FILM FESTIVAL

CHOOSING CHILDREN - Directed by Debra Chasnoff and Kim Klausner, 1984, 45 min, color. A well crafted exploration of issues facing 6 lesbian and gay couples who choose to have children. This ground breaking documentary conveys the love that flourishes in non-traditional families, which far outweighs the importance of how we got here.

HOMOTEEN - Directed by Joan Jubela, 1993, 60 min, color. Five young gays and lesbians in New York City have produced their own vivid autobiographical portraits with the help of videomaker Jubela.

QUEER SON - Directed by Vickie Seitchik, 1993, 48 min. A moving documentary portraying parents coping with their lesbian and gay children. The parents, many of whom are P-FLAG (Parents & Friends of Lesbians and Gays) members, combat their own prejudices as well as society's.

MONDAY
JUNE 12

IF THEY'D ASKED FOR A LION TAMER - Directed by Paul Oremland, 1987, 40 min, color. Versatile British drag sensation David Dale introduces his own life story punctuated by his best performances. "Why did I become a drag act? I don't know - I needed a job. If they'd asked for a lion tamer, I'd have done that too."

BILLY TURNER'S SECRET - Directed by Michael Mayson, 1990, 26 min, color. Billy and Rufus live together and share everything except Billy's secret - he's gay. The story unfolds as the characters come to terms with the big picture. Variety compares this work to that of Spike Lee & Pedro Almodovar.

THE POTLUCK AND THE PASSION - Directed by Cheryl Dunye, 1993, 30 min. A lesbian slice-of-life drama complete with intrigue, humor, and political (in)correctness.

GET IT, GIRL - Directed by Ella Gant & Kay Turner, 1994, 35 min, b&w. Local videomaker Ella Gant & her Texan partner Kay Turner show six lesbians talking about sex: what turns them on, how sex enhances their lives, and the joy sex brings them.

NITRATE KISSES - Directed by Barbara Hammer, 1992, 62 min, b&w.
