Parting Glimpse

On September 17, 1940 in Marigold, Mississippi, Samuel Scott Jr. rose to Beatrice Palsco and Samuel Scott Sr. (deceased) (Louise-deceased) and was called home on Friday, October 3, 2006. Sam was raised partially in Toledo, Ohio where he held jobs at a chrome factory and at LOF Glass factory, and partially in Buffalo, NY where he had many trades such as interior and exterior home decorating.

Proceeding him in death was his brother Nathaniel Scott, two nephews; Dickie Clark and Jeffrey Jones and two nieces; Daphne Scott-Barber and Kim Rose. But he leaves behind to treasure his memory are three sisters; Sarah Scott-McCray (Bryant), Willie Mae Scott and Lavern Horton (Fulton) and one brother Henry Palsco.

Also to treasure his memory is his beloved son Samuel Scott III, two grandsons; Samuel Christopher and Trent; four grand-daughters; Brooklyn, Alize, Ariel, and Mya and a host of nieces, grand nieces, nephews and grand nephews. Not Forgetting two aunts; Stella Braxton (L.K.), Anna Belle Garmon (Grant-deceased); two uncles from Florida; Sylvester (Shug) Scott (Lula) and William (Dub) Scott (Pat) and a tremendous host of cousins and friends.
