Obituary

Lil Martin was born on March 25, 1926 to the late Bernie & Theodosia Davis of Camden, New Jersey and was educated in the Camden public schools. Lil married the late Reverend Roland Corsey Sr. in 1945 and along with one son, Roland Jr., resided in Woodbury, N.J. After divorcing, Lil moved to Flint, Michigan where she married her second husband in 1955.

She became a valued member of the staff at Roswell Park Cancer Institute in Buffalo. Her outgoing personality and cheerful manner left a lasting impression on patients and coworkers. Throughout her career at Roswell, she touched the hearts of those she met and helped many patients with her gifts of emotional healing and joy.

Lil was a member of many charitable organizations such as Ionic Chapter #77 O.E.S.; Ester Court No.9 Heroines of Jericho; Charter Member of Emmanuel Royal Court Order of Cyrens U.D.; and Hadji Court #62 Daughters of Isis.

She leaves to cherish her memory a brother, Ralph Davis of Buffalo; a sister, Gussie Mosely of Camden; Roland; 2 granddaughters, Anita Harris & Monique Corsey; and 2 great-grandchildren, Kevin and Casey Harris all of Washington, D. C.
