Obituary

George W. Smith departed this life on Sunday, April 30, 1989. He was born on January 10, 1900 in Petersburg, Virginia. He came to Buffalo, New York in the 1920's where he met and married the late Lillie Bell House.

George was a steel worker at Strong Steel in Woodlawn, New York, until his retirement. He was a member of Lincoln Memorial for more than fifty years. He served his church as a member of the Senior Usher Board, Trustee Board and the United Brotherhood.

He leaves to mourn his passing, four children: Betty Lou Smith, George W. Smith, Jr., Carolyn Smith and Clarence W. Smith. He is also survived by four grandchildren: Trina Smith, Malcolm Smith, Lillie K. Smith and George J. Smith. Also surviving is one sister Lucy Cabel of Newark, New Jersey and nieces, nephews, cousins and many friends.
