December 20, 1938

The regular monthly meeting of the Holy Name Ushers was held December 20 of 1938. Minutes were read, approved and dues and fines were collected.

Having no other business to discuss, the Archdeacon gave a fine presentation of the year to our new president, Joseph O'Rourke and new business was stated.

A motion was made by Anthony Delbridge and seconded by J. Delbridge that it will be compulsory for all ushers to pay their dues and fines immediately. It was voted upon and passed.

All usher meetings will be held here on afternoons and Sundays. The same day will be held during the week days.

If an usher wishes to have a vacation, he must give notice in advance. He will be expected to supply a proxy for the ushers.

December 30, 1937.

The regular monthly meeting of the Holy Name Ushers was held December 30 of 1937. Minutes were read, approved and dues and fines were collected.

Having no old business to discuss John Rachwal our former president handed the gavel to our new president Joseph Oblanski and new business was started.

A motion was made by Anthony J. Lemayko and seconded by Stanley Kolan that it will be compulsory for all Ushers to pay their dues and fines; ~~to attend~~ It was voted upon and passed.

All usher meetings will be held Sunday afternoons and during the summer they will be held during the week days.

If an usher misses three consecutive meetings or masses, he will automatically be dropped from the usher master. Unless he has to work or do something important he is to notify the captain and the captain will arrange to put someone in his place.

A constitution is to be made out for the ushers division of the Holy Name Society before the next meeting. It will be made with the help of the president,
Stanley Monuszko and Secretary Leon Hyla.

The possession of the trousers will remain the property of the Holy Name Society ushers until the usher has used them for the period of one year and not until then will they become the personal property of the ushers.

Edward Mady and Henry Kopolinski were elected auditors of the ushers for the year of 1938. It will be their duty to inspect the books four times a year or at any other time
they think it necessary.

The annual usher dance is to be held Sunday January 30.

Vincent Stanislawski was elected chairman of the dance and Leon Hyla as co-chairman.
All ushers, without exception are to help in the affair.

It was decided to present Frank Pawlak our former captain with a gold pin for his exceptional work as captain for the year of 1937.

An usher rehearsal was set for January 9th after 12:00 O'clock Mass.
