"The Lord Is My Shepherd, I Shall Not Want"
— Psalm 23:1

GEORGE L. Brinkley, Sr. was born on April 27, 1905 to the late John and Annie Brinkley in Enfield, North Carolina. He departed this life on September 3, 1991 after a long illness.

GEORGE joined Wayman A.M.E. Church in Enfield at an early age. After relocating to Buffalo, New York in 1926, he became a member of Lincoln Memorial United Methodist Church. He faithfully served Lincoln for sixty-five years as a member of the Usher Board, the Men's Club and the Senior Choir. He served as church custodian for many years. He was also a member of Paramount Lodge #73.

In 1932, GEORGE married the late Mattie Harrison and to that union ten children were born.

After the death of his first wife, GEORGE was blessed with another family when he married Marion A. Washington.

GEORGE will be greatly missed by his loving wife: Marion; four children: George (Lillye), Dorothy Brown, Barbara (Charles) Knightner, and William; seven step-children; fifteen grandchildren; eleven great-grandchildren; one great-great grandchild and a host of other relatives and friends.
