RACE RELATIONS SUNDAY OFFERING

In celebration of Race Relations Sunday, a special offering is being taken for our Methodist Negro Colleges. It is possible for one million dollars to be raised for them: IF the Methodist Churches raise $250,000, Foundation gifts will pay the other three-fourths of the total! Your gift for Race Relations Sunday can help make this a reality. Special envelopes are available.

SCHOOL OF MISSIONS MEETS TONIGHT

Two special features are included in this evening's School of Missions program at 7:30.
"The Royal Seranaders", a negro choral group of twenty men, will present a brief sacred concert under the direction of Roy A. Mathis, with Dolores Gaston Baker as pianist. On frequent occasions they have appeared on radio and at the Statler Hotel.

Also, Miss Annie Pittman, Missionary of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, will tell an exciting story about her work among the Dyaks (head hunters) in Sarawak, Borneo, and will show kodochrome slides.

Everyone is invited to come early for the buffet lunch which will be served at 6:30 in Bashford Hall. There will be informal group singing and devotions led by Mr. John Caldwell.
