The NAMES Project AIDS Memorial Quilt is a powerful remembrance of those who have died with AIDS. Each person is remembered in a 3 foot by 6 foot panel made by friends, families, and partners. The over 28,000 panels represent about 12% of all U.S. AIDS deaths. Displayed in its entirety, the Quilt would cover over 16 football fields or 18 acres. Canisius College will display about 600 panels, representing approximately 2% of the entire Quilt.

We hope The NAMES Project AIDS Memorial Quilt will encourage awareness, compassion, and personal involvement throughout the entire Western New York community.
