Christmas represents the rebirth of light, the return of the sun, the promise of spring. Even now, as winter begins, the days are already growing longer, and we know, even as we face blowing snow and freezing winds, that the warm sunshine and fragrant flowers will come again.

AS WE LIGHT OUR CANDLES THIS CHRISTMAS
MAY WE REMEMBER THAT EVEN IN THE DARKNESS OF CORRESPAIR AND DEATH THERE IS A PROMISE OF LIGHT AND JOY.

Christmas represents the birth of a child, the coming of love to the world, the giving and less receiving of precious gifts. As the child was born, may love be born in our hearts, and like the star that burned in the Christmas sky, may it light the world around us.

AS WE EXCHANGE OUR GIFTS THIS YEAR MAY WE REMEMBER THAT THE MATERIAL THINGS WE GIVE EACH OTHER ARE BUT SYMBOLS OF THE MOST PRECIOUS GIFT OF ALL, THE GIFT OF LOVE.

Christmas represents a message of goodwill, a promise of peace, a song of hope for the world. Though this hope seems sometimes lost, always it lives in our hearts, and as we learn to find peace with ourselves and peace with each other, we create the possibility of peace among nations.

AS WE HEAR THE CAROLS THIS CHRISTMAS, MAY WE REMEMBER THAT "PEACE ON EARTH, GOODWILL TO MEN" IS NOT JUST A HOPE FOR THE FUTURE, BUT A REALITY WE CAN CREATE IN OUR OWN LIVES.

THE GIFTS OF CHRISTMAS ARE JOY, LOVE AND PEACE.
MAY WE RECEIVE THEM THIS YEAR.
