The Reverend Natalie R. Wimberly

Rev. Natalie R. Wimberly is a native of Indianapolis, Indiana. She is the daughter of Rev. C. Wimberly of Terre Haute, IN and Rev. A. Lena Brown of Chicago, IL.

Rev. Wimberly was educated in the Indianapolis and Terre Haute, IN school systems. She received a Bachelor of Arts Degree from Saint Mary of the Woods College and graduated from Christian Theological Seminary, Indianapolis, IN with a Master of Divinity.

Rev. Wimberly preached her initial sermon on February 20, 1990 and was ordained an Elder of the AME Zion Church on February 10, 1995. She received her first Pastorate appointment in July 1994 when she became Pastor of Wesley Chapel AME Zion Church, Greenville, Kentucky and Barnes Chapel AME Zion Church, White Plains, Kentucky. In July 1998 she was appointed Pastor of Campbell Chapel AME Zion Church, Indianapolis, Indiana, the church where she was reared.

In December 2001, Rev. Wimberly was appointed Pastor of Saint Frances African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church in Port Chester, NY.

Rev. Wimberly holds membership in the National Honor Society, National Forensic League, Alpha Theta Fraternity (History Honor Society), Life Member of the Women's Home & Overseas Missionary Society of the AME Zion Church, NAACP, Lula Bean Club, Federation of Colored Women's Club, National Association of Black Seminary and Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc.

Her hobbies are reading, writing, cross-stitching, sports and attending plays and musicals.

From The Women's Day Chairperson

To God be the glory for the things He has done.

Thank you to each and everyone for your support, participation and patience. You have allowed new ideas to be presented to you and you embraced them whole heartedly

Thank you for coming together to make this year's Women's Day a blessing to others.

For the Bible says:

"For we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are called according to His purpose."

Romans 8:28

Thank You Virtuous Women,

Sister Jennifer Lucas
Chairperson
