PILGRIM BAPTIST CHURCH 1934-1994

REV. R.D. HOLLOWAY- PASTOR
665 MICHIGAN AVENUE
BUFFALO, NEW YORK

Green Hall

Rev. R. David Holloway
Pastor

On this occasion of our church's 60th anniversary, I am pleased to have been asked to give a few reflections.

At this time we pause to thank God for having been so merciful to us as a church body.

I am sincerely appreciative for having been a part of this church history for 32 years, and for having the opportunity to grow in Christian fellowship and grace with each of you.

We must never forget to take time to salute the pioneers of this church for their vision and dedication. I am sure that their intentions were to promote religious fellowship among their fellow comrades, to commune together on the day of worship with the expectation of God's spirit, and to give witness and be witnesses to the word of the gospel.

With the attitude of success, I believe that we can do all things through Christ who strengthens us. I believe that the strength of our faith, the strengthening prayer of each concerned member, and the strength we have in God and ourselves is the source that will see us through.

Pastor R. David Holloway

HISTORY OF THE PILGRIM MISSIONARY BAPTIST CHURCH

On a Thursday evening, in the Spring of 1934, a small group of men and women left the fellowship of the Friendship Baptist Church which was pastored by the late Rev. Twilus Davis. The following Wednesday, Willie Gibson called a meeting at the home of Bro. Cleveland Allen at 222 Jefferson Avenue. A group of approximately thirty men and women met to discuss the idea of forming a Mission Group. The blessing of the Lord seemed to rest on the hearts of these troubled souls. The group continued to meet during the summer months of 1934 for the purpose of raising funds, solidarity and spiritual development. In August of that same year, the name Pilgrim Baptist Church, as submitted by Rosa Poole, would become the name of their future church.

An organizing committee was formed shortly thereafter. Rev. B. C. McCarly, the pastor of St. John's Baptist Church, was sought by the early members to provide guidance in establishing the church. The missionary group selected various members to join and obtain letters for the purpose of organizing the church. At the Western New Your Baptist District Association meeting Rev. B. C. McCarly submitted the recommendation for organization of the Pilgrim Baptist Church. The recommendation was then perfected by Rev. Phillips and carried.

On September 19, 1934, at Jefferson Avenue, a "reality" was realized when the church elected its first officers: the late Rev. R. D. Harris was acting pastor, Mr. O. C. Madkins: Chairman of the Deacon Board, Mr. Willie Gibson: Chairman of the Trustee Board, Mr. Zenobia Alexander: Church Clerk, Mrs. Frances Moore: Financial Secretary, and Mr. James Ingram: Poor Saint Treasurer.

The late Rev. Harris worked dutifully as in interim pastor before Rev. Hosea Pinckney was called to serve at the church. During this time, Pilgrim moved from 278 Jefferson Avenue to 488 Jefferson as its membership grew. In the Summer of 1936, Rev. Pinckney resigned from the post of pastor after eighteen months of service. This forced our church to begin the process of securing a minister. The late Rev. Henry B. Shaw was selected to minister the flock of Pilgrim.

Under the guidance of Rev. Shaw, the church again moved to accommodate its ever increasing membership. The address was 214 Clinton Street. Four auxiliaries were created during this period: the Pastor's Aid, under the leadership of Sister Gertrude Lilly, Number One Choir, organized by Sister Bessie Tytel, Missionary Society under the leadership of Frances Moore, and th Usher Board under the leadership of Bro. Marshall Evans.

Illness was ever present in the life of the late Rev. Shaw. In the Spring of 1940, his failing health forced him to resign after thirteen and half years of service. The Rev. John Davis, an Associate Minister over the years, pastored Pilgrim until the calling of Rev. A. H. Banks.

In the Fall of 1949, Rev. Banks assumed the position of pastor. The membership continued to grow while the younger members began to take active roles in the church. After two years of service, Rev. Banks resigned. Rev. Davis was forced once again to guide the spiritual growth of the church.

With prayers and saintly petitions, Pilgrim began to search for a pastor. Rev. Charles Alexander was selected. Rev. Alexander moved Pilgrim to 108 Clinton Street. The White Rose Club was reorganized under the leadership of its President, Sister Evelyn Frazier, during this time.

When Rev. Alexander resigned from the pastorate of the Church, it called a newly ordained minister, the Rev. Samuel Austin. With steadfast determination, initial apprehension and doubts to overcome, the congregation grew steadily into its present edifice. Along with the assistance of Rev. Davis, Rev. Austin encouraged men to take an active role in church affairs and set up a men's organization known as the Laymen's League.

The pride and dignity felt by members of Pilgrim Church became contagious. Many new members were added and the name Pilgrim Baptist became nationally known as an ever progressing church. It was in this building period that the title Doctor of Divinity was bestowed upon Rev. Austin, and the church felt great sorrow when he resigned but our members prayed and hoped for happiness. Rev. Davis picked up the spiritual pieces and supported us until a new minister was found. This time God sent a well - prepared leader, Rev. R. D. Holloway from Laurel, Mississippi. After assuming leadership, Rev. Holloway began preparing a program that will lead to the realization of a dream of many members of Pilgrim.

Under the leadership of Rev. Holloway, the church beautified the classrooms of the educational building, rearranged the choir stands, paved the parking lot, and made numerous renovations to the property. Four memorial clubs and three state clubs were organized. Mission Circle #1 was also created with Sister Corrie Upshaw serving as its President. Many ministers also served in the fold of Rev. Holloway: Rev. Whitfield Washington, Rev. Eugene Pringle, Rev. Osborn Taylor, Rev. Andre Washington, Rev. Edward Abrams and most recently Rev. Herman Potts and Rev. Larry Harris. Deacons who were ordained by Rev. Holloway include: Deacons Ellis Thomas, James Watkins, Willie Adams, Robert Staples, Sr., Frank Alexander, John James, Harrison Kenner, Alphonso Frazier, Eugene Boyd, Ruben Brazelton, Ira Holder, and John Feaster, Dea. Howard Davidson, James K. Upshaw, Benathan T. Upshaw.

During this period, the Youth Department became an interval part of the church under the new Pastor and its new Director, Mrs. Beatrice Holloway. Our Laymen's League continued its work and was invited to a District Laymen's Movement and continues to grow to a membership of over 90. Under the Rev. Holloway's leadership, our Boy and Girl Scouts became well known in the vicinity. (He also saw the need for renovation of our baptismal pool and went about the business of making this a reality).

We continue to grow and we are spiritually sound, always ready to serve with increasing faith and grace . . . how can we fail! We certainly can all say with great pride, "I am a member of Pilgrim Baptist Church".
