Although The Curtain Falls

There comes a time for all of us

When we must say "Goodbye"

But faith, hope and love,

Can never, never die!

Although the curtain falls at last,

Is that a time to grieve?

The future is fairer than the past,

If only we believe.

Trust in God's eternal care,

So when the Master calls,

Let's say that life is still more fair,

Although the curtain falls.

Our dear loved one has gone and left us,

A voice we loved is still,

A space is vacant in our hearts,

That never can be filled.

Obituary

Mrs. Josephine Theola Hudson was born on December 11, 1929, in Birmingham, Alabama, to the late Robert Lee and Bessie L. Jackson. She departed this life Monday, January 9, 1989.

In 1945, Josephine received Christ and joined Pleasant-view Baptist Church, where she worked as a secretary. In 1952, she relocated to Buffalo, N.Y., with her family. Here, in 1958, Josephine joined Hopewell Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Rev. John F. D. Lyles. She was very active in the church choir until her illness in 1977, which kept her hospitalized and bedridden.

In May of 1965, Josephine was united in Holy Matrimony to Ed. H. Hudson, and to this union two sons were born, Edward Bruce and Michael Anthony.

She leaves to cherish her memory her former husband, Ed. H., two sons, Edward B. and Michael A., six brothers and two sisters, Robert Jr., Charles, Walter, John, Betty, Loretta Percy, David and Dr. Richard Jackson, one aunt, Velma Kelly, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. Preceding her in death, one sister, Winifred, and two brothers, Clifford and Thomas.
