— OBITUARY —

Mrs. Viola Jackson departed this life on January 7th, 1989. The daughter of the late Lloyd and Lettie Butler was born in Martinsberg, Maryland. A product of the Washington, D.C. public school system, she graduated from high school in that city.

On leaving Washington, Viola met and married the late Fred Jackson. In the early 1940's they chose to make their home and spend their lives together in Buffalo, New York.

Viola is a daughter of the Eastern Star. Becoming an active member of Lincoln Memorial United Methodist Church, Viola has served on the Emma J. Horner Circle and The Sunshine Committee. She has for sometime been responsible for sending cards for all occasions to the membership. Viola was also a member of National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, Fourteen-ninety Enterprises and other community organizations.

She leaves to mourn: one niece, Martha Smith of New York City; one nephew, Ralph Graham of Schenectady; one grand nephew, Rev. Mark Hammond of Westminster, California; two great nephews; a great niece; her long-time friend, Evelyn Pigford; as well as a host of friends and relatives by whom she will be much missed and long remembered.
