Obituary

*Another soldier gone
To get a great reward;
He fought the fight, he kept the faith,
And now he has gone home to God.*

*His soul has gone to God who giveth,
The earth will claim its own, his body;
But he is shouting around the throne
While we are left to mourn.*

*But some day we will meet again
All our loved ones who have gone before;
Some day we will reach that happy land
Where parting will be no more.*

On the morning of March 23, 1991, the angel of silence came into the emergency room of Buffalo General Hospital and with chilly fingers sealed the lips of Deacon Moses Wilson, Jr, son of Mr. & Mrs. Moses Wilson Sr.; his soul winged its flight from this world of sin, sorrow and pain to a place of eternal rest. Deacon Wilson was born August 2, 1902.

There are some lives that disappoint us, some impressions of character we have to revise in later years, but the impression that was formed of Deacon Wilson when you first met him remained unchanged to the end of life.

Deacon Moses Wilson, Jr. became a Christian when quite a young man and joined the Mt. Sinai Baptist Church in Selma, Alabama. He gave freely of his time, his counsel and his money and was always willing to do anything that he felt would help for good in anyway.

Deacon Wilson delighted in going to church as long as he was physically able.

He was joined in Holy Matrimony to Annie J. May who preceded him in death. To this union was three children. He later was joined in Holy Matrimony to Janie Robinson who also preceded him in death. Three children were born to this union. Two preceded him in death.

After coming to Buffalo, he joined the Hopewell Baptist Church and was an inspirational deacon.

He leaves to mourn his homegoing, one daughter: Mrs. Mattie (Frank T.) White, Buffalo, New York; one son: Mr. Arthur (Ann) Robert, Wetumpka, Alabama; two sons-in-law: Willie Wilson, Gaskin, Alabama; two daughters-in-law: Ethel Wilson, Birmingham, Alabama, Rosa Lee Wilson, Columbus, Ohio; 20 grandchildren; 62 great-grandchildren; 37 great-great-grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.
