THE STUDIO THEATRE PLAYERS
and
THE STUDIO SCHOOL OF THE THEATRE

Pay affectionate tribute to the memory of

Walter Platt Cooke

who gave devoted service as Trustee to these organizations.

The great contribution Mr. Cooke made as friend and Trustee of this Theatre was faith in our undertaking and an unwavering confidence in our ability to carry it forward through early and difficult periods to its ultimate establishment and continuous growth.

The staff and workers in the Theatre express great sorrow in the death of Mr. Cooke and the personal loss to them of his wise counsel and encouragement.

DURING the run of "THE ROYAL FAMILY" there will be, in the Green Room of the Studio Theatre, an exhibition of decorative panels by

SHELDON K. VIELE

The panels shown are part of a series depicting Seventeenth Century ships and ports and are based on engravings of the period and the paintings of Claude Lorraine
