20. HISTORICAL AND ARCHITECTURAL IMPORTANCE: This section of Amherst Street, between Colvin and Parkside, was conceived by F.L.O. around 1873 as part of a residential "suburb" adjacent to Delaware Park. This suburb was called "The Parkside" by Olmsted and appears on an 1876 map drawn by him as a proposed area of curved winding streets on the north and east sides of the park. This section of Amherst Street was actually created by the City of Buffalo in 1875 when Amherst Street was extended from Delaware Avenue to Main Street. The street follows Olmsted's original plan, maintaining the picturesque character that he envisioned for the streets surrounding the park.
