EXECUTIVE MANSION,
WASHINGTON.

February 6, 1888

E. H. Butler Esq

President of

Dear Sir:

I received to-day your kind invitation to attend the third annual Concert and reception of the Buffalo Press Club, on the evening of the fourth instant.

I remember with much pleasure our business of a little character which is now my privilege to attend as the guest of the Club, a year ago; and you may be sure that if it were possible, I should avail myself of the opportunity which your invitation affords, to again meet some of my good Buffalo friends.

But I am obliged to say with real regrets, that my public duties here do not permit the acceptance of your invitation.

Hoping that the Congress and reception will be completely successful and with thanks for your kindest remembrance of me I am Yours Sincerely

Gives Anthony
