THIS SUNDAY: March 9
First Unitarian Church

11:00 O'Clock
Public Service

Address by the Minister:

"THE FLEXIBLE PERSONALITY" No. 4

In our study of "The Proper Study of Mankind" we come to the type of person who "can bend with the remover to remove", who can adjust to life situations, and hence who can spend a lifetime in growing, enlarging, and expanding it- self. This may be the truly "liberal personality", and we will consider some goals and opportunities for each one of us.

USHERS: Thomas Foltz and Jack Edmunds GREETERS: Gertrude Chadwick, Shirley Traver

FLOWERS: Mr and Mrs Arthur Waite

FROM TIME TO TIME THE CHURCH TAKES A NEW FORWARD STEP: Now with the request of the School of Religion for all children to be present and in their seats at 10:55 O'Clock, and with the Organ Prelude, so beautiful and serenely suggestive of worship beginning at 10:55 o'clock, we ask everyone to be in their seats at 10:55 O'Clock, and Greeters and Ushers will invite those in the Narthex to be so seated. We believe for both church and school this is a forward step worship-wise.

Mr. Martin's organ renditions are always worthy of thoughtful attention.

Sunday Evening: L.R.Y. will meet at the home of Mrs. Claire Ripple, 4622 Terrace Drive (parallel with Lewiston Rd. between Wyoming & Lafayette Aves.) for a discussion led by Mrs. Ripple on "Why Go to Conferences?" Games and refreshments in order. Mike and Pete Ripple are the genial hosts.

March 13: Alliance Annual Meeting. Luncheon 12:30, Unity Hall. Hostesses, Mrs. Gardiner, Frank Smith, and Crosse.

March 14: All-Church Dinner. 6:15 pm. Speaker: Dr. Robert Killam, Cleveland, our Unitarian Regional Director, when of the outstanding leaders and speakers in Unitarianism. Dr. Killam's addresses are always informative challenging and inspiring.

LOST & FOUND: brown and red infants rubbers are lost. MINISTER loaned a copy of a book Edmund Wilson's "SCROLLS FROM THE DEAD SEA SEA" to a member at the Alliance meeting where he spoke on this subject. Because he absent minded on such subjects, he asks borrower to remind him. He needs use of said book himself.
