IRVING C. PERKINS,

under whose supervision the Vocational-Industrial Department of our college has grown to be one of the foremost in the state. ■ The experience he gained as Vocational and Industrial Supervisor of the State Education Departments of both Maine and Rhode Island, has been reflected in his work here. ■ For the past sixteen years he has given a guiding hand to those students with whom he has come in contact, not only in his Department, but in all others. ■ In recognition of his service, we sincerely dedicate this, the Silver Anniversary Volume of THE ELMS.

F O R E W O R D

This volume marks the Silver Anniversary of the ELMS. Founded in 1912, to "recall the events of the school year," there has passed between its covers a panorama of our growth and development, a history of collegiate activities. . . . As our college has passed through various stages on its way, so the ELMS has changed, from a small paper-covered volume to our present day issue. It has undergone a metamorphosis paralleling that of our Alma Mater. The prestige we have acquired within these pages has been merited through countless hours of planning and consideration. This rapid development begun so well by our predecessors has, nevertheless, left unlimited possibilities for future editors.

V I E W S

■ The touch of a winter night on the familiar scenes of our College Life, creates beauties seldom seen and rarely appreciated. The camera has captured the views some of us may be overlooking because of the pressure of our varied duties. . . . The lights of the campus recall to us the friendships that we leave behind, always shining brightly in the darkness.

THE CLASS OF 1936

"Time Marches On" . . . Four short years ago, we, the Class of 1936, entered State. We were barely settled in our new home, when the walls of the auditorium resounded with the song, "We are the smartest Freshmen that ever came to State." It was our song for the Interclass Sing in which we took second place. From then on we were labeled, and faced the problem of going through four years of college life with a name to uphold.

Contrary to many beliefs, we succeeded in living up to that song, for we saw in it a goal toward which we diligently worked. It was an incentive to keep us on the right track. During our first year, we took our place on the Stunt Nite program, and on the Freshman basketball team, the first to wear the State Frosh suits.

When we returned in 1933 as Sophomores, we busied ourselves with the Sophomore reception for the Freshmen. After showing our hospitality to the Class of 1937, we held our Sophomore Sweater Dance in the gymnasium. In October, when the new athletic field was dedicated, our classmates were on hand for the event.

Last year, as Juniors, we held our first Valentine party and the Co-Op was sold out of valentines before noon. In spite of this, everyone received at least one valentine and the party was a success. The Junior Prom, under the chairmanship of Kathryn Johnston, was the highlight of the social activities for the year. We also aided the college community when we served as Junior sisters and brothers for the Freshmen.

Shortly, graduation day will approach, and with it the passing of the Class of 1936. During our final year at State, we have kept up the pace we set as Freshmen. Stunt Nite, the Senior Ball, the Christmas and Spring plays are all memories. Now that our journey is almost finished, we pause to reflect on our experiences. With our class go a number of outstanding personalities, whom State will remember for years to come. We can never forget our song and cheer leader who helped us "on to the top," the "College Trio," our "Crown Prince of Basketball," our ever alert photographer and editor, and all of the others who have brought honors to our class.

In the near future looms Class Day, Baccalaureate, and the final donning of Cap and Gown. What a rich and full four years this June will climax. Four years of joys, sorrows, anticipations, realizations, disappointments, gratifications—four years of pleasant associations with classmates and instructors.

So as the Class of 1936 moves on, we welcome the opportunity we have had, and we look "to those who follow after" to carry on where we left off. Before leaving we cannot help but recall the verse of the song, "College Days" . . .

*Graduation days are almost here;
And with them, four long years of college are ended.
Though it's almost time for us to part,
We will leave with the fondest memories.*

GLADYS M. ALMSTED
B.S. in Education
 NORTH NORWICH
 Not content with just the experience of having taught for eight years, Gladys returned to State for her degree, and to gain further knowledge in the field of teaching.

LOUIS BALBER
B.S. in Industrial Arts Education
 BRONX

Louie's knowledge of the theory of electricity and radio has shocked many of his instructors. Whenever an argument arises on any part of it, he is always called upon to settle it.

JOHN P. ANDERSCHOTT
One Year Vocational
 BUFFALO

John makes every moment count. He never gets to class a second too soon, yet he manages to keep the one-year class in touch with the activities of the Men's Campus Club.

MILDRED A. BARNARD
B.S. in Education
 LEROY

"All the world to me is a place of wonder." Mildred's interest in the world about her has probably been heightened by her work in geography classes.

STANLEY W. ANDERSON
B.S. in Education
 LANCASTER

Stanley is one of the favorites with members of the opposite sex. The co-eds at State say that he is their ideal of a perfect blind date.

LEAH A. BEAN
B.S. in Education
 ALTADENA, CAL.

Leah is one of our fair classmates who hails from the West. She can usually be found in the general office of the college where she makes sure we always get our mail and telephone messages.

FLORENCE M. BEBEE
B.S. in Education
 RIPLEY

"Good nature, like a bee, collects honey from every herb." Florence provides plenty of good nature to her surroundings, wherever she may be.

EUNICE M. BOWELL
B.S. in Education
 BUFFALO

Eunice, the demure miss from South Park High School, is always willing to lend a helping hand to anyone. She is one of the constant rooters at the basketball games.

HELEN L. BENZING
B.S. in Home Economics
 SPRINGVILLE

Helen is another of our home-ec brunettes who is known for her sincerity. Combined with this quality is her very eager attitude to learn new things, new ideas, and meet new people.

EDWARD T. BRESK
B.S. in Education
 LACKAWANNA

Eddie did his part for State when, as a Sophomore, he brought "Billy," the class mascot, to our campus. Billy helped considerably in the dedication ceremonies for the athletic field.

HAROLD W. BILYIEU
One Year Vocational
 NEW YORK CITY

As soon as Harold received word that he had been accepted at State, he purchased a big brown fur coat, so that he would look just like a college student.

HELEN A. BROSNER
B.S. in Education
 NORWICH

Helen has often enchanted many of us with her story-telling ability. Perhaps she acquired this during her work behind the desk in the college library.

DONALD G. BROSSMAN
B.S. in Industrial Arts Education
BUFFALO

Don loves the smell of printer's ink, and spends most of his time in the print shop, except when he is carrying on his scouting activities. He expects to settle down on Long Island in September.

GENEVIEVE M. BURNS
B.S. in Education
CORFU

"Infinite riches in a little room." Genevieve is small, with coal black hair and sparkling dark eyes. She is one of those little country girls State is glad to have.

RUDOLPH H. BROWN
B.S. in Industrial Arts Education
KENMORE

Rudy is the "big" man of Sigma Tau Gamma. He makes himself heard in the orchestra and in the band. He left State before commencement, but he returns frequently to see his old classmates.

WALTER J. CALIOUN
B.S. in Industrial Arts Education
BALDWIN, L. I.

Walter came to State after three years of study at Oswego, and in his short stay here, he has impressed us with his practical thinking. He must take after his famous namesake.

JACK BUFTON
B.S. in Education
GOWANDA

Jack has performed the feat that every State student desires—a "straight A average" in practice teaching. But we will always remember him for his obliging service in the library of nights.

ANTHONY E. CALOGERO
One Year Vocational
BRONX

Pronounced "Colige Hero." Tony stepped into the print shop when Mr. Huckins was sick, and lived up to his nickname by printing The Record for us each week.

JULES J. CASALBORO
One Year Vocational
YONKERS

Jules was making a lot of dough before he entered State, and he made plenty more while in Buffalo. The dough he made was real—he taught the Bakery class at Peckham Vocational School.

MARY A. CHISHOLM
B.S. in Education
BUFFALO

Wherever there are country activities and farm problems, Mary can always be found. This is all because of the splendid leadership she has shown as president of State's Rural Club for the past year.

MARIAN A. CHANDLER
B.S. in Education
BUFFALO

Marian is the little girl with the deep voice, and the cute smile. The smile reflects her sense of humor, and it is guaranteed not to fade, run, or shrink.

RUTH M. CLANCY
B.S. in Education
NIAGARA FALLS

"Like a scarlet tanager, slashing the world with youth." Ruth is the blushing brunette whose radiance and vigor seemed to fill her classmates with a desire to climb to greater heights.

FRANKLIN D. CHATFIELD
One Year Vocational
DRYDEN

We'll wager that the D stands for "Delano," because Frank approves of the New Deal. In fact when he starts teaching auto mechanics, he states that he will start a new deal of his own.

CHARLES R. CLARK
B.S. in Education
RANSOMVILLE

"For I love the sky, and the sigh of the wind in the trees." Charlie must have had this quotation in mind when he accepted a position to teach in a rural school in Wilson.

MRS. ANNA H. CLAUDIUS
B.S. in Education

BUFFALO
Anna is a favorite among the members of one of the Kindergarten-Primary sections, because of the hospitality she has shown in entertaining at the section parties.

STUART A. COLLINS
One Year Vocational UTICA

"For silence is the wise man's true domain." "Stewie" is the most quiet of a noisy class of men, except when he is trying to promote a ride home to Utica.

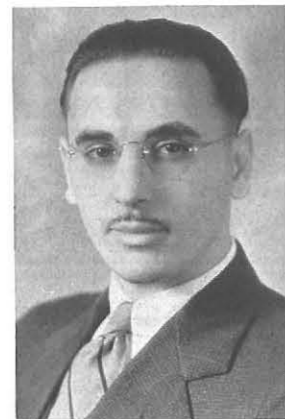

ISABELLE M. CLIFFORD
B.S. in Education
LANCASTER

Isabelle made her name known at State by her excellent basketball playing. Her fame in this field spread far, making her a member of one of the major teams.

HELEN I. CONROY
B.S. in Education
FREDONIA

"Arrows fly not swifter than their aim." Helen's aim toward dramatic goals should be attained if judged according to their earnestness. We believe she will provide the romantic element in any play.

DAVID COHEN
One Year Vocational
BUFFALO

"A learned man is an idler who kills time with study." This quotation by Shaw seems to fit Dave perfectly, because he collects all the high grades of the one year vocational class.

HOWARD D. CONSTABLE
B.S. in Education
BUFFALO

Notice the wistful look on Howie's face. We'll bet he is thinking about those foursomes on the golf links. Or could he be thinking of a twosome?

CRISTINA M. CORDARO
B.S. in Education
BUFFALO

"Keep to your word, and honor Friendship's claim." Whenever you need a friend, or someone on whom you can depend, call upon Cristina, for she never fails.

EDMUND A. CZECH
B.S. in Education
DEPEW

Ed is the lad who autographs all the yearbooks "73's." In the language of the radio amateur it means "love and kisses." Now you will not have to explain it, Ed.

JOSEPHINE M. COSTANTINO
B.S. in Education
NIAGARA FALLS

Jo has won for herself the distinction of being the intellectual light of the class. It is she who has helped to keep up the standards scholastically. In fact, Jo has what is commonly known as a high I. Q.

LODEMA G. DAGGETT
B.S. in Home Economics
BUFFALO

We have often wondered who that cute smile is intended for. Dema never would tell us, but she certainly must have plans. She is always trying out new menus and methods of preparing food.

ALFRED S. CURTIS
B.S. in Industrial Arts Education
ROCHESTER

We are going to miss those excellent marimba solos, Al. It is too bad you didn't teach one of our fair maidens how to play the marimba. There seemed to be a number who certainly were interested.

LOIS O. DAYMAN
B.S. in Education
BUFFALO

Add Lois' name to the list of State's fair athletic co-eds. She provides pleasing, but dangerous opposition in many a tennis game, although she hasn't as yet scored a "love" game over any of our classmates.

ROWENA M. DeGRAFF
B.S. in Home Economics

BROCKPORT
Flaxen hair of softest texture and smiling grey-blue eyes are precious to Rowena. Her nimble fingers have often flown for the "Y."

JAMES DOOLEY
One Year Vocational
ALBANY

Jimmie evidently plans to be an Assemblyman in his home town some day, because, right or wrong, he is always right. He hasn't revealed his political affiliations though.

JULIA A. DELAHANTY
B.S. in Education
BROCKPORT

"A girl more refined you will never find." The color of Julia's hair belies her disposition, bright and cheerful.

ALMA M. DOUGHERTY
B.S. in Education
BUFFALO

Having distinguished herself with a straight A average in practice teaching, Alma well deserves the name of the perfect teacher. Her fame does not cease here for she is also president of Kappa Delta Pi.

EMMA G. DICK
B.S. in Education
CHEEKTOWAGA

Emma is one of the most popular motorists of the college. While practice teaching at School 38, several of her classmates found her Ford handy to use as a lunch car.

ESTHER E. DRAKE
B.S. in Education
BUFFALO

"Nice, clever, bright; altogether—just right." Esther, one of State's all-around students, is a typical example of the type of beauties that hail from South Buffalo.

LUCILLE M. DUGGAN
B.S. in Education
NORTH TONAWANDA

"Melancholy for some remarkable reason had skipped her by." Lucille's smiling Irish eyes are always bright, and are powerful foes of Melancholy.

ANNA M. FAUCETT
B.S. in Education
BATH

"Nor cared that trouble loitered near, but laughed and drank life deep." Anna Mae's sparkling Irish humor is shown through her lovely brown eyes. Is it any wonder that her sorority sisters and friends love her so?

RALPH E. EGGLESTON
B.S. in Education
BUFFALO

Ralph, class president for the four years of college, is one of the most able leaders on the campus. Although his executive duties keep him busy, he always has a "Jeanne-ial" smile for everyone.

MARJORIE J. FERRIS
B.S. in Education
ANGOLA

Marge is another of State's extraordinary teachers. She comes from Angola, and attracts everyone with her beautiful red hair and broad smile. She adds pep to all of the Senior parties.

FRANCES M. ENGLISH
B.S. in Education
FREEVILLE

Most of us do not know Frances very well. She is a rather quiet and aloof person, who has devoted most of her time at college to the pursuit of learning.

HELENE M. FERRY
B.S. in Home Economics
SPRINGVILLE

Helene always seems to be in a big rush every time we see her dashing around the college. For four years we have been trying to find out what the rush is about, but we haven't been successful.

JACK C. FOSTER
B.S. in Education
NIAGARA FALLS

Jack has the knack of describing embarrassing moments in such a way as to make those incidents picturesque to us. This ability has also brought Jack fame in Sigma Upsilon.

WILLIAM D. GAMBLE
One Year Vocational
HORNELL

Bill is known as "Lickety-Toot" ever since the day he coined the word to describe something in his public speaking class. Although his middle initial stands for Dodge, he prefers a Chevy.

DOROTHY A. FRICKE
B.S. in Education
BUFFALO

Dot is usually seen dashing wildly around the campus every day. It is all a part of the week's work of publishing The Record, which she has done so efficiently for the past year. As editor, her first job was to find out what a "hauff-tone" was.

MARGARET E. GARDINER
B.S. in Education
COXSACKIE

Marge is another of our star athletes. She is chiefly interested in basketball, but several of our classmates tell us that she is quite a swimmer. We know that she will make a fine "life saver" for someone.

ABE GABRINER
One Year Vocational
BRONX

Abe is the ping-pong expert of the one year class, and he is very liberal with his instruction. His ability with the paddle has been a boon to the home-ec eds, because he prefers to teach them rather than his own classmates.

ROBERT J. GARDNER
One Year Vocational
ELMIRA

"And Strength to Service bowed." Bob says that his massive frame was not built to fit the seats of our classrooms, but he can't do anything about it even though he is a carpenter.

MARVIN H. GARFINKEL
B.S. in Education
BUFFALO

Marve, State's ace petitioner "getter-upper," is also a philatelist, (in short—a stamp collector). When he is not doing either of these things, you can probably find him directing publicity for the Men's Campus Club, the Buffalo Hobby Show, or his other activities.

MABEL C. GOODENBERY
B.S. in Education
BUFFALO

Mabel must believe that the Buffalo weather is mild, because she hasn't worn a hat to college ever since she was a Freshman. She didn't miss any of the home basketball games either.

EDMOND GIANADDA
B.S. in Education
BUFFALO

Ed is State's only "geographical" soccer player. The soccer team learned more about the geography of New York State from Ed than they learned on all of their rambles.

MRS. CAROLINE K. GORDNIER
B.S. in Education
BUFFALO

If ever you are in doubt as to the language or history of the Romans, direct your steps toward this capable Latin student. She will be sure to help you.

PAULINE GIOFALONIE
B.S. in Education
BUFFALO

Pauline is another of our petite co-eds. She was one of the honor students when she graduated from Williamsville High School, and she is still keeping up the good work.

IRENE A. GOSIELEWSKA
B.S. in Education
BUFFALO

Irene's friends tell us that she is one of those silent intellectuals in class but she always scores on the tests. This is further proven by the fact that she was selected for Kappa Delta Pi.

JEANNETTE M. GOVE

B.S. in Education

ROCHESTER

"Good humor is one of the best articles of dress one can wear in society." Jeannette's sense of humor will be remembered by her classmates as one of the most novel.

WILLIAM D. GROTKE

B.S. in Education

BUFFALO

Having joined up with the Intermediate Department, Bill was one of those males whose presence was always desirable at section parties.

ANITA GREEN

B.S. in Education

BUFFALO

"Knowledge, once gained, casts a light beyond its own immediate boundaries." Anita gains her knowledge in many fields, but she is especially fond of Literature. We also learned that she loves to go shopping with her mother.

FRIEDA M. GUBENKO

B.S. in Education

BUFFALO

Frieda has kept quite busy during her four years at State. Her chief duty was that of assisting Dr. Messner, but she always has time to stop and talk with her classmates.

ELEANOR GRIFFIN

B.S. in Education

BUFFALO

Eleanor is another student who took time out from her teaching to return to State for her degree. We know her pupils must have missed that sweet smile while she was gone.

HILDA M. GUERCIO

B.S. in Education

BUFFALO

Being a versatile and accomplished musician, Hilda has contributed much to our assembly programs, to say nothing of spring concerts and other musical activities in which she has had a leading part.

MICHAEL A. GULLO

B.S. in Education

BUFFALO

Mike is a very active member of the French Club where he has found many opportunities to express himself in that language. He has also been associated with the Men's Glee Club.

DOROTHY E. HALSTED

B.S. in Education

NIAGARA FALLS

Dot puts her life in Russ Hewitt's hands every day, when she rides in from the Falls with him. However, she always manages to get here in time to wait on us in the Co-op.

GOLDIE HAIT

B.S. in Education

BUFFALO

"Infinite riches in a little room." Goldie is Miss Allen's petite assistant. She is very energetic, and always does her work faithfully and thoroughly.

GEORGE E. HAMALAINEN

One Year Vocational

ROCHESTER

"I am a great believer in regulations, for every thing on earth goes by rules." This quotation by Coates seems to apply to George, because he certainly organized a good set of rules for his students to follow at Peckham Vocational School.

EDWARD B. HALL

B.S. in Education

BUFFALO

We will always remember Ed as the one who introduced those resolutions from the floor at the good old Student Government meetings. He also likes to write scorching editorials that no one seems to understand.

ESTHER HARBISON

B.S. in Education

BUFFALO

Esther is one of those girls upon whom we can always depend to do what has to be done. She is a fine student and a prominent member of the Y. W. C. A., and the Women's Senior Glee Club.

ETHEL HARBISON
B.S. in Home Economics
BUFFALO

Ethel is another of our co-eds who expects to make good use of the training she received in the Home Economics Department. We see her around with the Sophomore class treasurer.

RUTH A. HEELAS
B.S. in Education
JAMESTOWN

"Bright, peppy, and full of fun—who in a year, esteem has won." Although Ruth spent only her final year at State, her personality is one that has made a marked impression upon us.

DORIS L. HARTEL
B.S. in Home Economics
BUFFALO

Doris is one of the best cooks of the class of '36, but she doesn't like washing machines ever since the day she almost flooded the home management room when the washer overflowed.

IRMGARD C. HELLWIG
B.S. in Home Economics
BUFFALO

When we see Irmgard walking up the corridors with her white apron, we cannot help but think how dignified and efficient she looks. She certainly should make an ideal teacher.

MARIE M. HARTMAN
B.S. in Home Economics
HAMBURG

Marie, one of the knitting enthusiasts of the college, also likes to talk. During her stay at the practice house, she made good use of her knitting abilities by making herself a sweater.

DOROTHY C. HERRMANN
B.S. in Education
BUFFALO

"Her skillful fingers could accomplish the well-nigh impossible." Dot is the envy of her section because of her ability at the piano. You will probably find her playing for assemblies when she starts teaching.

DOROTHY S. HESS
B.S. in Education
BUFFALO

Dot's effervescent personality and her sense of fun, make her a well-known figure around the campus, especially since she is so fond of Upto(w)n that she moved near the Psi Phi house.

BYRON W. HILL
B.S. in Education
NIAGARA FALLS

By is just one half of those famous Hill brothers of Niagara Falls. He is distinguished for his musical and athletic activities. During the past year, we have known him best as president of Alpha Society.

RUSSELL W. HEWITT
B.S. in Industrial Arts Education
NIAGARA FALLS

Russ spent his early life hunting gophers out West, but he likes it better in Niagara Falls 'cause that's where his heart is.

MELVIN B. HILL
B.S. in Education
NIAGARA FALLS

Mel is the other half of those Niagara Falls brothers. Like By, his fame has been great in musical activities but spread beyond this when he received that straight A average in practice teaching.

EVELYN D. HICKEY
B.S. in Education
NORTH TONAWANDA

"It's nice to be natural when you're naturally nice." Evelyn's naturalness has impressed itself upon all of her friends, especially one who journeys all the way from Eggertsville to see her.

GERTRUDE A. HIMMERT
B.S. in Education
BUFFALO

"Shining loyalty unflinched by doubt." Gert is a product of Riverside High School, and she has proven the caliber of the training she received there by her work here at State.

DOROTHY A. HISCOCK

B.S. in Art Education

SPENCERPORT

Dot's first interest was in the field of art, but her later interest in education brought her to State. Educational activities seem to run in the family, because Dot's father is a member of the school board in Spencerport.

CHARLES N. HOLT

B.S. in Industrial Arts Education

KEENE VALLEY

Charlie, genial section captain of G. I. IV, is envied by all of our winter sports enthusiasts because he lives up in the Winter Olympic country.

EUGENE B. HOEFFLER

B.S. in Industrial Arts Education

MINEOLA

Gene is always willing to do anything to get some publicity for the swimming team of which he is manager. He also has done a good job as Business Manager of The Record in 1934-35, and as manager of the Psi Phi fraternity house for the past three years.

HELEN R. HOPKINS

B.S. in Education

BUFFALO

Helen has transferred during every part of her educational process. From these changes, we notice that she gives her ear to all, but her voice to few.

GRETCHEN HOLDERBAUM

B.S. in Education

BUFFALO

Seldom can you visit the gym without seeing Gretchen somewhere about. She is a No. 1 swimmer and also engages in basketball, badminton, and archery.

ROBERT H. HOWARD

B.S. in Industrial Arts Education

BUFFALO

Bob is the jack-of-all-trades on the campus. His artistic ability has been reflected on the blackboards of several of our classrooms, and we will never forget his dramatic ability shown in his interpretation of the villain, "Handle-Bar Hank," in the 1933 Stunt Nite program.

RACHEL A. HUBBARD

B.S. in Education

WHITE PLAINS

Although Rachel Ann is in the general college, she is very fond of domestic activities. She even elected a course in sewing during her final year. We also learned that she is fond of riding in Pullman cars.

RUTH V. HUMAN

B.S. in Education

NIAGARA FALLS

"Modesty often hides great worth." Ruth fulfilled her duties as a typist on The Record very satisfactorily. If she carries out her teaching duties as well, we will be interested in watching her progress.

THELMA E. HUBBARD

B.S. in Education

LANCASTER

Thelma is the third of the Lancaster Hubbards to enter State, and she has kept the name in the spotlight during her four years here. As co-chairman of the Senior Ball, and chairman of the Spring Concert, she has proven her ability at promoting such excellent affairs.

WILLIAM H. HYDE

B.S. in Education

APPLETON

When Bill graduated in January, we had to get a radio, because there was no one left to play the piano in Student Center at noon. He was also greatly interested in mathematics, and he used this to good advantage in keeping track of the NYA checks for Mr. Schoenborn.

ELIZABETH H. HUDACK

B.S. in Education

DEPEW

"I softly stepped, and silence lapped me round." Elizabeth, in her work at college, attended to her studies, without attracting or distracting the attention of others.

DAVID JACOBSON

B.S. in Education

NEWBURGH

"The day is short, the work is much." Dave is kept quite busy with his extra-curricular activities. However, he did manage to find time to write feature stories for The Record, but evidently they couldn't find enough space for them.

KATHRYN JOHNSTON
B.S. in Education
BUFFALO

Kay is the typical college co-ed. Her genuine interest and enthusiasm for college activities has helped considerably in making State a brighter college. Her executive ability is shown by the fact that she is Vice-President of our class, and President of the Art Kraft Klub.

STELLA KARIAK
B.S. in Education
LOCKPORT

Stella is one of our commuting co-eds. When she isn't traveling back and forth between Buffalo and Lockport, you will find her behind the desk of the Lockport Public Library.

EDWARD A. JONES
B.S. in Education
SPRINGVILLE

"Money is the life blood of a Nation." Ed agrees with this statement by Swift, especially when it concerns State. His work in keeping track of the NYA checks has proved this.

BONNIE K. KARR
B.S. in Education
PORT JERVIS

Bonnie's smile may lead you to think of her as a pleasure loving lass, but behind it all is a much used brain often exerted for social problems.

MARY I. KANE
B.S. in Education
BUFFALO

Mary is another of our South Park students who found it an advantage rather than a handicap. She says that it is a splendid excuse to use when she wants to get out of doing dishes at section parties.

WILLIAM F. KEAN
B.S. in Education
LOCKPORT

Bill's enjoyment of sports participation has placed his name on many local programs, including swimming and cross-country. We like his "Try, try again" attitude.

SHIRLEY KEMPNER
B.S. in Education
BUFFALO

Shirley is known for her excellence in mathematics. We know that she will make a very fine teacher, especially after she has practiced so much on her twin brother and sister.

EVERETT E. KOEHLER
B.S. in Industrial Arts Education
BUFFALO

Everett has often been called "Reverend," because of his portrayal of the parson in the 1935 Stunt Nite program. He is quite interested in chemistry too, and he is never without his trusty slide rule when he goes to Mr. Roesser's chemistry class.

JOSEPHINE M. KERR
B.S. in Education
BUFFALO

Josephine is a quiet, non-assuming girl, yet her participation in the Glee Club and other activities, and her willingness to be of service, make her work indispensable.

GEORGE E. KOENIG
B.S. in Industrial Arts Education
BUFFALO

George should find the training he received as a member of the C.C.C. very useful in his teaching. We notice he is also very much interested in newspaper work, or could it be his interest is only in the editor?

JEAN KIMBALL
B.S. in Education
BUFFALO

"Then seal your lips until the sun discovers one as fair." Jean, one of our petite co-eds from Kenmore, is "pretty to walk with, pleasant to talk with, and sweet to look upon."

DOROTHY L. KOHLER
B.S. in Education
LOWVILLE

Dot is the person who put Lowville on the map. At least we never heard of it until she joined our class. She knows all about your interests too, because she made an extra-curricular survey for Dean Reed early in the year.

WILLIAM KOLBER
One Year Vocational
BROOKLYN

Bill's classmates say that his middle name should be Barrymore, because the co-eds admire him, but he remains stolid. He also has a reputation for telling "Hairbreth Harry" stories.

FREDERICK R. KRASSETT
B.S. in Industrial Arts Education
CATTARAUGUS

Fred is another of the G. I. IV chemistry sharks, but we have found his contributions in Dr. Neumann's Economic History class more stimulating than his chemical formulas.

STEPHANIE C. KOPECK
B.S. in Education
BUFFALO

"Wisdom is like a dawn that comes up slowly out of an unknown ocean." Stephanie is well known for her intellectual curiosity, especially in the fields of Literature and Drama. Perhaps that is why she always carries a heavy notebook.

ALBERT G. KREINIIEDER
B.S. in Education
Egbertsville

Al has stirred the hearts of many of our co-eds with his fancy diving in the swim meets, but he is slightly bashful with the fair sex, except with a Senior from North Tonawanda.

FRIEDA KRAMER
B.S. in Education
NIAGARA FALLS

"She loves good ranging converse of past and future days." Frieda is a great lover of books, and likes to tell us about them. The quotations she gives in class seem most appropriate.

ETHEL M. KRESS
B.S. in Education
BUFFALO

"True merit is like a river—the deeper it is, the less noise it makes." Kress is acclaimed for her perfect taste in behavior as well as in dress.

EUZEBIA T. KUCEWICZ
B.S. in Education
BUFFALO

"Much wisdom often goes with fewest words." Euzebia must have adopted this statement of Sophocles as her motto, because she goes about her work without much discussion, yet she always knows what to say.

DOROTHY A. KUHN
B.S. in Education
BUFFALO

Dot has her heart set on Art—the art of singing. As a member of the College Trio, she has thrilled us with her voice many times. We learned that a song, "You've Got Me Going in Circles," was inspired by Dot.

VIOLET A. KUCHAN
B.S. in Education
ELBRIDGE

Violet is half of the Holderbaum-Kuchan inseparables—she too, lives in the gym. She is well known for the speed and accuracy of her arrows. Perhaps Cupid has something to do with this.

BERNICE LAMBERT
B.S. in Home Economics
NIAGARA FALLS

Bernice is one of the New York State scholarship society students, and she has made a good record for herself. She plays in the orchestra, but they say her chief interest is in men.

ANGELINA C. KUHN
B.S. in Education
HORNELL

We will always remember Angelina for the oratorical presentation at the Rural Banquet of '35. Somehow, "the red schoolhouse with the flag unfurling in the breeze," will always live in our memory.

RICHARD H. LAPE
B.S. in Education
BUFFALO

Dick's dramatic ability is well known even beyond the college, despite the fact that he generally appears on the stage behind a set of whiskers. He has started to study Polish now that he is an announcer for radio station WEBR.

AMELIA A. LATTA
B.S. in Education
BUFFALO

Amelia is one of the most reliable of Mr. Phillippi's math students. When she isn't working analytics or trig, you will probably find her catching up on some embroidery in the locker room.

ELINOR M. LOTTER
B.S. in Education
SPRINGVILLE

Elinor certainly knows how to make good use of her time. After gaining considerable experience at rural school teaching, she came to State and received her degree. Now she is teaching at Kenmore.

DORIS LEVIN
B.S. in Education
BUFFALO

Doris had many unusual experiences while practice teaching in the country, but she says she likes it better in Buffalo. Her interest in literature helped her to while away the time between lesson plans.

GERTRUDE LUBICK
B.S. in Education
BUFFALO

"My thoughts are free; they cannot be shut up." For one so small, Gertie has large thoughts. She can easily be heard when voicing her opinion on events of current interest.

AARON LEVINE
B.S. in Education
BUFFALO

Aaron justly deserves the title "State's Ace Dramatist." His excellent characterizations in the Dramatic Club productions have given us many hours of enjoyment.

CLAIRE H. MACDONALD
B.S. in Education
BUFFALO

As a member of Nu Lambda Sigma and of the Dramatic Club, Claire has achieved success in the fields of literature and dramatics. Perhaps this is a result of her interest in Dr. Messner's language and literature courses.

ELEANOR MACFARLANE
B.S. in Education
BUFFALO

Eleanor really should have studied to be a teacher of physical education. If you should doubt that statement, just ask any member of Mr. Coyer's Health II class last semester.

EDWARD J. MASSET
One Year Vocational
BROOKLYN

Eddie always likes to "kid" the printers in his class. He says that if you want anything "fixed" to give it to a printer. He will fix it as easy as "pi."

VARNER T. MACRORIE
One Year Vocational
UTICA

"He's the drummer-man in the band." Mac's vocation is that of a machinist, but his ability at the drums keeps our feet in time with the music when we dance after the basketball games.

MARGARET E. MASTERS
B.S. in Education
KENMORE

"Whose work was done e'er others thought of doing." Marge can always be relied upon to finish a task before all others. Her ability and cleverness has made her one of the leaders in her section.

RUTH A. MANTER
B.S. in Education
BUFFALO

Ruth is the blonde minister's daughter who investigated the conditions at the Seamen's Home and reported on them in assembly. We never expected one of the fair sex to inspect a sailors' home, but then we guess you can expect almost anything from Ruth.

MARY G. MATHEWS
B.S. in Education
BUFFALO

Mary's chief ambition is to travel. She graduated from the three year course in 1933, and returned to our fold for her degree. We know that she will make an excellent teacher because she is a diligent worker, and she enjoys group activities.

DAVID J. McCARTNEY
B.S. in Industrial Arts Education
 BUFFALO
 Dave may not be an "old salt," but he certainly knows his seafaring terms. That's because he is one of the most ardent boosters of the Sea Scouts. He looks nice and nautical in his uniform too.

ROBERT S. McDOWELL
B.S. in Industrial Arts Education
 BUFFALO
 Bob has carved his name in the walls of State by his dexterity with the foils. We expect he will soon start publishing his so-called "blank verse" so future classes can enjoy it.

ETHEL M. McDONALD
B.S. in Education
 BUFFALO

"She smiled, and with that smile disarmed both friend and foe." Ethel, another of our South Buffalo classmates, has a smile that fits perfectly with her golden locks. Her students will probably bring her presents every day.

JENNIE MEYERS
B.S. in Education
 BUFFALO

Jennie will probably be a politician or a speaker for women's clubs, besides carrying on the duties of a teacher. The practice that she received in Dr. Neumann's classes should be helpful in this field.

MARY I. McDONALD
B.S. in Education
 BUFFALO

Mary has always been a prominent figure in any organization or activity with which she has been connected. She was the leader of the Joint Charities Drive at S.T.C. this spring and is a member of the Women's Senior Glee Club and Alpha Sigma Alpha, as well as the Elms staff.

VIRGINIA D. MILLER
B.S. in Education
 LANCASTER

"For the memories of the past have drawn me back again." Virginia has been away teaching, but has returned to State to complete the work for her degree.

VIRGINIA R. MILLER
B.S. in Home Economics
 BUFFALO

Virginia's way with men can do wonders. We were told that she even got one to scrub the floor of the practice house for her, so they could go out on a date.

WALTER W. MORTON
B.S. in Education
 HAMBURG

Walt believes in putting pleasure before business. He runs a South Buffalo and vicinity bus service for several State students, but we've noticed that he always takes Peg Teiper home before he collects his passengers.

PHYLLIS V. MOREA
B.S. in Education
 BUFFALO

Phyl, one of the Titians of the class, is the well known accompanist of the orchestra and Trio. We shall never forget how well she played for the Spring Concert.

RUTH E. MUNSON
B.S. in Education
 NIAGARA FALLS

"What other maiden can you find, so young, and delicate and kind?" Ruth's delicate beauty seems to harmonize with her kindness. It should be painted for future generations to admire.

ELINOR H. MORGAN
B.S. in Education
 ARCADE

Eleanor earned the nickname, "Spark," when she first entered State, because she wasn't big enough to be a "flame." We hear that she puts up a good argument with Mary Shreder at the Arcade-Attica basketball games.

MARIAN NICHOLS
B.S. in Art Education
 BUFFALO

Marian's talent as an artist is something she never talks about. Her works, in themselves, speak to us, and reveal the character of the artist.

WILLIAM NIEDORODA
B.S. in Industrial Arts Education
 MASPEH, L. I.

Bill has one ambition to fulfill before he leaves State. He has been practicing for four years, and he says he is now ready to beat Mr. Quackenbush at Ping-pong.

JAMES W. NOLAN
One Year Vocational
 UTICA

"Good words are worth much and cost little." Jimmie is the one to whom all of the one year men turn when they need help. His fatherly advice has kept them on the right road.

MARY B. NIGRO
B.S. in Home Economics
 BUFFALO

Mary is an efficient co-ed, and takes quite an interest in assisting Miss Clark at the practice house. She has a greater interest at Cornell though.

JACK NOWITZ
One Year Vocational
 BROOKLYN

Jack is the scientist of the vocational class, and he also is "the tops" when it comes to clay modeling. His scientific attitude reflects itself in the clay models that he makes.

EARL E. NITCHKE
B.S. in Industrial Arts Education
 BUFFALO

The secret is out—the E stands for Elmer, and not for any of Earl's grades, because he has made a good record while at State. We have been told that he is almost ready to take the final step, so don't be surprised when you read it in the papers.

BETH ANN NUTTALL
B.S. in Home Economics
 BUFFALO

Beth is another of our home-ec students. She graduated in January, but we will see her again on commencement day. She attended Cornell for a year before entering State, but she says she likes it better here.

NEIL J. O'CONNOR
One Year Vocational
 SCHENECTADY

Whenever the Seniors have a party, you can be sure that Neil will be there. During his short time at State, he has made a hit with all the co-eds, but he never forgets to write a letter to Schenectady daily.

HARRY C. PARKER
B.S. in Education
 BUFFALO

Harry gets a big kick out of Mr. Phillippi's math classes. He says he would rather do math than eat. Besides his mathematical ability he is also quite a piano player. His classmates tell us that he has composed several piano selections.

HELEN T. OSTROWSKI
B.S. in Education
 HOLLEY

"Sunshine you catch within your smile, and hold its radiance." Helen's sunny disposition makes any affair she attends enjoyable. Her desire for good literature is her chief form of enjoyment.

FREDERICK W. PEARCE
B.S. in Education
 HOLLEY

"History makes men wise." Perhaps this is Fred's reason for majoring in history. He is also quite a musician. He wrote all the arrangements for the German Band that appeared in the assembly early in the second semester.

ARTHUR E. PANKOW
B.S. in Education
 BUFFALO

"The Time Has Come." Art told us when it was time for State to defeat Niagara. Now it is time for Art to leave us, and we'll certainly miss our peppy song, cheer, and band leader.

CHARLES B. PECK
B.S. in Education
 BATAVIA

Charlie plays the trumpet in our band, and he is always on hand when the teams play. He is also considered quite a poet by the members of Sigma Upsilon.

HELEN E. PELLICANO

B.S. in Education

NIAGARA FALLS

"There is no ally half so strong as Right." Helen, in her demure way, believes that to do right in a quiet way is enough for any girl each day.

ANNA S. PITTERMAN

B.S. in Education

BUFFALO

Anna is never seen without her knitting bag. She is forever planning parties for the Dramatic Club too. She also manages to keep Art Goldberg, News columnist, supplied with items for his "On the Campus" column.

GLENWOOD F. PENSLIEN

B.S. in Industrial Arts Education

TONAWANDA

"The Acme of Efficiency," in everything. His new math theory, that zero divided by zero equals one, is expected to revolutionize our method of teaching mathematics.

RAYMOND M. RADTKE

B.S. in Industrial Arts Education

BUFFALO

Ray should make an excellent teacher because he knows the younger generation so well. At least, in Dr. Neumann's classes, Ray has always given us his views on the children of today.

RUTH PHILIPPBAR

B.S. in Education

BUFFALO

Ruth is envied by her classmates not only for her pleasing disposition, but for her fine position. Her father is treasurer of a theater, so she can get passes for her friends.

VIRGINIA E. RAWE

B.S. in Education

BUFFALO

Virginia is the K.P. artist who made a grand president of the Science Club. We are willing to wager that Miss Rawe will be one of the most progressive teachers ever produced by State.

MARGARET K. REID

B.S. in Education

LYONS

Although Marge may be small, she certainly can handle that car of hers. With that winsome smile, she probably would be able to induce any policeman not to give her a ticket for parking overtime.

STEVEN ROSE

B.S. in Industrial Arts Education

LACKAWANNA

We could always tell when Steve was coming down Elmwood Avenue in the winter. He never liked to use alcohol in the radiator of his car, and it always looked like the Lackawanna railroad engine from his home town.

MRS. MARIAN K. REYNOLDS

B.S. in Home Economics

BUFFALO

Marian's blue eyes and blonde hair won her a husband before she completed her course. The knowledge she gained in home economics should prove useful to her in her home life.

DORIS ROTHENBERGER

B. S. in Home Economics

BUFFALO

Doris was the first home-ec student to sign a contract this year. Her skill at sewing is unsurpassed, and whenever the one year men need any buttons sewed on their vests, they go to Doris.

RITA L. ROONEY

B.S. in Education

BUFFALO

Rita is the brown eyed lass from South Buffalo who is always in such a "hurry." She also has a great "interest" in the Buffalo Public Library.

JEANNE RUSS

B.S. in Education

LAKE VIEW

"Tubby" guides the destinies of our campus elections, and she certainly does a good job of it too. However, her principal interest is not in the system, but in the successful candidate called Ralph.

MARY G. RYAN
B.S. in Education
BUFFALO

"She danced along with happy grace and merry smiles." Mary has an Irish twinkle in her eyes that is reflected in her smile. We understand that she is fond of knitting and square dances in the rural teaching area.

DOROTHY L. SCHILLING
B.S. in Education
ELMA

Dorothy is quiet, and she reserves her opinions until she has acquired enough evidence to support the words she does use.

MARJORIE A. SCHAMBER
B.S. in Home Economics
BUFFALO

Marge has always been popular with the home-ec students at the practice house. Her boy friend "Bert" acted as a taxi driver whenever any of the students at the house wanted to go anywhere.

DAGNY SCHOUB
B.S. in Education
BINGHAMTON

Dagny, the girl with the most unusual name we ever heard, also is fond of Mr. Phillippi's math courses. We noticed that she is wearing a nice diamond, so she must plan to be the perfect school teacher.

LORETTA J. SCHARLOCK
B.S. in Education
EBENEZER

Loretta, section captain from Bob Hickey's town, is another of our quiet students of the K. P. department. We are sure that she will make an excellent kindergarten teacher.

HELEN M. SCHUBERT
B.S. in Education
NIAGARA FALLS

Helen is the Mary of the team of Mary and Johnny State, who write "Off the Record" in The Record. She isn't satisfied though, and she won't be until she gets one "Morey" in her name.

ROY M. SCHUMAKER
B.S. in Education
EAST AURORA

Roy looks like he would make a good collar-ad man, but he makes a better waiter up at MacDoels, during his spare hours. The girls all say that he looks cute in the uniform.

DONALD C. SHAW
B.S. in Education
BUFFALO

Donald is one of Kappa Delta Pi's efficient members. His management of the Textbook Library during the past year was carried out in a very systematic manner. He also has distinguished himself with his vocal abilities in the Men's Glee Club.

LIBORIO T. SCIBETTA
B.S. in Education
BUFFALO

Lib is the Men's Campus Club president, and he has been instrumental in its recent development. Their Dance Moderne, sponsored with the aid of the N.R.A. was one of the "smoothest" affairs of the year.

LUBA SHKOLNIKOFF
B.S. in Education
BUFFALO

Tall, dark, and graceful, Luba is usually the center of a laughing group. She is always interested, and will readily listen to your troubles, and give you her advice.

ELIZABETH J. SHARDON
B.S. in Education
NIAGARA FALLS

"And tramped so many miles and never thought of rest." Elizabeth certainly values her work at State highly, to trace and retrace her steps from the Falls every day.

MARY T. SHREDER
B.S. in Education
ATTICA

"The sound of merry laughter on the distant air." No matter where you may be you can never mistake Mary's laugh. And she always finds plenty to laugh about, except when she is in Dr. Peterson's History or Economics Class. She takes those courses seriously.

NATHAN SHULMAN
B.S. in Industrial Arts Education
NEW YORK CITY

Nate missed those noon hours during this last semester, because of twelve o'clock classes. He used to give us his versions of how the latest New York dance steps should be done. He made up for lost time however, after the basketball games.

DOROTHY L. SLATER
B.S. in Home Economics
BUFFALO

Dot, president of Theta Sigma Upsilon, spends most of her week-ends "down on the farm." She says that she goes to visit Rowena DeGraff, but her classmates say that Rowena has a brother, Wally.

LAWRENCE SITTERLEE
One Year Vocational SYRACUSE

"Thou takest all young hearts captive with thine eyes." Larry's dark, sparkling eyes have electrified the hearts of many of our fair co-eds.

ELOISE T. SLOAN
B.S. in Home Economics
BUFFALO

Eloise is another of our New York State scholarship students. Although she is a home-ec student, she doesn't like soup ever since the two cans of soup fell on her head at the Tri Sig house party.

JOSEPH J. SKELLY
One Year Vocational
ALBANY

Joe is a daily customer of the Co-op. He buys his stamps there for the letters he sends to Albany every day. He also keeps the boys at the Psi Phi house supplied with the Albany newspapers.

ARTHUR C. SMITH
B.S. in Industrial Arts Education
BUFFALO

Smitty, our Freshman basketball coach, was Mr. Coyer's right-hand man during the court season. When Art, Hube, and Mike formed their "board of strategy" we could be sure that some good basketball plays would be the result.

DULCENA E. SMITH
B.S. in Education
GARDENVILLE

"There is but one straight road to success, and that is merit." Evidently Dulcy is on that road, for she is known for the quality of her work here at State.

HELEN F. SPILLER
B.S. in Home Economics
LEROY

Helen, president of Phi Upsilon Omicron, is the efficiency expert of the Home Economics Department. With such a background of experience we are sure that she will make a good doctor's wife.

HAZEL SMITH
B.S. in Education
NIAGARA FALLS

Hazel spends hours on the train, and more hours in the social center, but she still is one of our honor students, and her work earned her a place in Kappa Delta Pi.

MARJORIE STEENWERTH
B.S. in Education
WELLSVILLE

Quiet and unassuming, Marjorie is one of the most loyal of her class. Her loyalty is especially shown by her attendance at the basketball games, and her willingness to do the dishes at the section parties.

HYLA A. SMITH
B.S. in Education
BUFFALO

"There is no frigate like a book to take us miles away." Hyla's reputation lies in the field of literature. She enjoys it so much that she even works for Miss Mulholland during her free periods.

JULIA J. STEPIEN
B.S. in Education
BUFFALO

Judy handled the business affairs of The Record in a very capable manner, but when she attended the Columbia Scholastic Press Convention in New York with Dot Fricke and Glad Young, it took more than her business ability to keep the trio from getting lost.

RUTH E. STIEG
B.S. in Education
BUFFALO

"The useful and the beautiful are never separated." Ruth has shown her efficiency in all of her undertakings, but we will remember her for the Senior Ball favors that she selected.

VERA H. STREB
B.S. in Education
BUFFALO

"Order is a lovely thing." Vera makes sure that all of her work is in order at all times. This characteristic of hers is one of the most essential qualities of a good teacher.

PAUL A. STRABEL
One Year Vocational
LANCASTER

Paul is one of the "builder-uppers" of the class of '36. He is a carpenter, but his real work was that of forming the foundation of the Band with his "ump-ah" horn.

MRS. LILLIAN D. STREBE
B.S. in Education
BUFFALO

"There is no tracing the connection of ancient nations but by language." Lillian's mastery of Latin and Greek should prove helpful in her teaching.

ELIZABETH J. STRATEMEIER
B.S. in Education
BUFFALO

Betty is one of Dean Reed's chief assistants. Whenever Dean Reed goes on a convention, Betty manages to "hold the fort" until she returns. With so many women at State, we really need an assistant Dean, and Betty is our candidate.

JOSEPH J. STURM
B.S. in Education
BUFFALO

Joe has been an able leader of a group of lively boys from the School of Practice who are members of the Cub Pack. Through his work with that group he has shown his ability to manage boys and to interest them in worthwhile activities.

MARY A. SULLIVAN
B.S. in Education
OSWEGO

Mary came to State with her Irish humor after graduating from Oswego Normal. It seemed that she was only here a short time when she left to teach at Cottage City, Maryland.

LYNETTE A. TERRY
B.S. in Education
BUFFALO

Lynette is another of the Dean's assistants. When she isn't playing the part of a dean, she probably is playing some other part for the Dramatic Club. She has a preference for romantic scenes, enacted with a young man from Niagara Falls.

BERNARD G. SWIFT
B.S. in Industrial Arts Education
AKRON

Swiftie is one of Brossman's side-kicks. He is one of the chief typesetters of the headlines in The Record. He is the greatest champion of simplified spelling, judging by the spelling of the heads before they are corrected.

OLIVE THOMAS
B.S. in Education
HAMBURG

Olive is another of our commuting co-eds. She is often admired for the way in which she braids her hair. Although she has a habit of giggling quite often, she can settle down when necessary, as shown by her honor marks.

DOROTHY M. TERRILL
B.S. in Education
SALAMANCA

Speaking, singing, and teaching constitute Dorothy's realm of accomplishments. She also developed quite a liking for Margaret Fuller in American Literature.

RAPHAEL J. TIFFANY
B.S. in Education
BUFFALO

"Activity is the only road to knowledge." Raphael manages to keep that road in use through his work in Kappa Delta Pi, Sigma Upsilon, and the Men's Campus Club. Not content with that, he aids Dr. Peterson correct history papers.

VERNA H. TIFFT
B.S. in Education
YOUNGSTOWN

Verna is one of the conscientious members of the class who always gets her work in on time. If you would like to know all about the coast guard, ask Verna, because her father is head of one of the stations.

ROBERT J. TRUDEL
B.S. in Education
LANCASTER

Bob commutes from Lancaster every day in a real small car. The car comes in handy at section parties even though it is small. It gets through the small spaces in traffic.

LESTER E. TOKARS
B.S. in Education
ROCHESTER

Les, a product of Brockport, in his short time here, has risen to be the demon reporter on The Record. His nose for news, and his "Peanuts and Me Feachure Storeys" have "saved" the paper several times.

MELBA E. TUTTLE
B.S. in Education
WALWORTH

Melba, the petite miss with the fiery red hair, came to State from one of our sister normal schools. In her short stay here, she has gone about her work with an earnest endeavor we all admire.

GEORGE L. TROMBLEY
B.S. in Education
DAYTON

"I have been waked from sleep too many times." This quotation from Teasdale seems to be George's excuse for anything. Although you may think he is asleep in class, he really is concentrating, and he proves this in his exams.

MARY I. UEBELHOER
B.S. in Education
BUFFALO

"Be thou the rainbow to the storms of life." Mary's work at the weather bureau has been a help to her when she spreads a little sunshine in her classes on days that are dark.

NELSON K. UPTON
B.S. in Education
BUFFALO

Nel, our Athletic Association president, collaborated with Thelma Hubbard to make the Senior Ball such a success. He says that the inspiration for all his accomplishments comes from a Dot.

WALTER C. VAN BUREN
B.S. in Industrial Arts Education
KINGSTON

Walt is our efficient editor and photographer. When anything of importance happens on the campus, you can be sure that Walt will be around with his trusty camera. He also writes of the accomplishments of our athletic teams for the local newspapers.

LAURETTA G. URSCHEL
B.S. in Education
DEPEW

Lauretta is to be envied by most of us, for she spent her summer vacation in Europe during her Freshman year. The experiences she gained on that trip proved of considerable help in her courses here at State.

HAZEL K. VAN DUSEN
B.S. in Education
LOCKPORT

You can always depend on Hazel to enter wholeheartedly into all of State's activities. She is a loyal booster of the orchestra and band, and she is quite interested in one-fourth of the "Valley Quartet."

MARY A. VALLONE
B.S. in Education
BUFFALO

Mary seems to us like the madonna type of girl. She is a very conscientious member of the Kindergarten-Primary department, and always does her part in any of their activities.

HELEN C. VLACHOS
B.S. in Home Economics
DUNKIRK

"Ideas are the factors that lift civilization." Helen always had ideas for any of the undertakings of the home-ec students. We know that she will make good use of all of her ideas in her teaching.

ELIZABETH VYSKOCIL
B.S. in Education
 NEWFIELD
 Elizabeth is another of our progressive teachers. Not content with her work as a teacher, Elizabeth returned to our halls to seek newer methods in the field of education.

JOHN S. WEBSTER
B.S. in Industrial Arts Education
 TOWN LINE

John reminds us of another Arthur Brisbane. His wealth of knowledge and theories on our present economic system proved invaluable to the students in Dr. Neumann's Economic History class.

ALICE L. WAITE
B.S. in Education
 WARSAW

"The study of mathematics cultivates the reason." Alice's keen interest in the field of mathematics is second only to her "interest" in her home town.

JOEL J. WEISBERG
B.S. in Education
 BUFFALO

Ever since someone found Joel reading, "Problems of the Adolescent Girl," for one of Dr. Quayle's classes, he has been swamped with letters seeking advice. His real interest, however, is in the field of math, and he is one of Mr. Phillippi's ace students.

ALFRED H. WARD
One Year Vocational
 OSSINING

Al comes from another "institutional" city, but he says he prefers State to the one in his home town, even though it is harder to get in State.

HELENE M. WERNER
B.S. in Education
 NIAGARA FALLS

Helene never talks sense—only dollars, at least if we judge by the car she drives. She is very much interested in basketball, and we can't help but see her in that nice white gym suit she wears.

ALICE A. WILLIAMSON
B.S. in Education
 BUFFALO

Alice entered State with an enviable record from South Park High School, and kept up that record during her four years. Honor teaching, and membership in Kappa Delta Pi was a part of that record.

E. JANE WOLF
B.S. in Education
 TONAWANDA

Jane impresses us as being very serious, but lurking in the corners of her mouth, and flashing from her hazel eyes is a gayer Jane. She makes good use of her spare time while waiting for her car to Tonawanda, by spending it in the library.

ELVIRA C. WITT
B.S. in Education
 BUFFALO

"To know when to be generous and when firm—this is wisdom." Elvira's wise and witty sayings have given us an insight of her nature. Her success as a teacher will be something for us to watch.

HARRY G. WOOD
B.S. in Education
 ORCHARD PARK

Harry is one of our ace literature students. His work in the field of literature won him a place in Sigma Upsilon. He also distinguished himself as director of the fourth annual Freshman camp.

DAMON G. WITTE
B.S. in Education
 BUFFALO

"My brain is quick with mighty themes." Damon always has a subject for any term paper, and he always gets them in ahead of time. During his spare time, he keeps up on his history by working for Mr. Demond.

EDNA R. WURSTER
B.S. in Home Economics
 BUFFALO

"It is wisdom to believe the heart." Edna believes that romance is slowly dying, but we understand that there is still some romance in the field of engineering, especially when the engineer comes from Michigan.

MILDRED E. YAVICOLI
B.S. in Education
 BUFFALO

"Never rise to speak 'till you have something to say." It seems that Mildred always has something to say, but then we are always willing to listen, because it is worth hearing.

MARGARET L. ZOLLER
B.S. in Education
 BUFFALO

"The way to be happy is to make other people happy." Marge should be one of the happiest of our classmates, because she is always making others happy with her singing. She even has music in her voice when she answers the office phone.

SAMUEL YOCHELSON
B.S. in Education
 BUFFALO

Sammy is a double for "Shadow" Smart, Harold Teen's stooge, but his pupils at School 38 prefer to call him "Peanuts." In spite of his small stature, he can always present a big argument.

FRANCES J. ZUZEK
B.S. in Home Economics
 GOWANDA

Frances is a boon to the taxi companies of Buffalo. She always oversleeps mornings, and then has to hire a taxi in order to get to her practice teaching assignment on time.

MARGARET E. BAUMBACH
B.S. in Home Economics
 BUFFALO

Margaret, one of Delta Sig's most loyal members, was away from the campus during the first semester, and they certainly missed her. We will miss her too, after graduation.

MYRA KEYSER
B.S. in Home Economics
 BUFFALO

Myra has done exceptional work in the field of home economics, and she is especially interested in cooking. She also spent the first semester of her Senior year off campus.

GLADYS L. YOUNG
B.S. in Education
 BUFFALO

Gladys handled all of the photographic requirements for the ELMS in fine shape, and she also keeps us in touch with our alumni members in her column in The Record. If you plan to go to New York, hire Gladys for a guide. She kept Dot and Judy from getting lost down there.

THE MERRILL-PALMER SCHOOL

Each year two Seniors from the Home Economics Department are selected to do further work in the field of Child Training. The two women selected by a committee headed by Miss Caudell, are sent to the Merrill-Palmer School in Detroit. The school is primarily a research school, and students from all over the United States are sent by their respective colleges to gain additional experiences in Child Training.

This year, Margaret Baumbach, and Myra Keyser were named by the committee to represent State at the school. The major portion of the time is spent in the laboratory and on field trips. The modern ideas in the field of Child Training that were brought back by Miss Baumbach and Miss Keyser should prove helpful in their teaching.

THE CLASS OF 1937

In their characteristic manner, the class of 1937 opened their activities by inaugurating a new Junior Counsellor system. The aim of the plan was to orient and assist the members of the incoming Freshman class. Each Freshman had as an adviser and guide, a member of the Junior class.

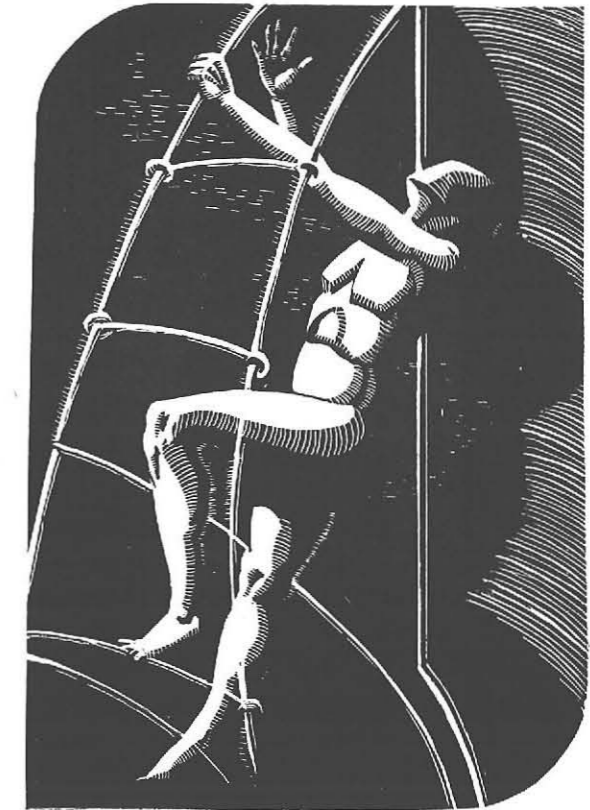

After attending to their guidance program, the Juniors, with a determination to hold the Interclass Sing title, presented songs in such a melodic, colorful, and original manner that they were given a perfect score by the discerning judges. The Juniors doff their "straw" hats to Shirley Passage, Israel Goldwater, and Loretta Regan, and to the sextet, for carrying them on to victory. With such a wealth of musical talent and experience, the class of 1937 is looking forward to another victory next fall, and permanent possession of the Interclass Sing Banner.

The experience they gained in promoting the Sophomore Sweater Dance the previous year, reflected itself in their big social event of 1935—the Junior Prom, held at the Buffalo Consistory on December 20, to the melodies of Benny Griffin and his orchestra. Headed by Betty Murray, the committee produced a Prom which still lives in the memories of all those who attended.

Hard hit by practice teaching assignments that took a number of versatile Juniors far out in the wilds of the rural school districts, the class of '37 had to forego competition in the annual Stunt Night program. They are eagerly awaiting next year's affair, however, and expect to be contenders for the honors.

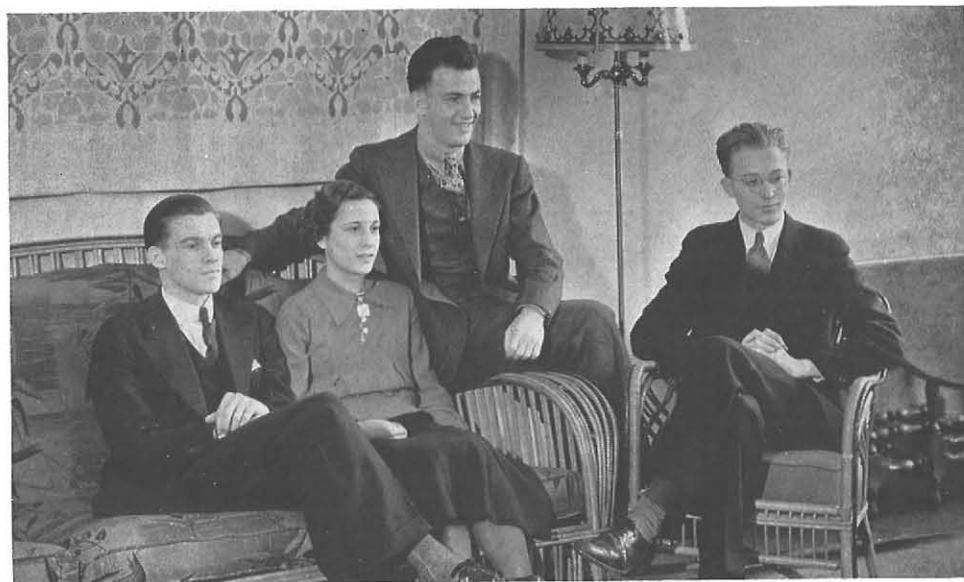

Prominent in other college activities are a number of Juniors. In the field of sports, Paul Coleman, Art Michlin, Dave Zwick, Charlie Ernst, Howie Miller, Bill Miller and Elmer Martin were members of both the soccer and basketball teams. Paul Brucato and Phil Laforanara were also players on the soccer team. Fran Conrad, and Bill Henderson represented the Juniors in the tank, while Harry Spurr carried the hopes of the class of '37 to third place in the cross-country race. Donald Champagne and George Brighton represented the Juniors in our dramatic productions. Other Juniors who have been prominent around the campus are Thomas Goodman, who is responsible for the Feature section of this ELMS, Betty McIntosh, table-tennis champion, and Doris Yuhl, Handbook editor.

The class of 1937 brought their activities to a close with a novel party under the direction of Raye Conrad, early in the spring. Moving-up Day formally ended their career as Juniors, and the class of '37 is ready to carry on where the class of 1936 left off.

THE CLASS OF 1938

The class of 1938 finished their first year at State by presenting a class musical assembly. This was the first assembly ever conducted by an entering class. After successfully passing through their first year, they returned to college in September with a single purpose—to firmly guide the Freshmen through the experiences of "Freshman Daze." The week's activities were climaxed by the annual Frosh-Soph tug-of-war across the Delaware Park lily pond. The Sophs strategy proved superior to the man-power of their opponents, and the Freshmen discovered how water lilies grow.

To show that "all's well that ends well," the class of '38 entertained the Freshmen at a party and dance in the gym, at which a Senior, Bob McDowell, was judged the best dancer. Despite the new curriculum and all of the extra work that fell on the shoulders of the Sophomores, they managed to be represented in all of the important events of the year. They did their part in the Interclass Sing, and in Stunt Night.

A number of Sophomores have found their places on the athletic teams of the college. George Bligh, Mike Feniello, and Hal Finn were members of the rambling soccer team, while Paul Frank's victory in the cross-country run was a repetition of his success in last year's race. Dick Perry collected a number of points in the swim meets, and Jimmie Perona proved his mettle on the basketball court.

Early in March the class held a "closed" party at the college. It really was closed too, because they shut themselves off from the rest of us by closing the iron gates in the main corridor next to Dean Reed's office.

The Sophomore Sweater Dance, held on March 27, was the outstanding event on their social program. Although the weatherman fooled everyone, and sent two snowstorms, the Sophomores turned the tide, and acted as harbingers of Spring, by having as a setting for the dance, a modern golf course.

Just half way through their college careers, the members of the class of 1938 are already looking toward the last half of their stay. Shortly examinations will be upon them, and after that plans for acting as Junior brothers and sisters to the incoming Freshmen.

THE CLASS OF 1939

Each year brings a new group of faces to State. According to tradition they must pass the rigorous tests of Freshman Daze, but through them all the students became more intimately acquainted with their fellowmen. After this period, plus the Faculty Reception, where there was much mutilation of names but a general good will to sooth injured feelings, the Sophomore-Freshman party completed the initiation of the young members.

Probably the Freshman Beau Party was their outstanding social event of the year. Not only was the affair carefully planned but a variety of interests were offered to insure a good time for everybody. Dancing and an exhibition basketball game in themselves pronounced the party a success. More than that, however, a Major Beaux Amateur Contest was held, in which much outstanding talent in the Freshman Class was discovered.

The Beauty Contest, sponsored by the Y. W. C. A. last fall, included a number of Freshman women. Miss Annette Pausewang, a Freshman, was selected as "Miss State Teachers College" for 1936.

Not only are abilities in social graces in evidence but the sports world, too, holds a promising place for this group. In the cross-country run Raymond Aet, Freshman treasurer, took second place. Basketball, swimming, and even ping pong prove very popular as shown by the records of participation.

In this short time six members of their class occupied prominent places in the cast of the Christmas Play. The Junior Women's Glee Club is rehearsing as ardently for the Spring Concert as their older sisters.

Such an exhibition of abilities is worthy of recognition. Surely this class will not bury their talents but will use them to further themselves, their class, and their college throughout their remaining three years. The Class of 1939 is one of the most energetic classes to enter State. May their energies carry them far.

The Pan Hellenic Association is the governing body of the Greek letter sororities on the campus. Its membership is composed of the president and two representatives of each sorority. Pan Hellenic regulates all matters concerning the conduct of sororities, and co-ordinates their activities. Each spring it conducts Pan Hellenic Day, a social event for all sorority members.

THE ELMS, 1912-1936

Vol. I-1912

Vol. V-1916

Vol. X-1921

SILVER ANNIVERSARY VOLUME

The 1936 ELMS is more than just another volume. To us it is the Silver Anniversary Issue. We believe that this volume will mirror the result of twenty-five years of progress. As in so many other cases, we are indebted to the past for a great deed, so today we are indebted to the first staff, who in 1912 published volume number one. At that time they cherished a fond hope for the future of the undertaking. We are proud of that long series of ELMS each reflecting how that hope was handed down from class to class. Today it is ours—tomorrow it will be yours.

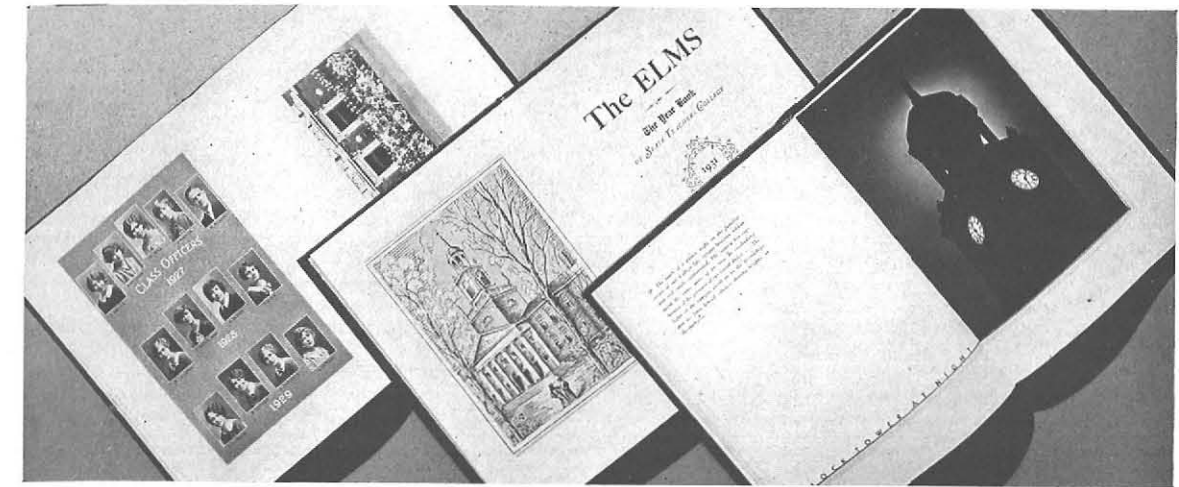

We received quite a thrill in looking over those early ELMS. We realize the work our predecessors must have had; the difficulties they had to overcome in order to present their yearbook to the classes. There are many familiar faces within the covers of those early volumes. Many of them have taken their place in the educational world of today, while others have already finished their work in this world.

Outstanding in the development of the ELMS has been the advance made in the make-up of the book. The early volumes of the yearbook contained an abundance of written material, almost to the exclusion of photographs. Gradually, more pictures have been added each year, until today, nearly everything we do at State is pictured in the ELMS. We feel that remembrance is stimulated more through pictorial presentation than by the printed page.

Throughout those twenty-five years, the ELMS has emerged from the paper-cover class to the embossed-cover type on our Silver Anniversary Volume. As the college and its activities grew larger, a corresponding growth in the size of the ELMS is noted. Each volume is a milestone in our quest to fulfill the hopes of the first staff.

Vol. XXV-1936

The ELMS came into being because of the keen interest and cooperation of the students of the Normal School. Students were not the only ones, however, who gave us our start. Several members of the faculty saw the many potentialities of the yearbook, and aided in the new venture. The ELMS, since that memorable year of 1912, has always been fortunate in having advisers whose earnest cooperation and interest have been responsible for the steady progress it has made.

Miss Ida L. Kempke, who was adviser of the first ELMS, served in that capacity until her retirement from college last year. During the twenty-four years that she acted as adviser, she inspired each editor, and saw the ELMS rise to greater heights. Whatever praise this volume may receive, is due, not alone through our efforts, but to those of Miss Kempke and the former editors.

Now that we have finished our work, we present this Silver Anniversary ELMS to "those who follow after." We hope you will profit by our mistakes. In publishing our yearbook, we have tried to keep in mind at all times, this paragraph from the song, "On the Banks of Old Scajaquada":

*"May we climb to heights unheard of,
In our efforts to unfold.
Mindful ever of the meaning,
Alma Mater—new and old."*

THE RECORD

Just one year younger than the ELMS, The Record is approaching the quarter century mark of its existence. The scope of the paper reaches greater proportions yearly without any decrease in quality of presentation. Its educational as well as entertaining contents have proved well worth reading. The Record was invaluable with its material on our many interesting and varied assembly speakers. Likewise it has been a most accurate historian of State's many sport ventures, musical treats, and academic accomplishments.

Few realize the labor and time required to present a college paper each week. Few appreciate the sacrifices so many of the students make in order to publish such a paper. For this reason, particular praise and recognition is due the staff of The Record for an unprecedented exhibition of ability in faithfully preparing assignments.

To a casual reader, The Record may be a single edition of our collegiate news, but to others each publication means a step forward. A brief inspection of an early copy will indicate the meager beginning upon which the staff has never ceased to improve. The course of progress is necessarily slow, but it is nevertheless sure.

We see around us daily the many improvements which have come about through, or with the help of, rational and enthusiastic editorial comment. The Editorial Board, who seem to know before the students what will be of social benefit, never fail to back all progressive movements. Chairmen and committee members of the year's extra-curricular activities will vouch for the generous assistance rendered by Record scribes.

We should be proud of our college paper. May it continue in its march of progress until it tops the list of college weeklies. Those of us who graduate appreciate and almost cherish its indelible record of happy college life. Those of us who have not yet reached that final height of educational advancement look forward to another year's publication of our own college newspaper.

The Handbook is a faculty-student publication, issued at the beginning of each college year. Its pages set forth the traditions, customs, rules, and interests of the college to students, old and new. The committee, realizing what an indispensable item this little book is, is already at work producing a revised and improved Handbook for next year.

Les Amateurs de la France was granted a temporary charter at the beginning of the college year, and since that time, the club has grown rapidly. The purpose of the organization is to develop an interest and appreciation of the culture, customs, and arts of France. Students who have studied, or are now studying French are eligible for membership.

The One Year Vocational Class is composed of twenty-two men who were successful in passing a state-wide competition for industrial teacher scholarships. The contest has been held each year for a number of years to secure candidates with requisite trade and technical experience who wish to become teachers of vocational subjects. Each scholarship is for two hundred fifty dollars, and the holders, when they complete their course, receive a license to teach their respective trades in the public schools of the state.

MUSICAL ORGANIZATIONS

A part of the college life that is growing increasingly dear to students of State, is the excellent opportunity that is offered for music participation and appreciation.

Not only have our own musical organizations given us many evidences of their progress, but the whole student body is becoming music-conscious. The Buffalo Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Lajos Shuk, is always welcomed to our assembly and we are quickly enlarging our knowledge and appreciation of classical music. Some of our happiest hours are spent at the college musical assemblies, where State is building itself a reputation as a "singing college."

Throughout the year special programs are given added beauty by the participation of our music groups. The services of the orchestra in assemblies, and of the Glee Clubs at Thanksgiving and Christmas, call forth an enthusiastic response.

The Band has especially given State cause for pride, for it is growing each year, and stimulates our enthusiasm at all athletic contests and sport rallies.

The Triads gives all girls fond of singing the opportunity to join in this recreation.

The Men's Glee Club and the Junior Women's Glee Club have also contributed to the year's musical programs.

The musical organizations combine each year to present one of the outstanding events on the college calendar, the Spring Concert.

What these groups have achieved would have been impossible were it not for the untiring enthusiasm and capable leadership of the faculty of the Music Department, Miss Ruth Speir, Miss Edna Hurd, and Miss Mary McMahon.

The Women's Senior Glee Club not only develops its own appreciation and knowledge of good music, but also sings for the enjoyment of audiences on the campus and outside the College. It is composed of about sixty upperclass women, selected for their special ability in singing. This year the cooperation of the Glee Club with the Dramatic Club made possible the presentation of the choral drama Bethlehem as State's Christmas play.

Triads, a musical organization, is open to all women of the College who enjoy music and like to participate in it. Revived in 1933 after an absence on the campus of two years, its membership has grown to approximately one hundred students. It seldom participates for audiences, desiring to be merely an appreciative organization.

The Art Kraft Klub was founded in 1924 "to seek beauty and find it," and to make its appreciation something enjoyed by an increasingly greater number of college students. It is open to all upperclass women who are interested in maintaining the artistic standards of the college. The club supervises posters and bulletin boards, and sponsors an annual Stunt Night, the proceeds of which have been devoted toward the establishment of an annual scholarship.

THE DRAMATIC CLUB

"The play's the thing . . ."

To the ordinary observer this quotation from Hamlet may seem to be a complete summary of a dramatic performance. However, he fails to realize the importance of each detail involved in the entire production. Every person has his separate part to play whether on the stage or not.

The function of the director is not to force an interpretation on the cast, but to take each interpretation of the members and modify them so that the final interpretation of the play is a combination of all of the individual interpretations. This makes for an enriched and more complete production of the play.

To Miss Lyvers, who worked with the Dramatic Club for the first semester, belongs much credit for the splendid results she has achieved. The Christmas play was particularly appropriate this year. The choral drama is a culmination of the miracle play produced the year before. Good training in cooperation was especially evident, because success of the play depended upon harmonious inter-functions of the Dramatic, Music and Art Departments.

Miss Goosen, who returned to State in January after doing graduate work at the University of Southern California, has always been noted for her artistic stage settings. The perfectly planned scenes of the Spring play Disraeli are evidence of her ability. Each scene and movement is studied carefully. Color, light, motion, and grouping are all given exact consideration before any definite decision is made. The play is often rehearsed in individual groups at first. Gradually parts are joined together. The cast labors arduously until perfection is attained. Finally, at the dress rehearsal the entire set of results are brought together and perfected before the play is presented to the public.

To persons unaware of the functions going on back stage the work may seem unimportant. Hours are spent on lighting, rehearsals, scenery, designing, and painting. Miles and miles of thread and gross after gross of pins are used in sewing the costumes. The contribution of the actor to a play is no better than that of the backstage crew, but simply a different type and one that the public can readily see.

Dramatic Club productions are all State productions. The scenery is designed and constructed by the Art department. Costumes are designed by this department but sewed by costume committee members of the club. The special wiring and lighting effects are made by members of the electrical shop.

It is the special purpose of the Dramatic Club this year to see that every member is busy in some dramatic activity. Besides the annual Spring Play several new projects have been tried. Around the first of April a group of monodramas was given in the Social Centers. During Easter week a special Easter assembly performance was given to the student body. Entirely new and different are the half hour weekly radio programs broadcast over a local station, in which every member has a part.

The college dramatic productions have been enjoyed not only by the students, but by the people of Buffalo who are very enthusiastic of the work of the Dramatic Club.

The State Teachers College branch of the Y. W. C. A. is directly allied with the National Organization. It is open to all women of the college, and its yearly program offers great opportunities for social and religious discussion. This organization sponsors a Freshman Camp held the week-end before college opens each fall. The project helps in orienting Freshmen in college ways and traditions.

The Rural Education Club is open to all students who are especially interested in the problems of teaching in the country. At their monthly meetings, various speakers prominent in rural affairs give the members an insight into rural life. The club is divided into activity groups, where those especially interested in music, crafts, or dramatics, may carry out these hobbies. Next year the Rural Club plans to join the Country Life Association.

The Men's Campus Club was formed last year through the combination of the Men's Club and the Campus Club. During the year it features social gatherings designed to provide outlets for physical and mental energy. In an attempt to achieve effective assimilation of Freshmen into the life of the college, the organization conducts the annual Freshman Camp in the fall for men.

The Non-Resident Association is an organization composed of college women whose homes are out-of-town. This is the only qualification for membership. Its yearly program offers many social events to aid the women in becoming acquainted and to fill their college days with activities. The organization offers the non-resident women an opportunity to get into the swing of college life. It often joins with the Men's Campus Club for social events.

Riding along on the tide of the spirit which has engulfed the college for the past two years, Buffalo State Teachers College terminated another successful year in the field of sports. Basketball has maintained its high ranking in the western New York area, intramural athletics have been patronized by many, soccer has been put on a collegiate basis, and swimming received an added impetus through outstanding victories over leading college teams. Most important of all, however, the athletic field, to be known as "Alumni Field," has been taken over by the graduates to be transformed into a unit containing a well-sod soccer field, an oval track, tennis courts, and an archery range. It is expected to be ready for use in the fall.

All these things would not have been possible without the guiding influence of the Athletic Association. Under the new constitution, revised by a committee headed by Nelson Upton, the Athletic Association is divided into two groups, the men's division under the general supervision of Mr. Hubert E. Coyer, and the women's under that of Miss Ruth E. Houston.

Other accomplishments of the Athletic Association are the successful direction of the inter-class cross-country run and the promotion of the Niagara District Junior Amateur Athletic Union swimming meet.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

A bit of action taken during the basketball season. On the left Dave Zwick taps one in the hoop as two Fredonia players try in vain to stop him. The center photo gives you a bird's-eye view of Bob Hickey scoring one of his push-up shots as Bobby Reist, and Art Michlin jump to retrieve the ball should he miss. On the right, Eddie Orgek leaps high in the air during the Fredonia game to snare the ball off the backboard as Howie Miller, and Charlie Ernst leap to aid him.

Undefeated on its home court for the first time in the history of the College, State finished the season tied with Oswego and Brockport for the Teacher Training Championship.

The three big games of the season were without a shadow of a doubt the home games with Niagara, Brockport, and Oswego. For three years the Orange and Black has patiently awaited its first triumph over Niagara and its elation over the 25-24 victory was unrestrained and uproarious. This win achieved a long-sought goal for State—major ranking in the basketball world. The Brockport fray necessitated the playing of two extra periods before State was able to pull away to a 25-31 win. Again the under dog in the Oswego game, State squeezed out a 31-28 victory to tie for the league lead.

One of the highlights of the season was the appearance of Nat Holman, coach of City College of New York basketball team, who conducted a basketball clinic in the Gym. The team undoubtedly gained much from this clinic, as shown in their season's record.

Playing through most of the games without substitutions, the team early in the season acquired the name of "Iron Men." Dave Zwick, leading scorer of the team, proved to be fast and tricky and a sure shot from almost any angle. Captain Paul Coleman, improving with each game, was the hero of the Niagara victory and his fighting spirit manifested itself throughout the year. Bobby Reist's superb ability in snatching shots off the backboard gave State possession of the ball at critical stages of most games.

Art Michlin, one of the best guards in the district, proved to be the steadying influence on the team and his loss, because of illness, toward the end of the season was sadly felt. Bob Hickey, the only Senior on the squad, was consistently aggressive, using his height to good advantage. Jimmie Perona, diminutive Sophomore, was instrumental in many of the Teacher's wins, especially toward the end of the season when the going was particularly hard. Eddie Orgek teamed up well with Perona in several of the games when he was needed most. His defensive work was outstanding and with the experience gained this year, he should be in fine shape for next season. Charlie Ernst, Elmer Martin, Howie Miller, and Ken Edmunds, played the role of shock troops throughout the year, giving the first five much needed rest. Coach Hube Coyer is deserving of much adulation and he can point with pride to the fact that State has been defeated but once on its home court in the past two seasons.

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL

BACK ROW—McCullor, Piatak, Brauer, Hagerly, Ast, Fried, Rost, Coach Smith
FRONT ROW—Lorich, Edmunds, Caneen, Rupp, Wizeman, Safran, Conte

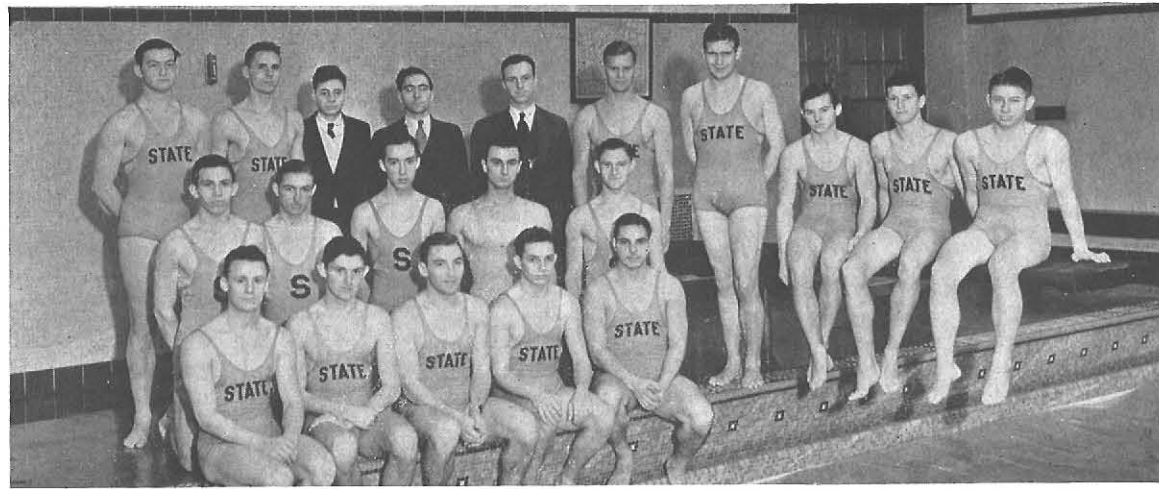

Freshman basketball climbed in the spotlight for the first time since its organization four years ago. In 1932 the first Freshman basketball team was formed under the direction of Coach Coyer. At that time only a few games were played, but much credit is due Mr. Coyer and the members of that first team, who started things off in the right direction.

This year's team, under the able guidance of Coach Arthur Smith, has finished a season almost as extensive as that of the varsity. They have accounted for seven victories in seventeen starts. Several games stand out on the records. The home game with Nichols was a snappy battle, and the Frosh scored a creditable 25 to 17 victory. When they met the Brockport reserves, they were considered the under dogs, but they scored a 15 to 12 upset in one of the fastest and best played games of the season. The final game of the year, against the Sophomores, was a typical "grudge" battle. The Frosh, after running into an overtime period, managed to score a 17 to 12 victory.

Coach Coyer, in his work of building varsity teams, believes that the present system of forming Freshmen teams is an important factor in moulding a varsity squad. The experience gained on the Frosh team, affords the members an opportunity to develop their style of play to fit in with that of the varsity in the following years.

SITTING—Kreinheder, Clark, Neumann, Doane, Puleo, Weber, Barrowman, Perry

We are very much "in the swim," here at State. The 1936 swimming team, in the short span of two years, has developed so well under the coaching of John Butler, that it is today widely acclaimed as a team of outstanding ability in the intercollegiate swimming circles of Western New York.

With most of the team of last year back and with new members to strengthen it, the swimming team has shown improvement in every department. Perry, Saari, Kean, Kreinheder, Weber, Doane and Conrad have all performed particularly well, but it is the fine all-around team effort which characterizes the squad.

Victories over Cornell University and the Ontario Agricultural College, and a fine showing against the University of Toronto, indicates greater progress in the future.

Next year more meets, both at home and away, have been arranged so there will be no conflict with the basketball schedule. There is also possibility of water polo being added as a feature of the meets. Swimming has grown beyond being merely a new member of our sports program, to become firmly embedded as a major sport, and in so doing it is keeping abreast of the evolution of our sports to a higher college level.

SOCCER—TENNIS—GOLF

GOLF—Gianadda, Constable, Smith, Feniello, Frank, Hewitt
SOCCER—Piatak, Brucato, Lafornera, Bligh, Reid, Neumann, W. Miller, Mr. Coyer, Pantera, Hewitt, Clark, Ernst, Gianadda, Zwick, Hagerty, Feniello, Finn, Perona, Michlin, Coleman, H. Miller, Martin
TENNIS—Ernst, Hewitt, Lindemann

SOCCER

Soccer, youngest varsity sport on the campus, has advanced to a position where it ranks as one of the leading fall sports in western New York college circles. This year's team earned the nickname of "Ramblers" because of their extensive tour of the countryside. They covered 750 miles over a period of eight days.

The team has shown exceptional ability on the field against such formidable opponents as Syracuse, Colgate and Cortland. Prospects for next season look very bright since the announcement of the new Alumni Field. Only Russ Hewitt and Ed Gianadda will be lost to the team by graduation.

TENNIS

Although State students have shown an active interest in tennis, the schedule must necessarily be limited because of the short period of time in which good playing conditions prevail. This year's team has as manager, Michael Feniello, and is composed of Bobby Reist, Jack Anderson, Russ Hewitt and Al Lindemann.

GOLF

Varsity golf, championed for the last three years by Len Buckton, '35, has as this year's captain, Howie Constable. Ed Gianadda, Art Smith, Russ Hewitt, Mike Feniello, Howie Constable and Clark Zerby represent State on the links. Matches with colleges of Buffalo and Western New York have been scheduled.

INTRAMURAL SPORTS

Intramural sports have been guided this year by Phil Lafornera as general manager. During the year Phil and his assistants have conducted intramural sports in the field of soccer, basketball, ping pong and badminton. The two outstanding events of the season were the inter-class cross-country race and the boxing tournament. Paul Frank repeated his victory of last year in the race, while Ray Ast finished second, and Harry Spurr placed third.

WOMEN'S ATHLETICS

JUNIOR-SENIOR BASKETBALL

THIRD ROW—Werner, Hiscock, Hornsby, Fischer, Perry, Kramer
 SECOND ROW—Eichhorn, Joslin, Katan, Neff, Wittig, Schultz, McDonald
 FIRST ROW—Alaimo, Uebelhoer, Troubridge, Shreder, Hatten, Benedict

During the past year, the athletic program for women has been enlarged through the efforts of Miss Ruth Houston and Miss Winifred Salom. More equipment has been added, and a larger number of women are participating in athletics.

BASKETBALL

Basketball is the major sports activity for women. All classes were represented in the basketball tournament that was conducted in the spring. Fifteen teams competed in a Freshman-Sophomore, and a Junior-Senior tournament. The two winners meet to decide the class championship. The final game of the season took place between the Orange team, and the Black team. Members of these teams were selected from all of the women who participated in basketball. The requirements for membership are very strict. Candidates must qualify in playing ability, regularity of attendance, good sportsmanship, and must be recommended by their faculty adviser.

SWIMMING

Swimming is one of the all-year sports for women. Classes in Red Cross Life Saving meet once a week, so that members may qualify for the Red Cross Life Saving Award. New requirements have been set up in order to have regular attendance by all Freshmen and Sophomores. It is expected that this new rule will result in a greater number of expert swimmers in the future. The climax of the swimming season was the women's meet held in May, in which events were conducted for swimmers and novices of the Freshman class.

 FIRST ROW—Johnston, Cepura, Scudder, Dobony, Griesel, Draa, Schlenker, Fields, Bowery, Bauman, Butler, Fenske, Prohaska, Hanny, Ehman

SOCCER

Soccer has aroused as great an interest among State's co-eds as it has among the men. Under the expert tutelage of Coach Coyer, it has been successfully initiated into the women's sports program.

TENNIS—TABLE TENNIS

Because of the excellent weather conditions in the fall and spring, two tennis tournaments are conducted. They are open to all women of the college. Anne Fennell and Rosemary Schultz returned to the courts in the second semester to defend the laurels won last fall.

Every fall a table tennis tournament is conducted for those who enjoy the table-top version of the game. This year's tournament had one of the largest fields of any. Betty McIntosh, a Junior, fought her way to the top to win the championship of the college.

BADMINTON

Synonymous with spring is the sport of badminton, which was introduced only a few years ago. The women's tournament, and a mixed-doubles tournament are the highlights of the season. Geane Trent and Margaret Gardner won the women's doubles.

ARCHERY

Although primarily a spring sport, archery has been made a year around sport by the installation of an indoor range. Several women of the college have gained recognition in local meets, and a number of State's co-ed archers have scored a high ranking in the National Collegiate Telegraphic Archery meets.
