretted the length of time spent in the work, and that, too, during the strenuous days of the war.

This class started in three years ago with fifty members, and at the close of the first year had been reduced to about thirty. That year was a test for stickers, for many of us had been out of school for a long time. The subjects of that year included Industrial Education taught by Mr. Tingley, Mathematics and Physics by Mr. Phillippi, English by Miss Lane and Miss Kempke, Psychology and Physiology by Mr. Pease, and Drawing by Dr. Upton. It was the older men who stuck to the class, but a lot of credit is due those young fellows who put in the whole three years.

During the second year the class was somewhat depleted by the war, and numbered about twenty-five at the close. The third year started out with the war and the "Flu" epidemic, but the "standbys" held their ground and enjoyed the sessions like a lot of schoolboys. While Mr. Root, Mr. F. Woellner, and Mr. Bradley made it interesting for us, we have not the least doubt that we did as much for them.

Out of the fifteen who will graduate there are six now teaching: Messrs. Nachtrieb, Burgoyne, Knapp, Reilley, Reid and Werrick, all giving a good account of themselves.

The experience in this Vocational Course for Teachers has shown that men are willing and anxious to take up studies if they are properly presented. The old idea that learning is finished after graduation from school should be a dead one. After a few years of shop work, school work is not only more appreciated but its benefits are also better understood.

Of the band of girls who came to Buffalo State Normal in September, nineteen hundred and seventeen, to take kindergarten work, only two have not been with us in our Senior year. Now, at the end of our course, we are twenty-one strong.

This year has been a very happy and busy one. The girls have enjoyed not only social events, but also their work for the various war and reconstruction activities. Chief among the latter has been our work for the Belgian Relief Committee.

Early in the year many girls made various knitted articles for this cause. In January an exhibit of clothes, made by the girls for the Belgian refugees, was held in the Methods Room. This exhibit would not have been so large had it not been for the untiring efforts of Miss Cassety.

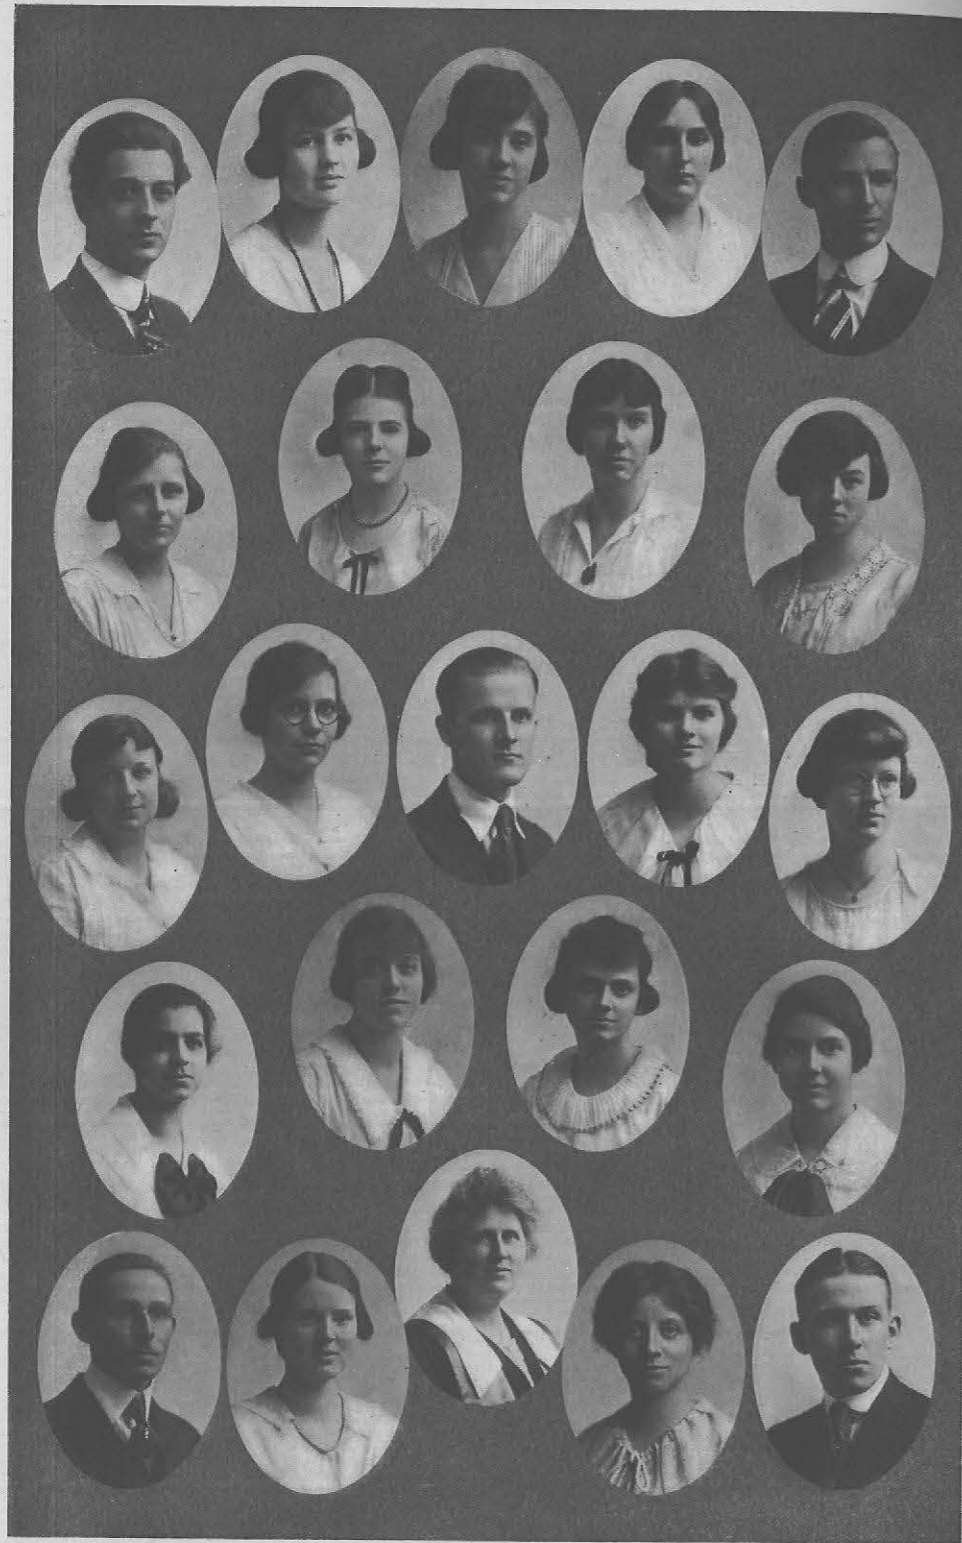

At Christmas, toys brought in by students and children were repaired and garments were made from material bought with a part of the interest from the School Liberty Bond. These things were given to children to whom Christmas otherwise would have meant very little.

On the evening of March seventh the Kindergarten girls were delightfully entertained by Miss Cassety in the Kindergarten rooms. Games were played and afterward, in the cafeteria, we were greeted on every side by kewpies.

On May sixth the Kindergarten girls gave a Victory Loan program in assembly. The Seniors feel that they upheld their dignity by furnishing music for this occasion.

This year has gone very quickly and we are sure that as we look back in the years to come we shall remember our Senior year at Normal as one of the happiest in our lives.

The past year has been very successful and happy for the girls of Arethusa. Our rushing season started in October with a corn and wiener roast. Because of the influenza epidemic, the other parties, including a theatre party and luncheon and a party at the Chapter House, were postponed until late November.

We have been delightfully entertained at the homes of Mildred Kuhn, Jeane and Eleonor Murray, Marie Henrich and Rose Haas, Mildred Cyphers, also at the Chapter House by the Passive Chapter.

Convocation was held in February at New Paltz and our delegates Florence Albee and Helen Grant brought back interesting reports.

Arethusa united with Clio and Tri Sigma Sororities in making the Intersorority Dance a delightful occasion, also on another occasion in giving an Intersorority Reception for Mr. and Mrs. Rockwell.

Our two dances, one in December and the other in May were a success, both financially and socially.

Miss Roginson, one of our honorary members, is now overseas in the service of our country as a canteen worker for the Y. W. C. A. The other members have been loyal workers in the Liberty Loan Drives. The patriotism of the sorority was shown by the substantial support given the United War Work Campaign. The money given at this time was earned by the girls through the sale of Christmas Cards.

ARETHUSA SORORITY

Our "Hot Dog Sale" given in March proved to be a unique and enjoyable event. During the past year these girls have been honored by serving the school as follows:

Genevieve Dye, President of Senior Class.
 Florence Albee, Vice-President of Senior Class.
 Helen McDonough, Treasurer of Senior Class.
 Eleanor Murray, President of Freshman Class.
 Helen Grant, Vice-President of Freshman Class.
 Rose Haas, Secretary, of Freshman Class.
 Jessie Schlosser, Treasurer of Freshman Class.
 Muriel Miller, President of Household Arts Club.
 Eleanor Murray, President of Y. W. C. A.
 Ida Cooke, Editor-in-Chief of Record Staff.
 Ann Burkhardt, School and News Editor.
 Ann Burkhardt, School and News Editor of the Record and Vice-President of Dramatic Club.

The grand climax of the year came when the operetta "Sylvia" was presented June second, under the direction of Miss Rosamond Dodge. The cast consisted of the following:

Owing to the influenza epidemic, our activities were late in starting, but like everything else, when they did start, they went with a rush. There has been an abundance of work, together with much enjoyment and pleasure. We have been well represented in the various school activities. Norine Bury, Marian Wakeman, Carmen Watkeys, Dorothy Cozzens, Emilie Fuller and Anna Jones worked on the Record Staff, and Anna Jones and Emilie Fuller were members of the Elms Staff. Norine Bury was chosen president of the Dramatic Club, and took the part of Witch Hex in Snow White. Edith Prentice was Snow White, and Marian Wakeman was one of the maids. One of our members has been actively engaged in settlement work outside of school.

This year the Convocation of the Clonian Sorority met in May at Plattsburg, when Theta Chapter was represented by Huldah Whitwood as Grand Vice-President and Dorothy Barner as Junior Delegate. In addition to our regular meetings, we have had several literary meetings at the homes of various members.

Clio has taken advantage of the many opportunities offered for helping others. At Christmas we delivered baskets of food, clothing and toys to a number of needy families, we contributed to the Red Cross, the Charity Organization, the Buffalo Orphan Asylum, and the United War Work Campaign.

To our members and many fellow students who leave us at graduation, we extend our best wishes for future success.

During the year, Tri Sigma has welcomed into her number, thirteen active members and one honorary member, Miss Cotton.

The annual dance was held in the gymnasium on the night of December thirteenth. Friday, the thirteenth held no fears for Tri Sigma, and the dance indeed did prove to be a great success.

The big event of the year for Tri Sigma was our annual Founders' Day Banquet, which was held April twenty-ninth at the Hotel Statler. About sixty of the active and passive girls were present. Mrs. Lewis Rogers, president of the Federation of Women's Club of Buffalo, was our guest of honor.

Miss Ruth Kendall has been chosen delegate to represent Zeta Chapter at Tri Sigma's convention in Kansas City this summer.

We have not only enjoyed doing for ourselves, but for others. Especially during the holiday season, when we remembered those who have not had the happiness and advantages in their lines that we have, and we feel the joy of real service. We likewise made and sent Belgian blankets to help those in need across the sea.

To the class of nineteen nineteen, Tri Sigma extends its best of good wishes.

During the school year 1918-1919, the following events have taken place according to the rules of the Faculty-Student Council: Organization of the Senior and Freshman classes, the appointment of an Auxiliary Committee to work in connection, with the Council, and the promise of the New York Telephone Company to install a public telephone in the Buffalo Normal School as soon as possible. Numerous other minor improvements have been brought about, for example, lights in the basement and repair of pencil-sharpeners in the corridors.

Since March 7, 1919, the date of the first meeting this year, an amendment has been made to the Constitution, providing that the men students be represented in the Council. J. Milton Pfeffer has been elected to represent the men students.

The regular meetings are held the last Monday of each month instead of the first as heretofore, in accordance with a recent amendment to the By-Laws.

Students are urged to make use of the Council suggestions box. That is the best way to inform the Council of their needs and wishes. The Council is at their service.

THE HOUSEHOLD ARTS CLUB

When school opened last fall, we found that two of our teachers, Miss Coombs and Miss Howland, had left us, but we were pleased to welcome Miss Sipp and Mrs. Ward. Later we were very glad and very much excited when we learned that our new head, Miss Caudell, was coming.

This has been a busy, but happy year in the activities of the Club, and we all look back upon it with much joy and satisfaction.

Early in the year the Club took a trip to the General Electric Building to listen and learn about cooking foods with electricity. The girls received many new ideas and were delighted with the speaker who knew so much about his subject.

Another journey taken by the Department, was to the Statler Hotel, where Dr. Porter, of the State Department of Foods, spoke on the "Food Conditions of New York State." After the lecture we were treated to a moving picture show dealing with the manufacture of "Oleomargarine."

Again we attended a demonstration on supervised study given by Miss Simpson in the Hutchinson High School.

After returning from our Easter vacation many good speakers were in store for us. Miss Yorton, who has been teaching in West Africa, told of the peculiar but interesting food habits of the natives. Then Dr. Arnold spoke on the "Feeding and Care of Children." Miss Esther Snook of the Home Service Bureau of Erie County outlined the work done by her department.

But we have not been taking just trips alone, we have been working too, as we all know, when we served the four great dinners of the year for the Erie County School Teachers, The Board of Regents, The School Masters' Association and The Household Arts Alumni. Although we worked hard to make each one a success, we had a good time withal.

Last but not least, the Victory Loan Drive caused much excitement and competition among Kindergarten girls. Every girl worked hard bringing in many subscriptions for bonds. The best part of the drive was the overwhelming surprise at the eleventh hour when the largest subscription brought up our quota, thereby showing the school that we could do something else besides washing dishes. As a reward for our hard labor, the Kindergarten and General Normal girls gave us a good time in the gymnasium.

Among the other events pleasantly remembered are the Freshmen Party in the fall, and the St. Patrick's Day Masquerade given by our Seniors in honor of the Faculty, Juniors and Freshmen.

As the end of the year draws on there is a peculiar strained atmosphere up on the third floor, the cause of which is the promise of a four years' course in Household Arts with a degree. Let us hope that this promise will be fulfilled soon so that the entering girls may benefit by it next fall and our old friends, the Seniors, may come back and be with us another year.

 "We'll help! with a will Though we're busy, busy Seniors, we'll pay that bill."

Over all the city flying far and wide
 We dropped at many an office door and stepped inside.
 "Take!" said the Squadron
 "We take!" they replied
 So we sold them "ads" till all our space was occupied.

Down on the campus where the elm trees grew
 Stood the Flying Squadron, which above you view
 "Smile!" said the captain
 "We smile!" said the crew,
 "For we've done the little job that we set out to do."

to do justice to your eyes.

—Peter Meyer

An urgent national movement, like the Victory Liberty Loan, reminds us of the need of heeding the vital responsibilities of life.

Among these primary duties is the care of the eyes—enabling one to be an asset rather than a liability to country, home and business.

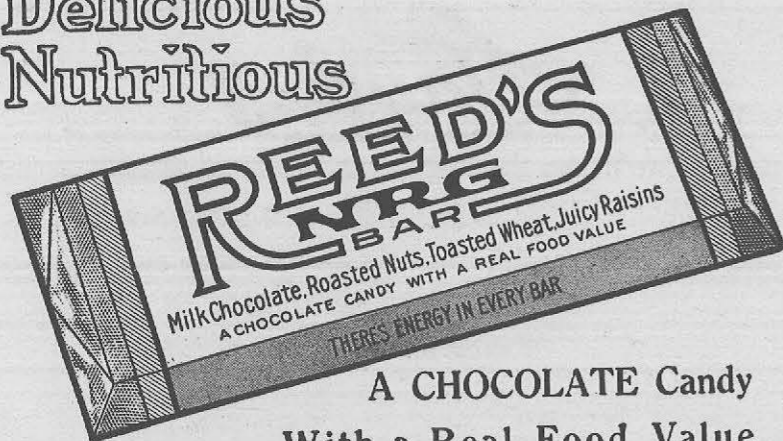

The oculist (physician eye-specialist) will give you an impartial diagnosis of the condition of your eyes. If glasses are advised, we will make them to suit your facial characteristics and occupational requirements.

The School War Savings Campaign this year in the Second Federal Reserve District is being conducted under the management of the School Bureau with Mr. C. F. Pritchard in charge. The Penny Savings Book which is being used with such good results was compiled under his supervision. The Vacation Banks, now ready for distribution, also emanated from this department.

The teaching of thrift is the keynote of the 1919 W. S. S. School work. The schools of Buffalo are showing a normal growth. Regular weekly reports of savings are received by the local War Savings Committee. The Buffalo School Department is co-operating, the School Bulletin for June containing an interesting article on thrift work. Elm Vocational school has assisted the local War Saving Committee by printing the Franklin mottoes and is now running the sketch made by Miss Kathleen Sherlock for drawing work in the lower grades.

The educational and sales campaign will be taken up again in the fall and new features will be added to make the work appealing to the pupils.
