Buffalo, N.Y.

The Rev. Melba Chaney, Pastor

O B I T U A R Y

INELL ANDERSON TILLMAN was born in Camden, South Carolina on September 20, 1920 to the late Henry Anderson and Flora Anderson.

After moving to Buffalo with her family, INELL attended public schools, graduating from School 32 and the Girl's Vocational High School.

She married Milford Tillman, and out of this union one son was born.

INELL ANDERSON TILLMAN united with Lincoln Memorial in the early fifties under the pastorate of the Rev. William H. Horner.

Following a brief illness, she departed this life on Friday, October 2.

She leaves to cherish her memory a loving husband, Milford; one son, Milford (Sharlene); three grandchildren: Angela, Marlon, and Monica; a loving mother, Flora Anderson; one aunt, Eliza Chestnut, and over twenty-five former foster children; a host of other relatives and friends.

"Miss Me--But Let Me Go"

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free!
Miss me a little--but not too long
And not with your head bowed low,
Remember the love that we once shared
"Miss Me--But Let Me Go"

For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone,
It's all a part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss Me--But Let Me Go"
