Yet lectures and profound productions
give way to other matters—
Feeding the local residents . . .

Viewing leggy things . . .

While rejoicing at Florida
west of Bishop Hall.

For some, nothing interferes with Tea,

Not even this;

Who would let little things like moving from the Statler . . .

Crowded elevators,

Cluttered hallways,

Baggage

And friendly pets stop one from enjoying a Leon Bibb Concert,

Or leaving the Lecture Hall
for Constructionville?

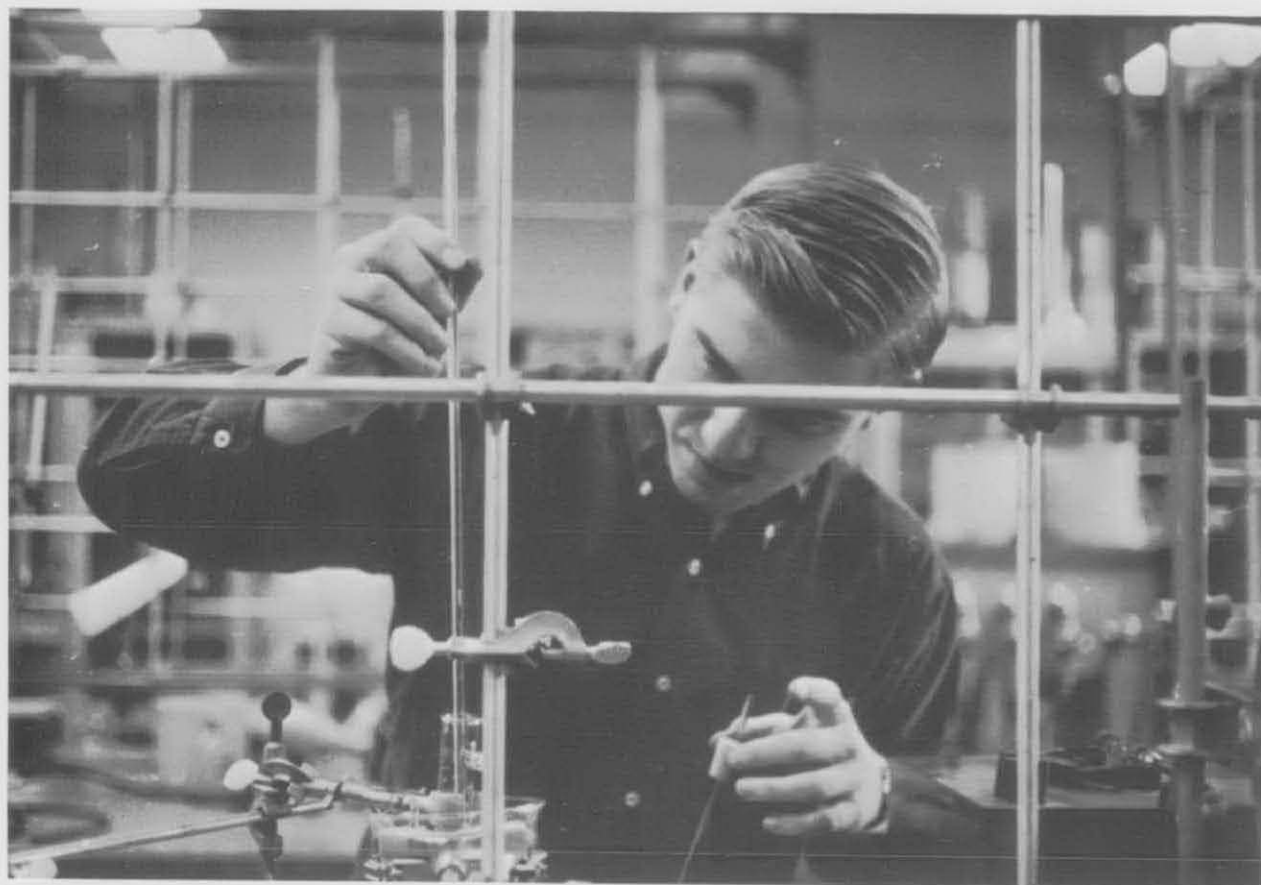

And then there
is pottery,

Lest we forget, a school is a building, but people make, and are made within, that building.

CLUBS AND ORGANIZATIONS

C.

The Council for Exceptional Children's main purpose is for the education and welfare of exceptional children. Through the council, future teachers are kept informed of the present techniques and methods in special education. Members receive an official journal every month which touches on all areas of teaching. C.E.C. is also responsible for social services dealing with exceptional children. Dances, parties, field trips, seminars and personalized volunteer programs are sponsored so that our members may truly understand and enjoy working and playing with these special children.

S.E.A.N.Y.S.

The Student Education Association of New York State is an educational organization affiliated with the National Education Association and with the New York Teacher's Association. It is designed for those students who want to become better-than-average teachers, keeping up to date with "all the latest developments" in education. SEANYS is open to any student who is interested in learning about "Professionalism". He may benefit from the publications of the NEA and the NYSTA, from lectures, films and special programs planned to make better future teachers.

The single purpose of the Social Studies Club is to inform the students on the primary issues arising in the Social Studies field. The varied interests include history, economics, political science and sociology. Our club explores these realms in the past, present and future. The methods used include lectures, discussions and excursions. It is the firm belief of the Social Studies Club that every student has the right to know the truth, or hear the different sides of an issue, and then use these facts to make up his own mind.

SOCIAL STUDIES

MATH CLUB

Math Club presents a forum for an exchange of ideas amongst its members. Two annual events, a High School Math Forum and a High School Math Contest, highlight the club's yearly activities. Their monthly programs of guest speakers and other activities round out the year.

KAPPA DELTA PI

Kappa Delta Pi, Gamma Mu Chapter, is an honor society in education. Its purpose is to encourage high professional, intellectual and personal standards and to recognize outstanding contributions to education. Members must be of junior standing with six hours of credit in education courses and be in the upper quartile of the college. In addition, they must show exceptional interest in education and manifest desirable personal traits.

EPSILON PI TAU

Our Tau chapter of Epsilon Pi Tau, the international professional honor fraternity for industrial arts and industrial-vocational education, encourages high professional, intellectual and personal standards among its members. Membership is limited to those juniors who have achieved a high academic standing.

WESLEY FOUNDATION

The Wesley Foundation is to provide a group in which the individual finds himself, others and God. It does this by developing the personal religious life of its members, promoting Christian fellowship on the campus, providing opportunities for Christian service, developing leadership, and building a Christian world fellowship.

INTER-VARSITY CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP

Through faith and social activities Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship promotes a fellowship and Christian witness on campus. The club is inter-denominational and all interested students are welcome.

Through a mutual interest in the French language, the members of Le Cercle Francais study French culture and literature.

ALPHA SIGMA PI

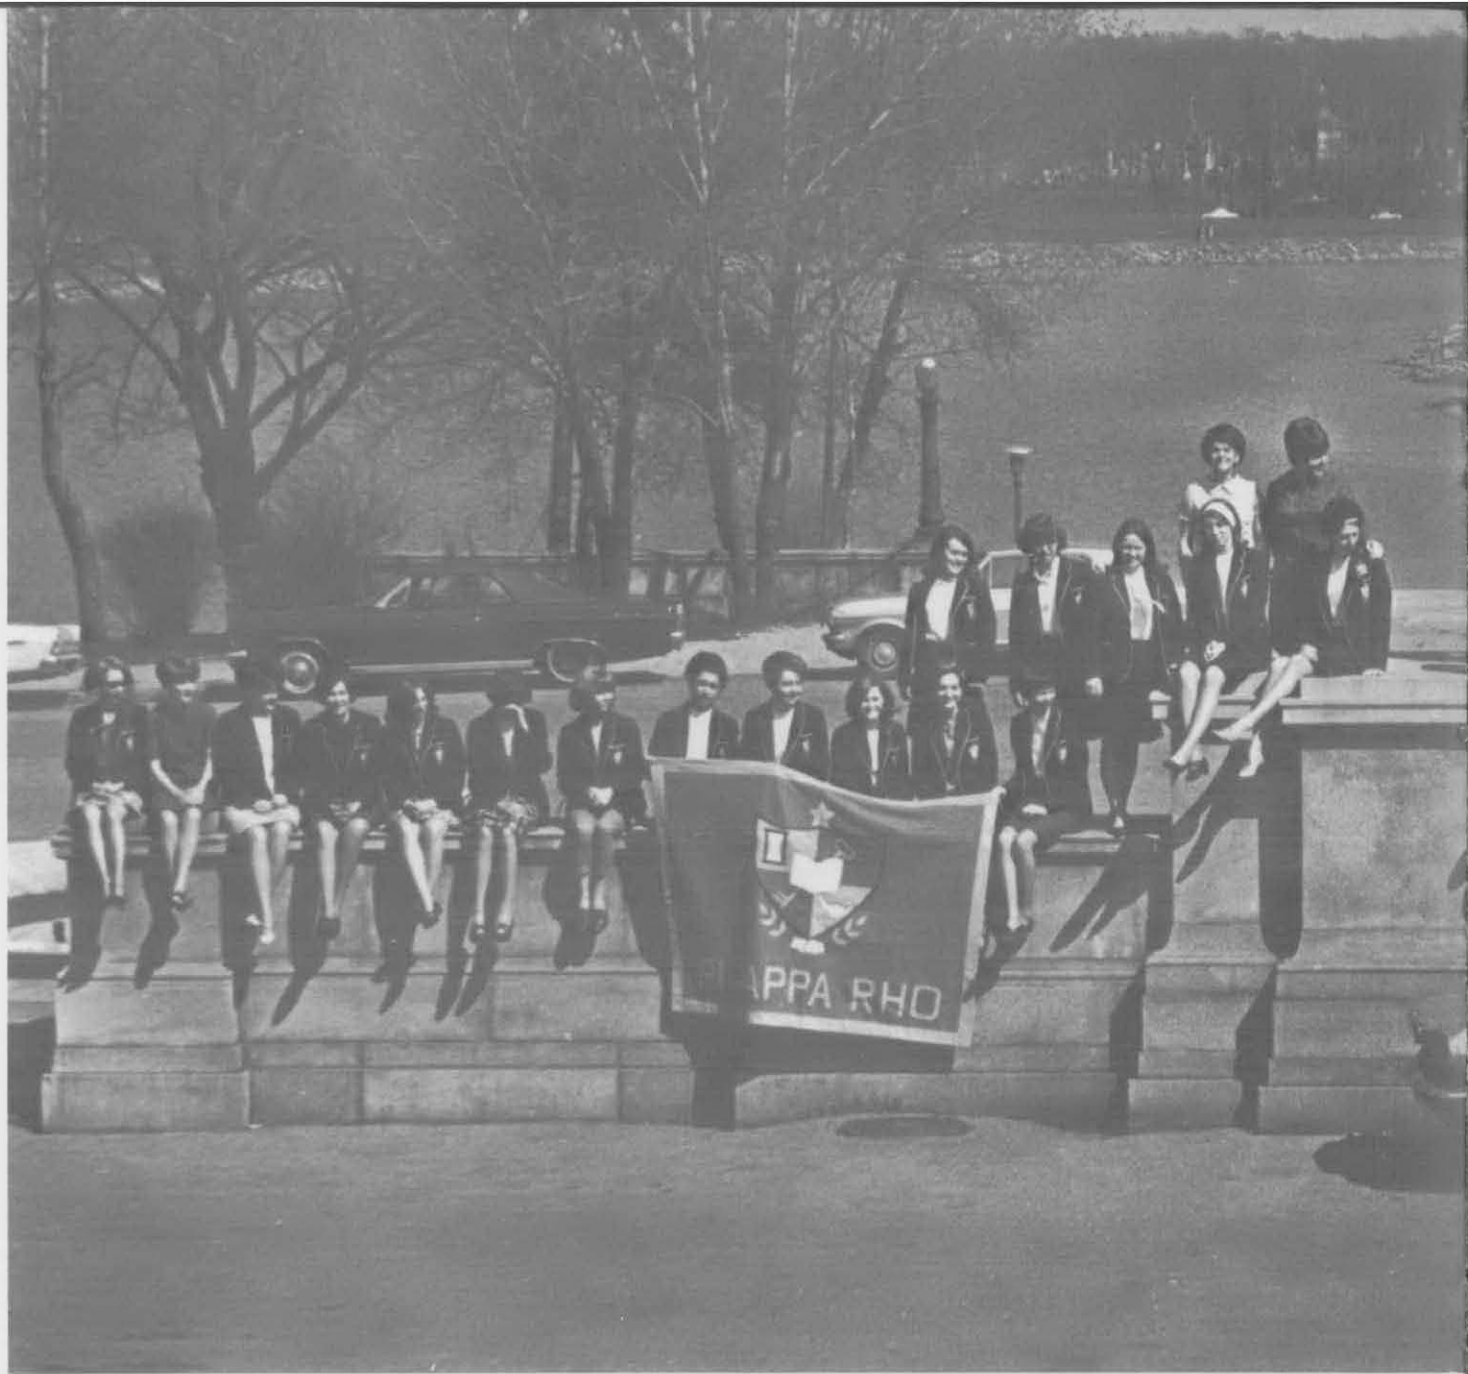

"All American Girl" is not only one of Alpha Sig's favorite songs but also an ideal which each sister tries to achieve. The enthusiastic girls in red participate in a wide variety of activities on campus. These run the gamut from attending sports events to presenting an annual aqua show at State Fair. The sisters also participate in service projects such as Thanksgiving Baskets and caroling at the State Hospital. By working together our sisterhood grows not only with fun and laughter but with sincerity and understanding. A red blazer will always greet you with a smile and a friendly hello. In all their endeavors, the Alpha Sigs try to live up to their motto, "Aspire, Seek and Progress."

PI KAPPA RHO

The ideals of Pi Kappa Rho, social service, sisterhood, and companionship, are achieved through the sorority's many services and activities. Their services include the Eye Bank and the Christmas Sing at the State Hospital. Pi Kap participates in many social as well as campus activities. The girls in blue and gold are known as a group that works together to reach common goals.

The sisters of the Green and Gold show an active interest in school affairs. During the Christmas season we hold our annual Corsage Sale and contribute gifts to the patients of the State Hospital. Fun is the key word when it comes to presenting our skit for the student body at Sigma Tau Rho's Cof-a-riety.

The Lion's Roar dance is held during the spring semester. Greek week follows with the traditional Greek sing and of course Greek Ball. In May we hold our Dinner Dance which is our favorite occasion. We all enjoy working on our float for Moving Up Day and summing up the school year with Cottage Week.

There is always lots of fun and plenty of excitement for the sisters of Alpha Tau. All these events are in keeping with the tradition of our sorority—Always True Sisters.

PI OMEGA NU

These sisters in brown and beige can always be found encouraging social service, leadership and maintaining sorority life on campus. These active girls not only sponsor numerous campus events, such as the Blood Bank, but also add their support to other organizational functions. The annual Veteran's Hospital Variety Show is enthusiastically co-sponsored with the State Spartans. Pi O's most recent project is the adoption of an orphan child in the poverty-stricken Appalachian area.

THETA SIGMA THETA

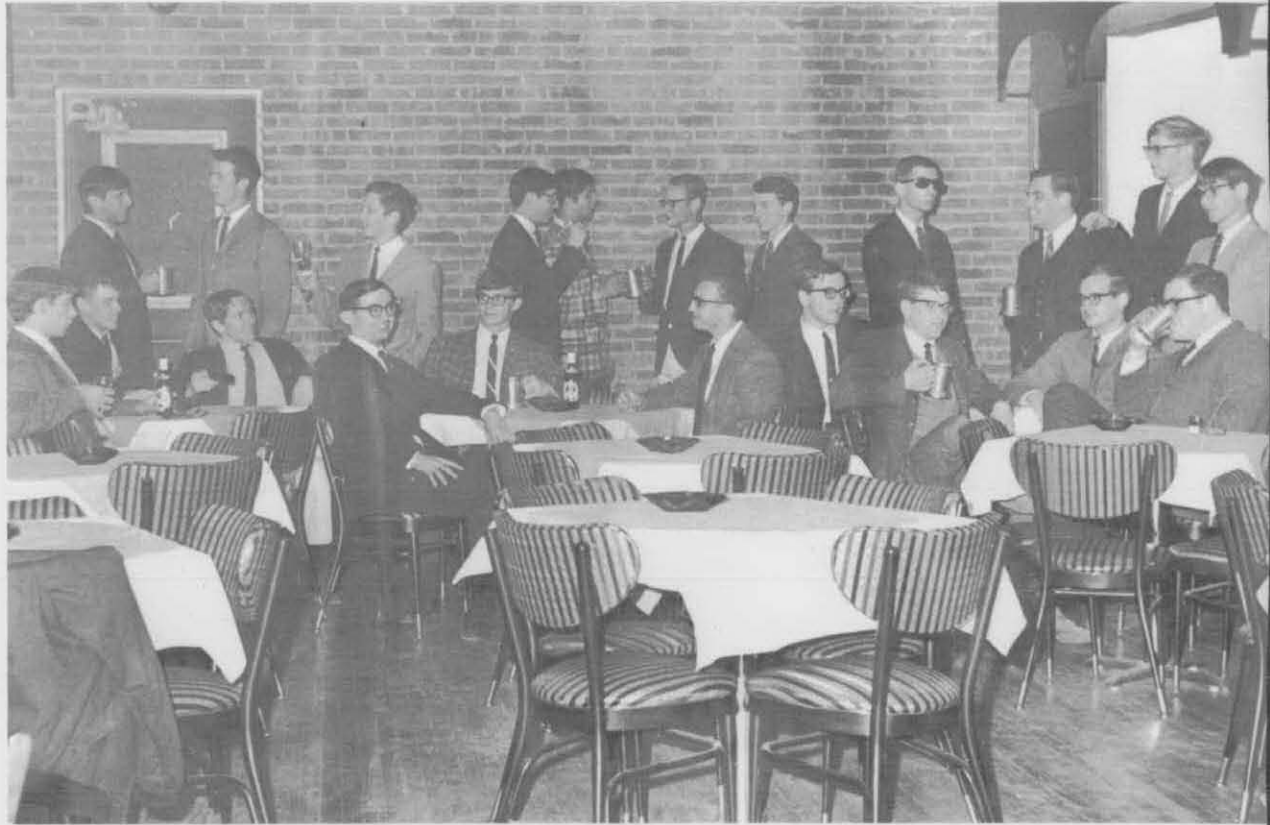

Although they are the newcomers the girls of Theta Sigma Theta have accomplished much for their first year. Their Easter Seal Sale was extremely successful. They were awarded Honorable Mention at Greek Sing and their M.U.D. float, Lady and the Tramp, was loved by everyone. Next year holds even more promise for the girls in burgundy and silver.

One of the most active groups on campus is Sigma Tau Rho. The fraternity established and maintains several traditions on campus including Cof-a-reity the Pumpkin Kicker and the White Elephant Sale. One of the most awaited and best attended events is Sig Tau's White Rose Dance. This year's White Rose Queen was Elaine Nagel of Pi Kappa Rho.

Sig Tau White Rose Dance to Be Held Friday

The Brotherhood of Sigma Tau Rho fraternity is proud to present to the campus community our 37th annual White Rose Dance. This year, the semi-formal occasion is to be held at the beautiful Parkway Inn in Niagara Falls on Friday, Dec. 9.

Dancing will be to the music of David Cheskin and his orchestra from nine to one. Aside from the fabulous surroundings of the dance, the highlight of the evening will be the traditional crowning of next year's White Rose Queen. Our present Queen, Sue Huttenlocher, will crown one of six sorority candidates, who will have been elected by those in attendance.

William George, this year's White Rose chairman, will present the candidates and the Brothers for the formal crowning ceremony.

We are proud to present these girls, each representing her sorority as a hopeful candidate for White Rose Queen 1966-67:

Diane Piech from Alpha Sigma Pi; Shirley Emerling from Alpha Tau Sigma; Sue Paterno from Delta Sigma Upsilon; Elaine Nagel from Pi Kappa Rho; Claudette Kettell from Pi Omega Nu; and Carol Schulty from Sigma Sigma.

Come and vote for the candidate of your choice. Tickets for the dance can be obtained in the Union or from any Sig Tau Brother.

DELTA KAPPA

Delta Kappa Fraternity is the oldest Greek social organization on the campus. Though steeped in tradition, it is constantly moving forward setting a quickening pace.

Notable activities carried out by the men's fraternal organization were the two Dean Fritz Scholarships for deserving seniors, a variety show, Kappa Kapers, which used the contributions for charity—this fine show included the intrepid Delta Kappa Ballroonies—the Miss Varsity Contest, the production of the indispensable student directory, a hand in the Super Blast, the revival of the Chug-a-Mug, and of course, again the winning of the Moving Up Day trophy. PSI PHI

Mr. Jinx is burned in the fall and the hex on our sporting activities is broken thanks to Psi Phi. The lack of a fireplace this year didn't deter the fraternity from symbolically burning the Yule Log—one of our most beautiful traditions. The Gentleman's Fraternity promotes high standards of moral social and intellectual ideals.

GAMMA CHI

Gamma Chi Fraternity is one of the leading social fraternities on campus. The Brothers always believe in having a good time and enjoying the better things in life. The brothers can be recognized by just looking because they are the "Golden Boys" of the campus; by this we mean the striking colors of green and gold makes them stand out. So when you see one of the golden boys on campus you will know that Gamma Chi is your best bet for social life on campus. So remember Greek life can be golden with Gamma Chi.

The State Spartans, formerly the "Vet's Club", has come a long way since their founding. An organization designed to suit the social needs of the mature, well-rounded collegeman. The shield of a Spartan is worn by a man who is active in all aspects of college life, whether it be educational, athletic, or social.

Leading the calendar of events during the year are the annual Christmas Party, the spring picnic, as well as the October Fest, co-sponsored Shamrock Shenanigans and a do-good for Veterans' Hospital.

You can recognize the men in blue by their courteous attitude and friendly manner. They will always be looked upon as an asset to the student body and a credit to the college community.

DIVISIONS

CONTINUING EDUCATION AND SUMMER SESSIONS DIVISION

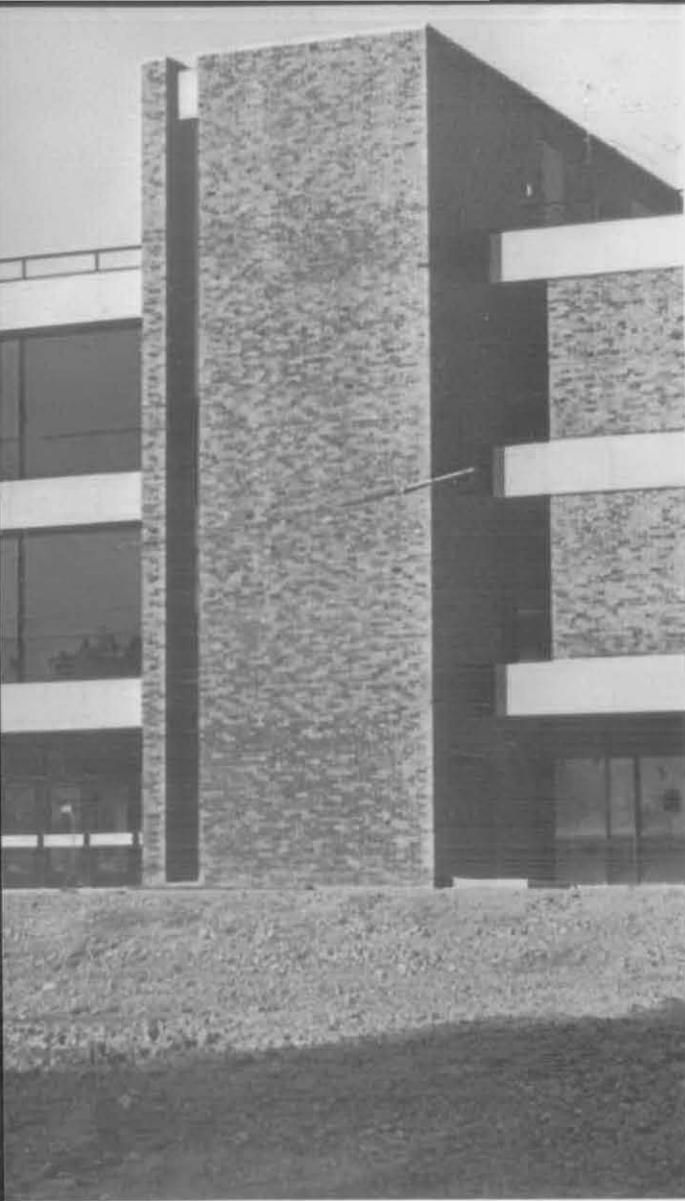

Concerned with extending the opportunities of higher education to the general public, the Division of Continuing Education offers a variety of courses through which adults may attain only the satisfaction of their own intellectual growth or go on to earn a bachelor's degree. The Continuing Education Division also informs the public of many community problems through the presentation of workshops, short courses, research and consultation services. To promote aesthetic and intellectual growth of the community, the college sponsors lectures, dramas, concerts, and special events.

The Summer Sessions Division offers over 350 courses during June, July and August for undergraduate students who wish to accelerate and for those graduates continuing their education. In 1967, nearly 4,000 students from other colleges as well as our own State College, took advantage of this opportunity.

EDUCATION DIVISION

Responsibility for the education of children requires that teachers have the best education our culture can offer. The curriculum offered to students in the elementary education division provides its graduates with abilities to meet the challenge of this responsibility. The course of study for the secondary education student emphasizes subject matter in math, art, science and social studies.

For the first time all students in the various divisions will be able to participate at the campus school on all levels of education from nursery to high school. The school provides education for children in this age range and opportunities for college students to observe and participate.

The new facilities at the Rees Street building far outshine the dark halls of Bacon. Each room has an observation room, enclosed project areas for student teachers to work in with small groups or special individuals, complete facilities for the Exceptional Education Division, a new library and gym.

The Campus School provides a unique opportunity and experience for all who attend it.

CAMPUS SCHOOL DIVISION

Exceptional Children Education Division

For the child who is handicapped, the largest problem in life is living as nearly normal a life as possible. With the assistance and guidance of specially trained teachers this exceptional child has a better chance to develop into a useful citizen.

The Exceptional Children Education Division trains people in the fields of physical handicap, mental retardation, education of the deaf, speech pathology and audiology, and emotional disturbance.

Many of the college's laboratory facilities are augmented by rich offerings in nearby hospitals and centers which provide practical experience in connection with the theoretical areas of the Division's Program.

EXCEPTIONAL EDUCATION DIVISION

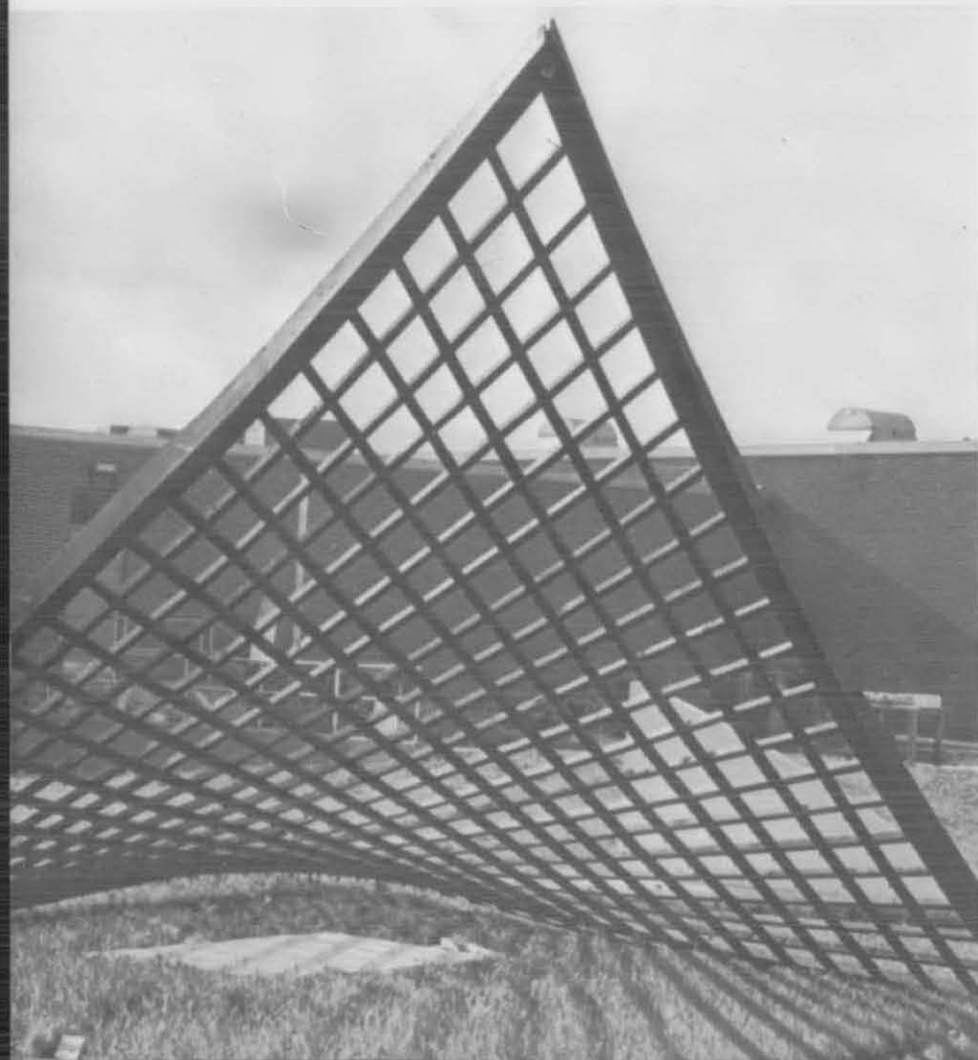

The Arts and Science Division is divided into three academic divisions: Arts and Humanities, Social Sciences, and Mathematics and Science. The Arts and Humanities include the Departments of English, Foreign Language, Health and Physical Education, Music, Philosophy, and Speech and Theater Arts. The Social Sciences include the Departments of History, Geography, Political Science-Economics, Psychology, and Sociology-Anthropology. The Mathematics and Science area includes the Departments of Biology, Chemistry, Geology, Mathematics, Physics and General Science.

A Bachelor of Arts degree is offered with majors in the various departments and is described in detail under the Liberal Arts Curriculum.

The Departments of English, Foreign Language, Mathematics, Science, and Social Studies provide content courses for programs of study under the Bachelor of Science of Education degree for the certification of secondary school teachers. These programs are listed under the Secondary Education Division.

In addition, all of the Arts and Sciences Departments offer a wide variety of elective courses which may be selected by students in all Divisions of the College.

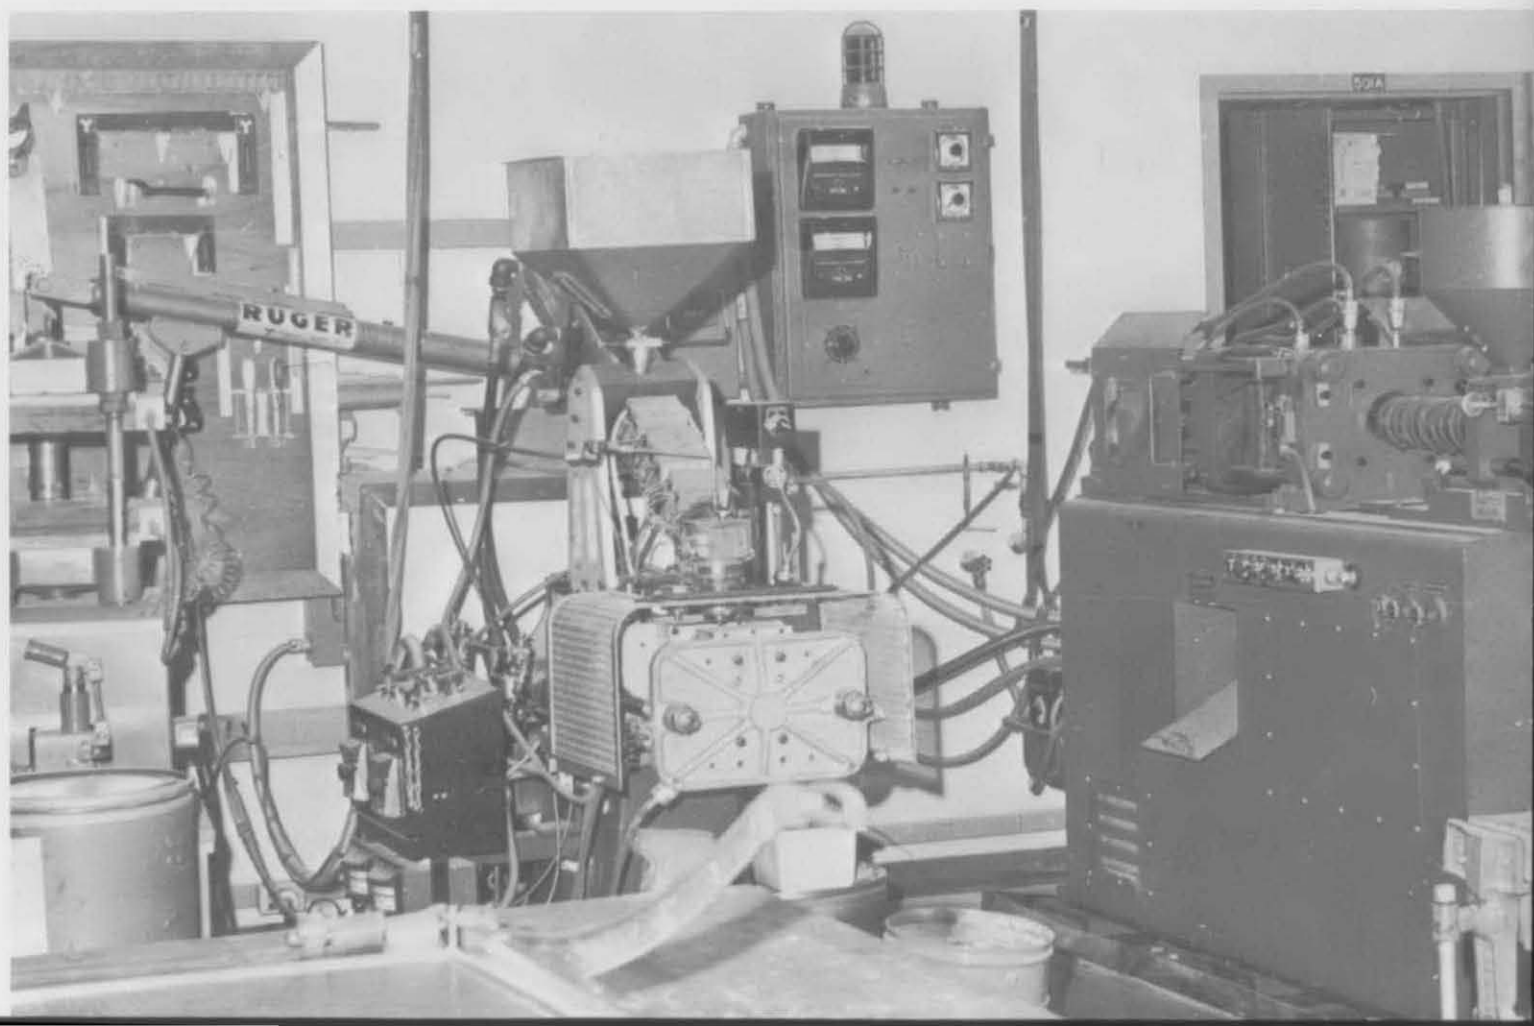

ARTS AND SCIENCE DIVISION

INDUSTRIAL ARTS EDUCATION DIVISION

The American society has been characterized as being "highly technological". The role of the Industrial Arts Education Division is to prepare teachers who are able to develop in youth an understanding of technology and its impact on their lives. Although the newer trends in science education stress the theoretical aspects of science, it is the application of scientific knowledge—the technology—that is rapidly changing the lives of everyone. Industrial Arts Education draws upon the technologies for its instructional content, and one of its main goals is directed toward developing technological literacy for all.

The Industrial Arts Education Division at Buffalo State is one of the largest and most widely recognized in the world. Its faculty and facilities are equaled at no other institution. Graduates of this program receive a Bachelor of Science degree. These teachers are in great demand in the state, the nation, and for foreign assignments.

ART EDUCATION DIVISION

The Art curriculum, for the preparation of teachers is the largest such program in the world. It develops expressive and creative powers, ability to teach and a knowledge of the use of art in many aspects of living. It includes a broad program of general studies and provides opportunity for individual specialization. Upton Hall, the home of the Art Education Division, contains specially designed equipment, a research library and extensive display facilities to enrich learning.

One of the fine offerings of the Art Education Division is the foreign study program in Siena, Italy, in which students experience another culture and live in the area where the Renaissance was born.

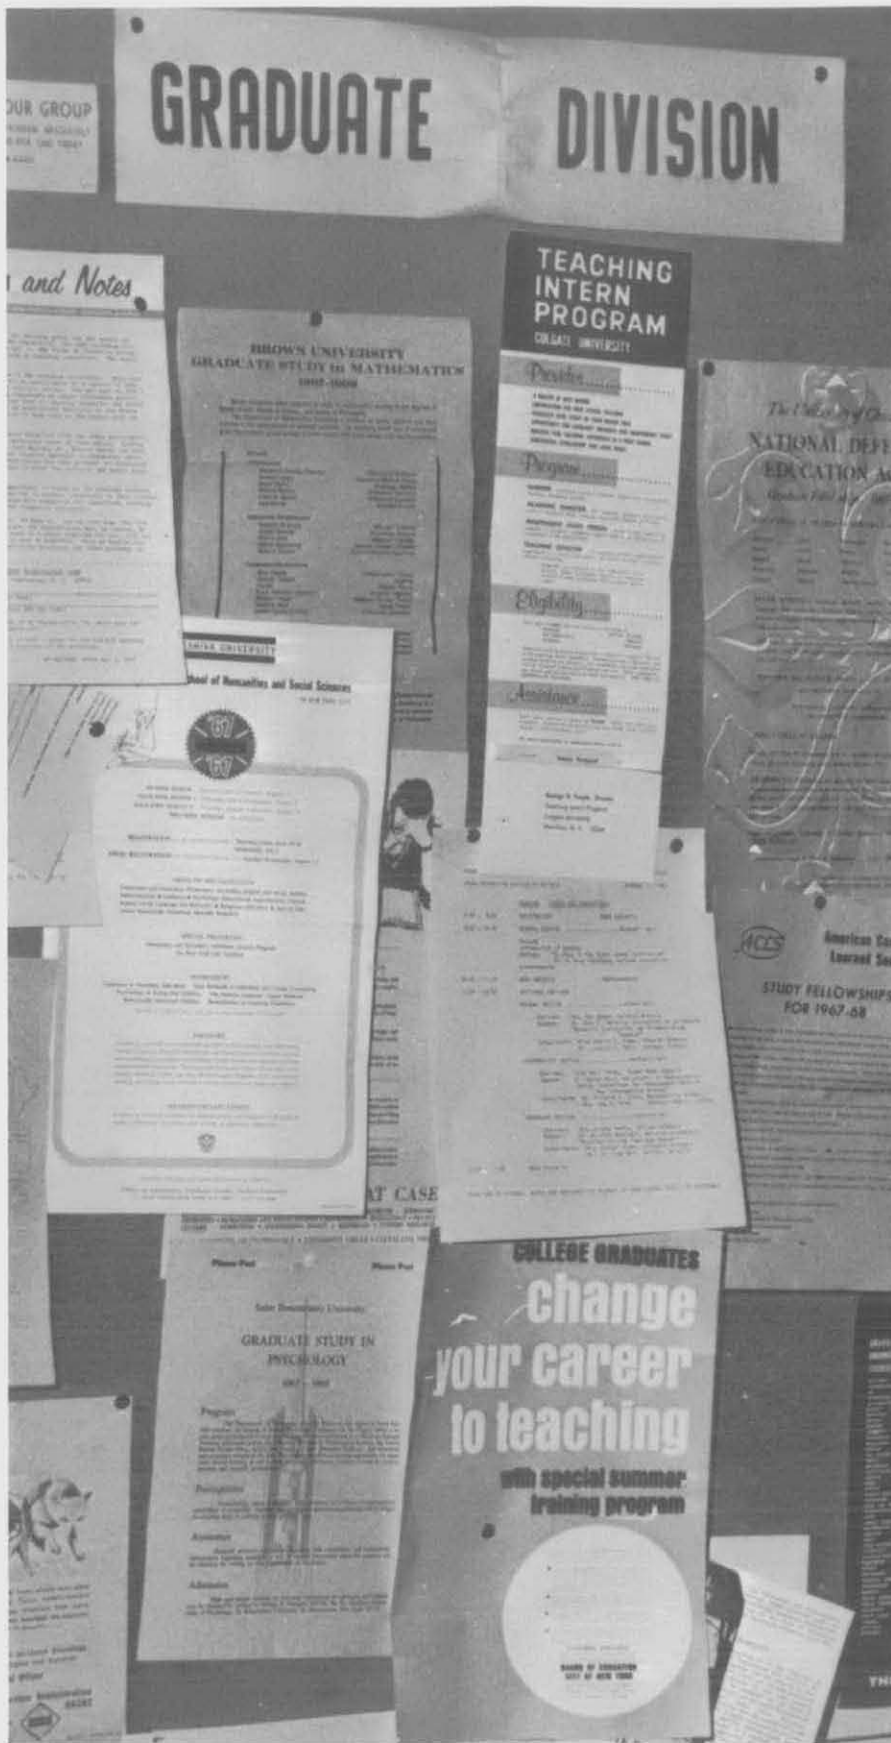

Career opportunities in Home Economics are so varied that the home economist may choose the area where she can best utilize her talents and interests to professionally serve society most effectively.

With this in mind, the Home Economics Division now offers non-teaching degrees in Dietetics, and in Home Economics with a concentration in Foods and Nutrition, Clothing and Textiles, or Family Life.

To climax four years of study for a Bachelor of Science Degree in Home Economics Education, the teacher-to-be spends five weeks at the college's Home Management House. Here she gains experience in the social and economic management of a home.

HOME ECONOMICS EDUCATION DIVISION

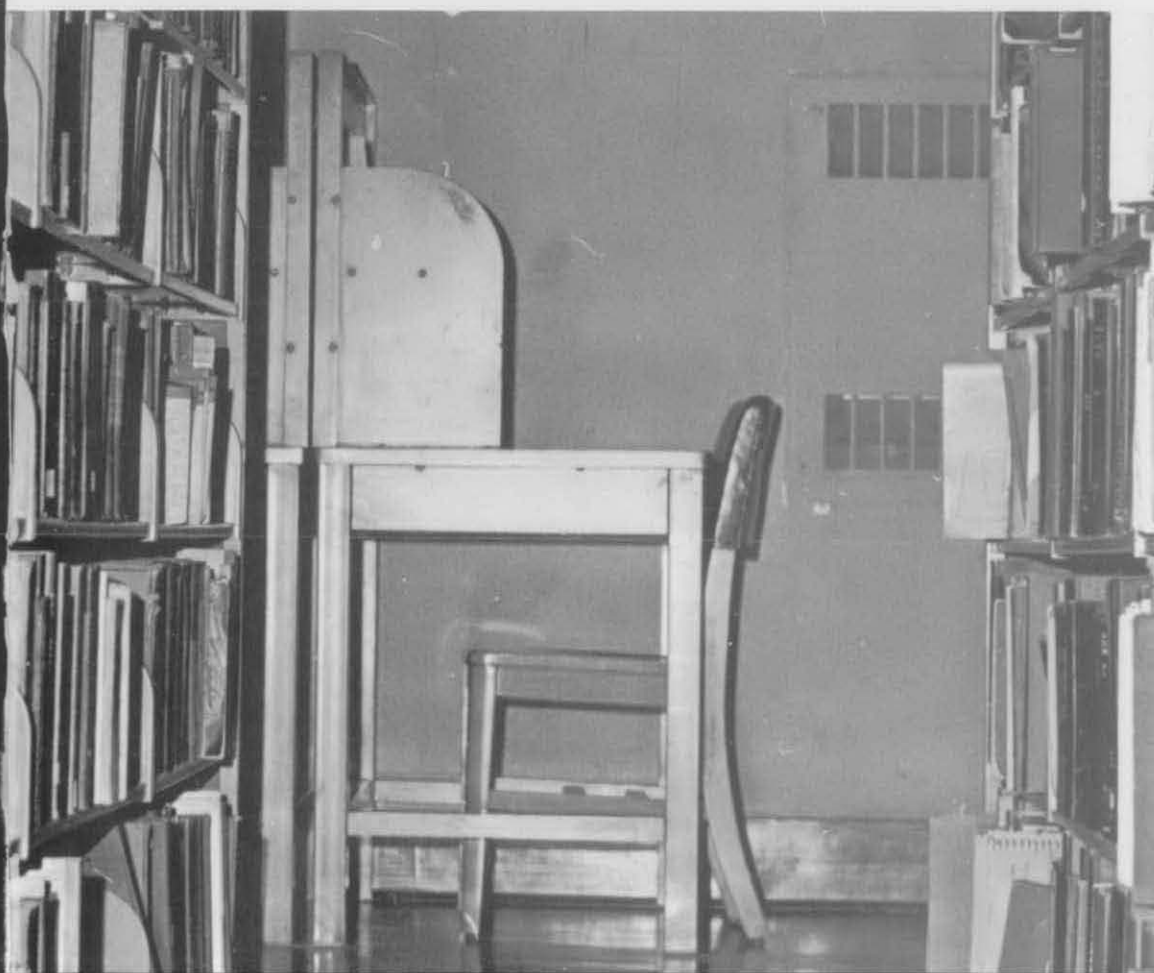

As the college expands so does the Graduate Division, which has become an even more important facet of our educational system since an increasing number of our students go directly into graduate study. A complete program of study is offered during the academic year as well as during summer sessions, leading to Master of Science degrees in every area in which the college offers Bachelor of Science degrees. A Master's degree in Elementary Administration is also awarded.

The Graduate Division invites all upper classmen intending to pursue graduate studies to stop in and discuss the possibilities of a graduate program.

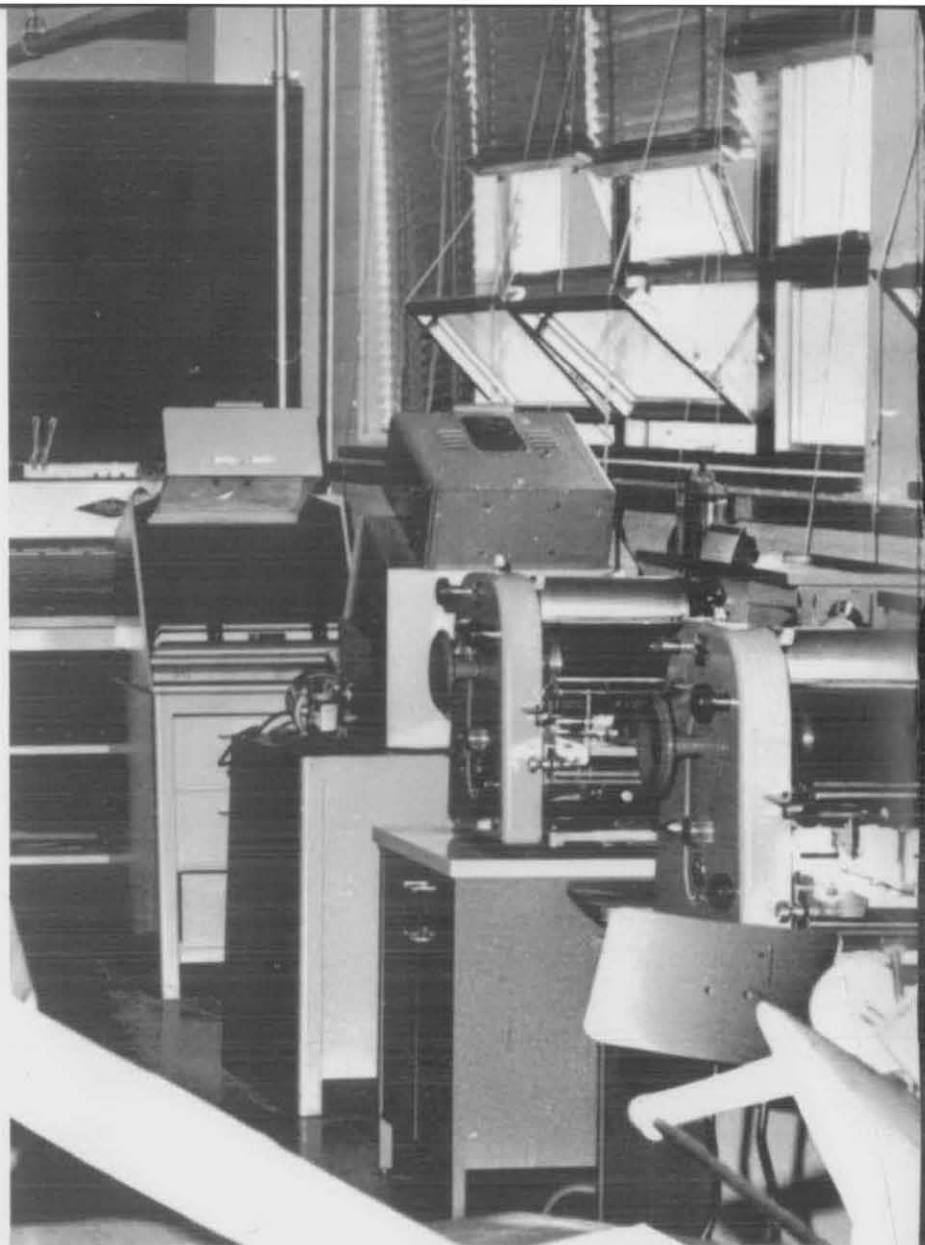

GRADUATE DIVISION

LIBERAL ARTS

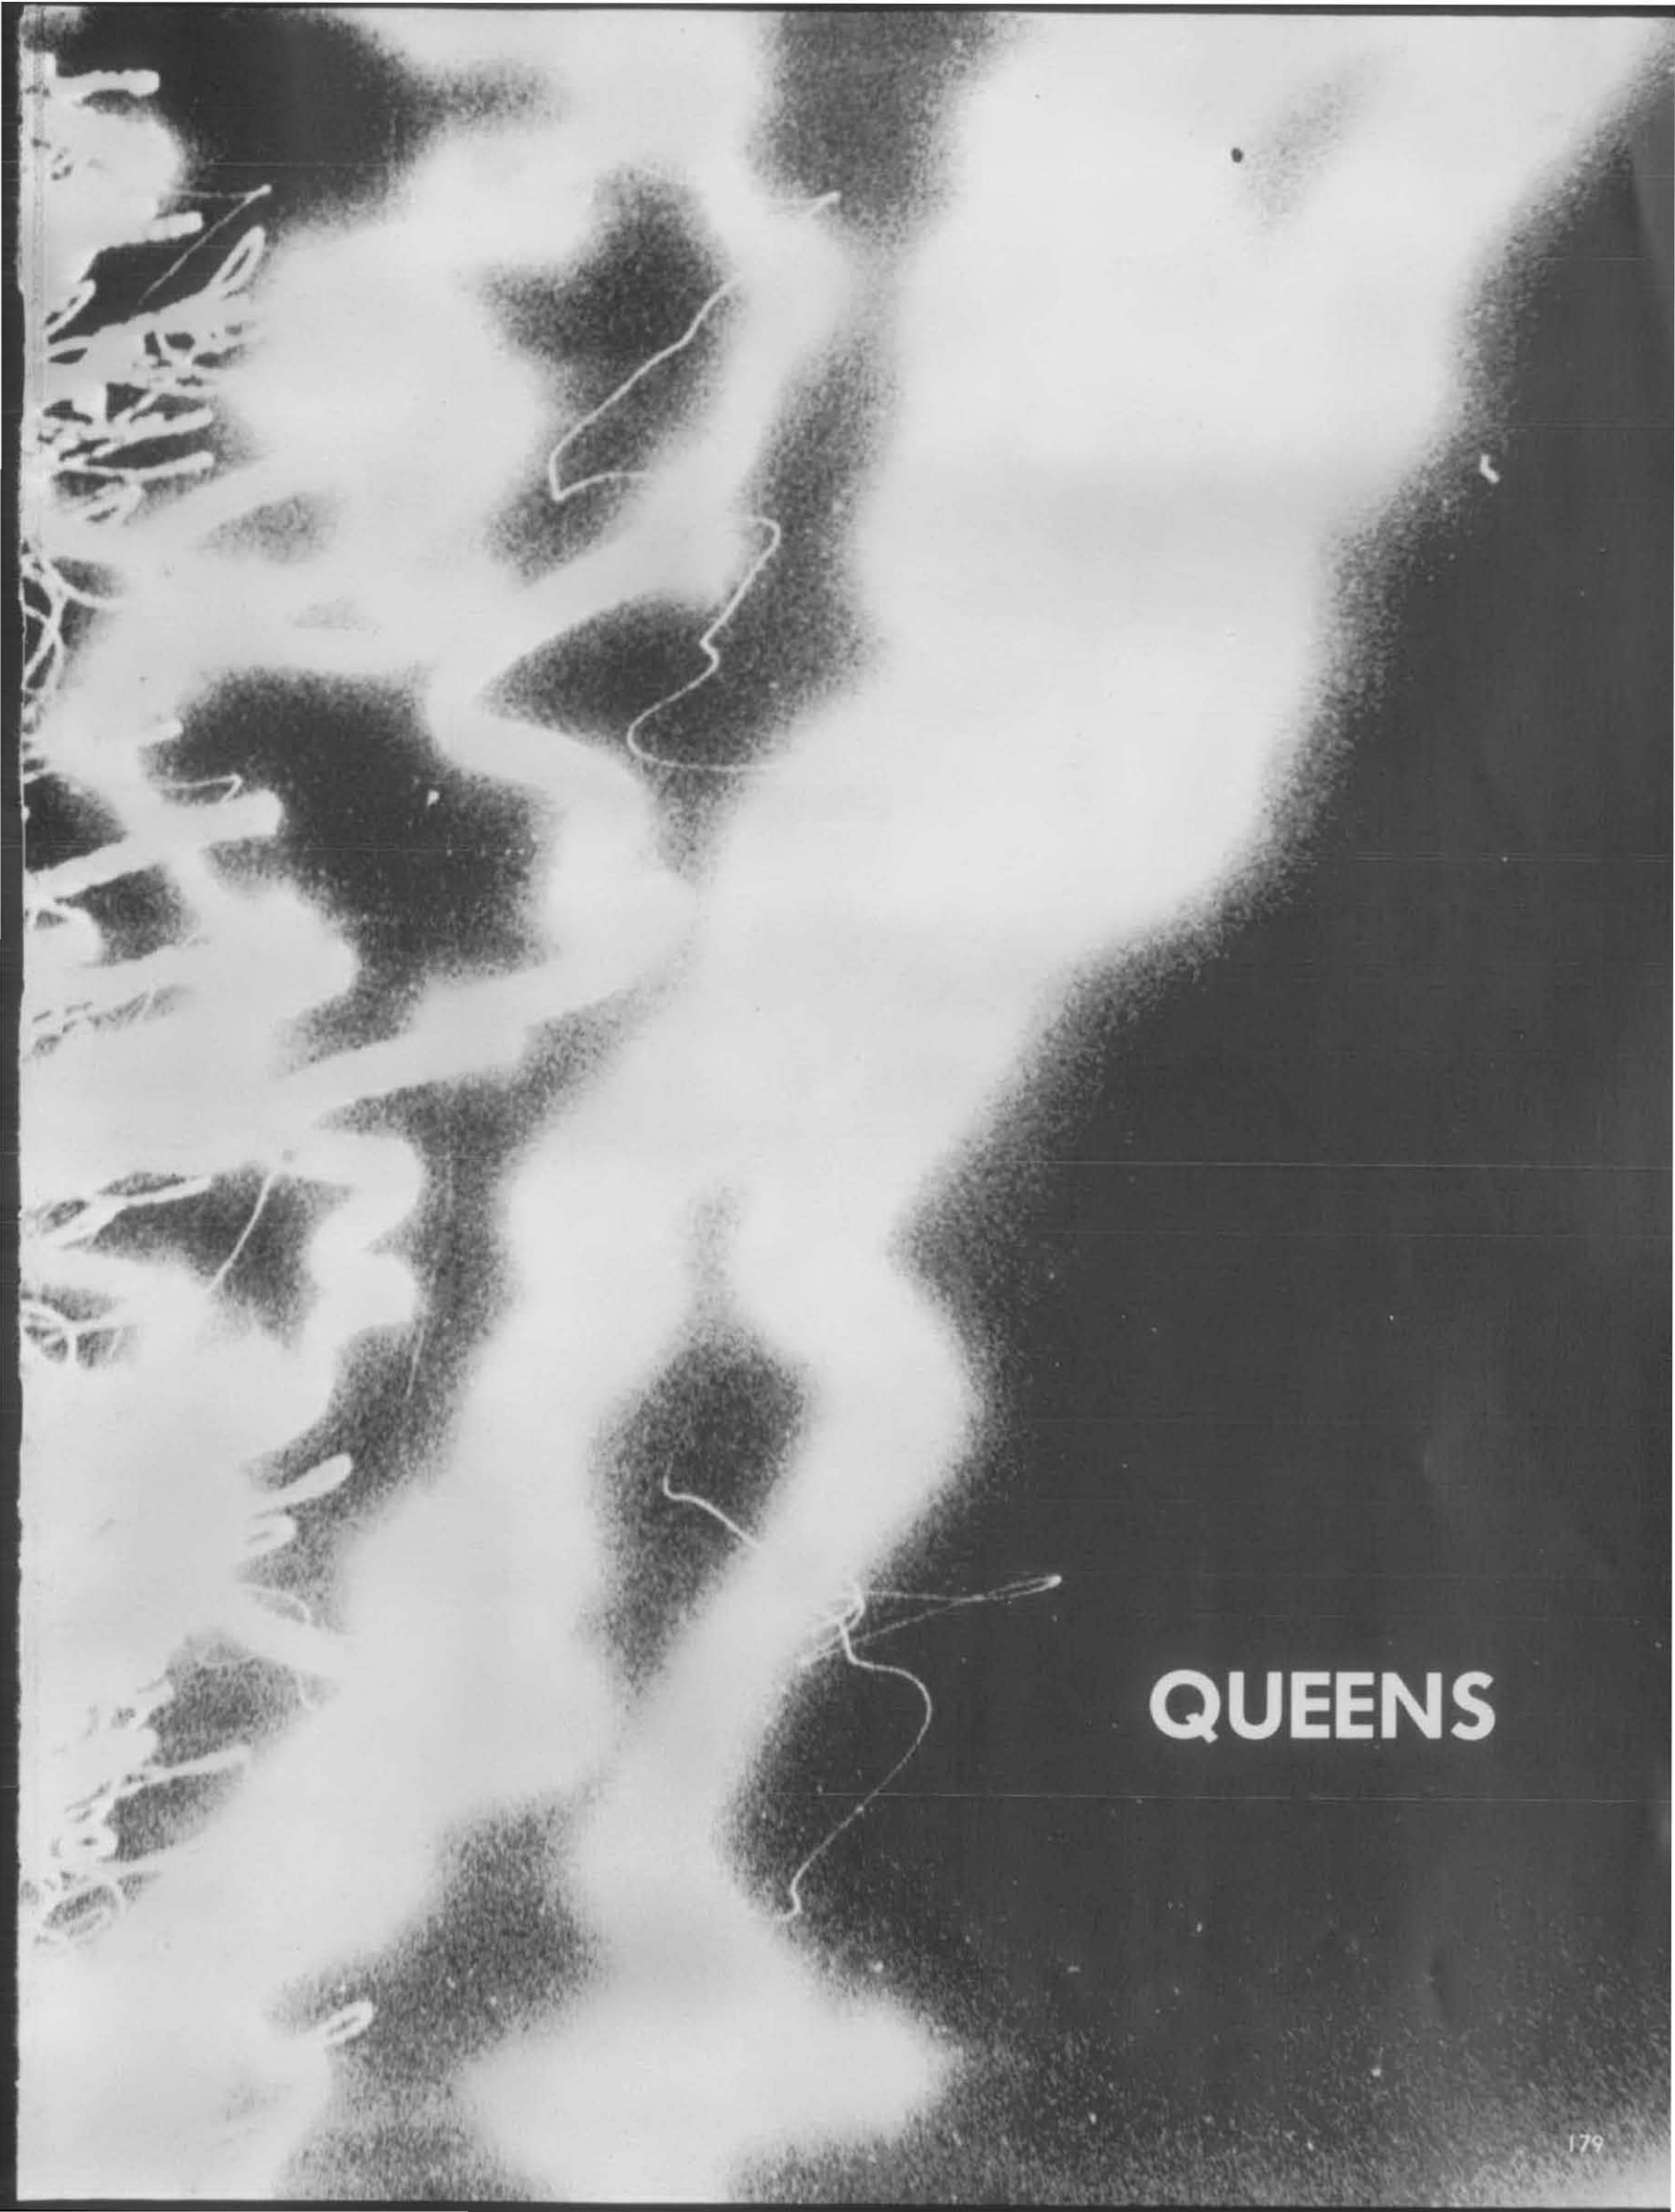

For those who do not want a Bachelor of Science degree the college offers an art program leading to a B.A. degree. With a major field of studies the student also studies the humanities, arts, social studies and mathematics-science. This program prepares the student for graduate work in journalism, law, medicine or any other profession.

VOCATIONAL- TECHNICAL EDUCATION DIVISION

The Vocational-Technical Education Division prepares its students for the training of vocational and industrial skills in the public school system. Selection for the program is based on proficiency of trade and technical skills and personal qualifications. Graduates receive a Bachelor of Science Degree and are eligible for certification.

THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION
INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS

This year the 10th Annual N.A.I.A. National Swim Championships were held at Buffalo State on March 16th, 17th, 18th.

Claremont Harvey—Mudd of California won the overall meet championships.

By HARRY SPECTOR

"We could never have done it without Gwobby."

Those were the words of Robin Durnin, of Claremont, California. Robin, a sprinter on the Claremont-Mudd swimming team, was describing what he and the other members of the "Stags" swim club feel was one of the more important contributing factors in their win.

We asked Robin to elaborate on Gwobby and to explain just what he is. "Gwobby is a little blue doll and he's been our mascot for two years. He represents team spirit. We all believe in him."

"Gwobby," Robin continued, "actually represents a little boy the team respects and admires. Gwobby is physically handicapped; he also has a vocal defect and pronounces his name, which is Robbie, as Gwobby."

"Gwobby lives in Palace Verdes, California, and he has a great drive and go . . . and courage. To us he is a symbol of self-discipline, a symbol of achievement due to hard work."

The doll Gwobby goes with Claremont to all their meets. He was on the block when Claremont swimmers were in the finals.

The men of Claremont respect Gwobby and what he represents. Claremont did not have the largest team in the meet (Macalester with 20 swimmers did) but they certainly had one of the most determined. They have a symbol, a standard of excellence to live up to.

This is what sports and sportsmanship are all about. There is a standard of excellence which all sportsmen should set as their ideal. All athletes strive for physical perfection; the great athlete goes further. The great athlete, while striving for perfection, still realizes, and takes into account, his own human frailties and the frailties of others. No matter how much we strive for perfection, it is always a grasp beyond us.

The greatness of Claremont's team is not only in their swimming. In a larger sense, it lies with their humility, their respect for themselves and for others, and with their love for a kid from Palace Verdes, California . . . a kid they affectionately . . .

Scajaquada Towers residents were freshmen and sophomore women. Although there were some inconveniences moving into a new dorm that was barely finished in time for its residents to move in, the girls of Towers adapted quite well to the situation. They managed to organize a party and open house every weekend. They also put up with the noise of a new tower dorm going up right next door.

SCAJAQUADA EAST & WEST

After a rather long wait, the junior and senior women who were living in the Statler Hotel moved into the newest dorm on campus, Scajaquada Low Rise, or East and West. Some enjoyed their stay in the Statler. Others could not wait to get back to campus. Moving day was one which many will not forget for some time. I.R.H.A. has representatives from each of the resident halls. They coordinate activities to make the stay of our non-resident students a happy one.

STUDENT TEACHING

... At an f.s.a. board meeting students met with representatives of the faculty, administration and f.s.a. It wasn't smooth sailing but some new ideas were explored—and some old grievances expressed—the questions of prices was discussed.

Dr. Bulger met with members of the student body to openly discuss the food problem and proposed price increases.

The students asked for the reasons why prices should need increasing and why they couldn't have a no-meal plan.

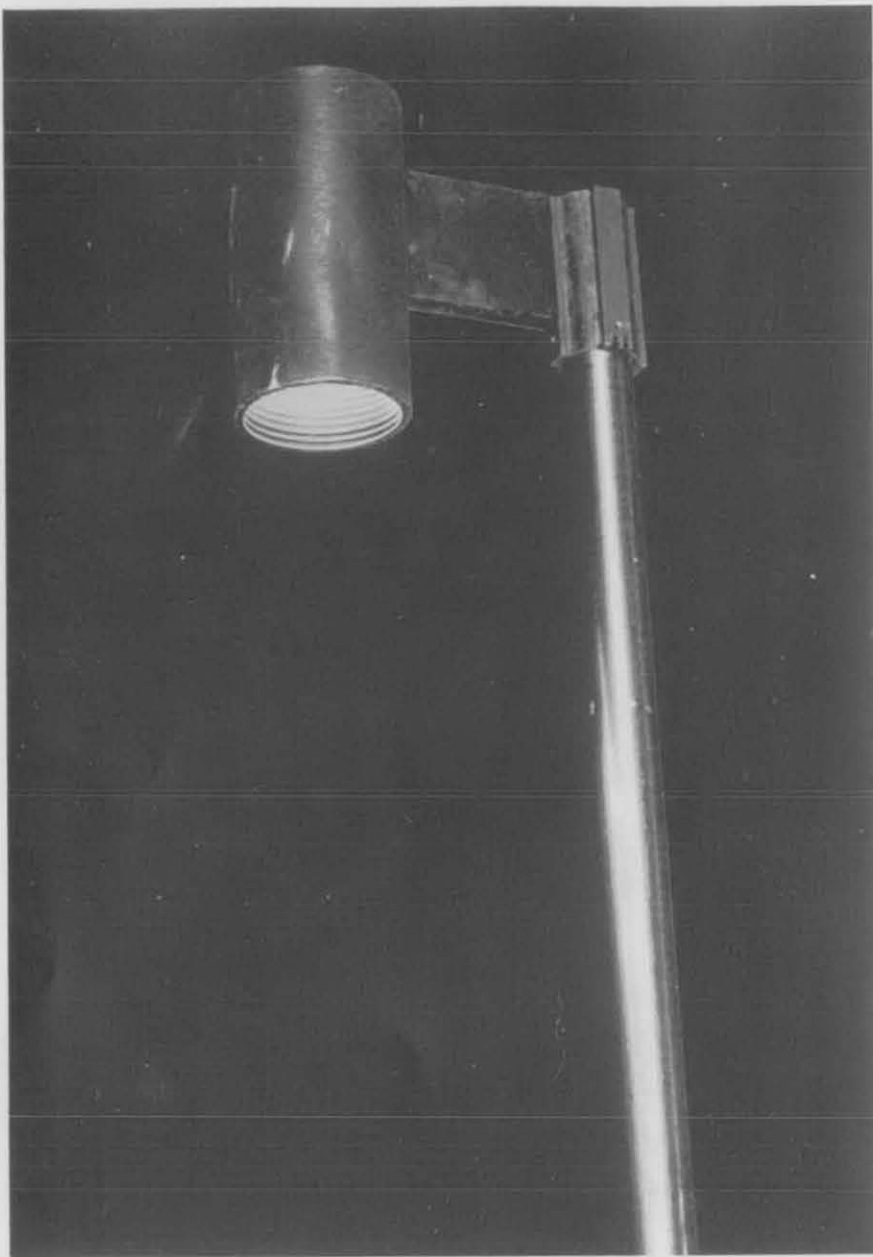

Of course Mr. Baker was there:
 along with his able assistant—
 Mr. Johnson; and completing the triumvirate was Mr. Cannamella.

(Editor's note: Mr. Baker?—The starry-eyed master of business
 Mr. Johnson—"middle"—Thinks no evil—prays
 Mr. C.—Well . . . ?)

But if the price war was delayed, the food quality never improved—results —pickets, a day-long boycott and an impromptu confrontation.

Among the newer items to appear at State this year were Mr. Baker's lights and Eascott Productions.

Mr. Baker did not order those spot -(and we do mean one spot) lights and wants to get rid of them. Good bye!

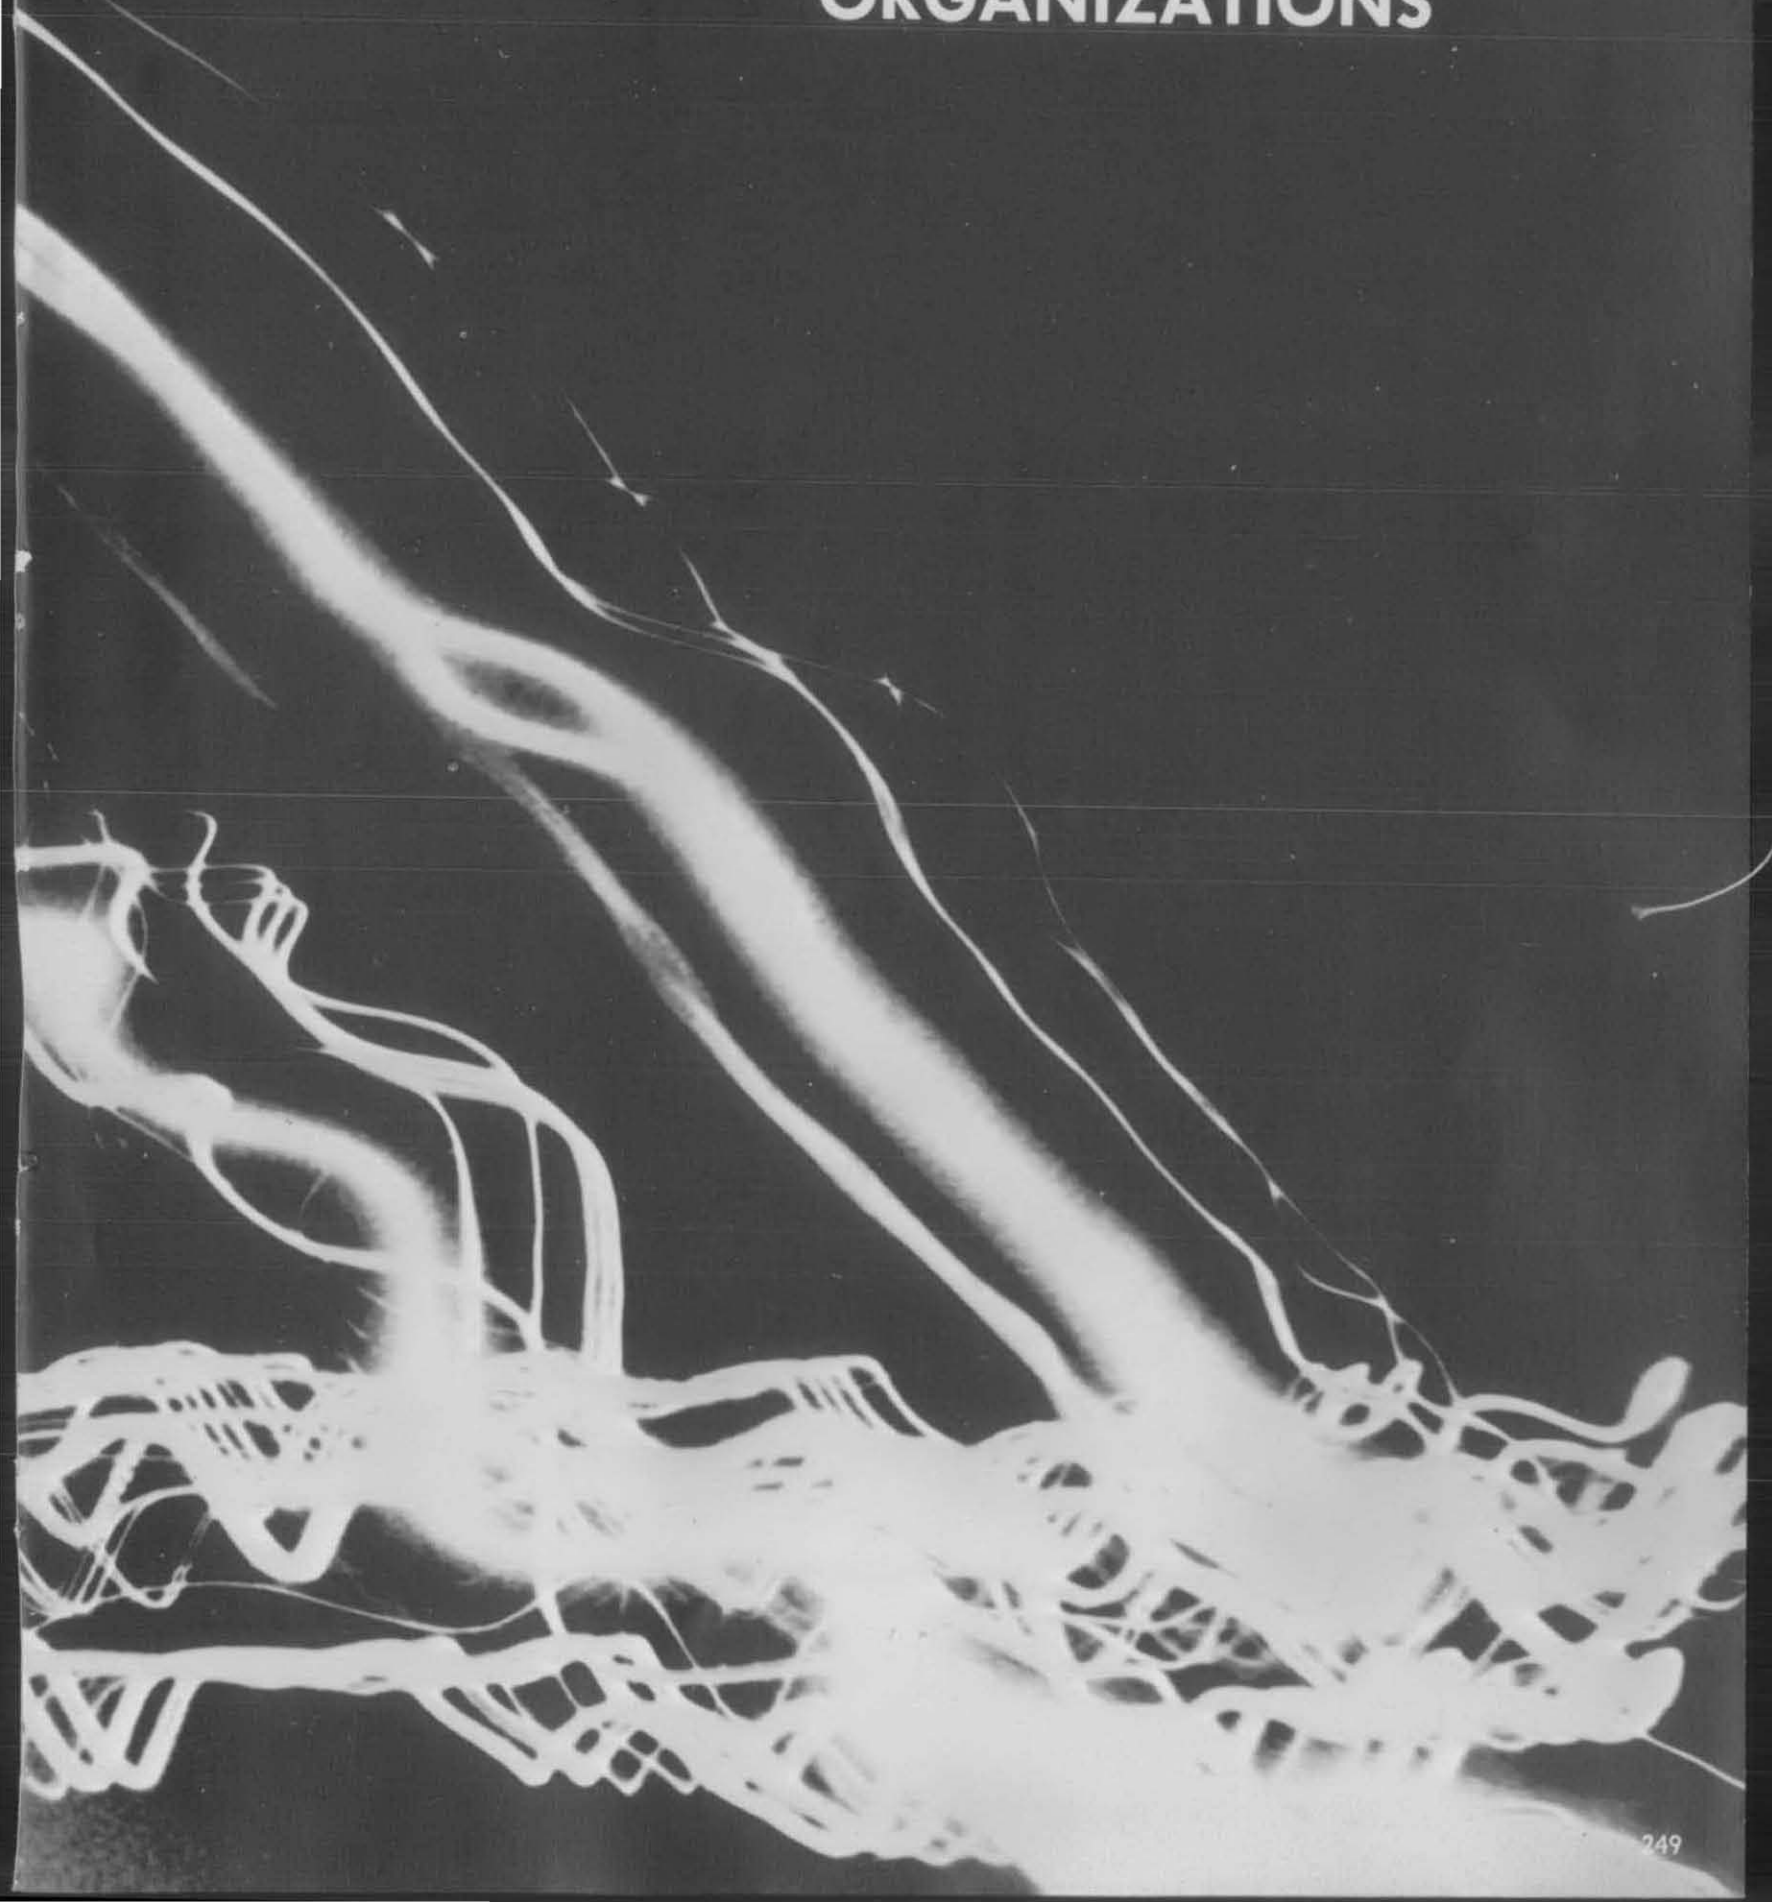

Eascott Productions? Let's see them again because one play should never make or break a producer.

CSA

GOVERNMENT AND ORGANIZATIONS

TRADITIONS COMMISSION

This Year Emphasis Week was entitled Evolution of Jazz (and we almost had Al Hirt). Holiday Week, including Holly Hanging, even made a splash in the local papers. Music was supplied by Inter-Class Sing; culture provided during Spring Arts Festival; we even drink to the brain power of the college at the Dean's Tea. This year Moving Up Day aimed at the theme of Walt Disney.

Despite all these institutionalized traditions, an incoming Frosh can still count on a friendly smile and a helping hand.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

This year the House of Representatives of the College Student Association has informed the student body of its great strides—to the student's advantage—in faculty-student-administration politics.

They have made plans to revamp the C.S.A. constitution and in the future to involve more of the students in their own activities.

HOUSE OF FINANCE

The House of Finance controls the monetary existence of the various boards and organizations on campus. The proper use of the various monies is a large, never ending task, and debate, such as the following comments show, rages on and on at every meeting.

"Every Wednesday we play 'House of Finance' and try to break the bank."

"We can't pass GO—we're still taking chances."

"Don't we have a Community Chest?"

"Who's Al Hirt?"

"I landed on Boardwalk."
"Which Board?"

(Members of the House of Representatives scolding House of Finance for a profitable idea) "Go directly to jail, do not pass GO, do not save $200."

"Hey! anybody know what a tax is?
... luxury, that is?"

"Since when is a convocation a luxury?"

The Judicial Council hears cases involving individuals and organizations of the College Student Association. Its decisions affect the constitutionality of legislation brought before the council. “What do you mean the basement of Hi-Rise is reserved for faculty?”

The most difficult job on campus is finding adequate parking facilities for the thousands of cars that inundate the campus daily. The future promises parking ramps and more space but for now the tickets keep appearing on the windshields of student automobiles.

COLLEGE UNION BOARD

President—Linda Nehf
Vice-President—John Lyon
Recording Secretary—Sandy Clark
Corresponding Secretary—Linda Widdowfield
Treasurer—Carol Lazoration
Historian—Reggie Rattig
Sergeant-at-Arms—Sharon Strickler

All work and no play (or at least relaxation) would make college intolerable. Through a program of social, cultural and recreational activities CUB provides the necessary diversions from study needed by all college students. Among the board's many functions is the planning and execution of Home Coming, Winter Week-End, movies and various other activities.

This year C.U.B. also took on the prodigious task of sponsoring Emphasis Week.

Debbie Harrishberg . . .

Known as the Poster Committee to those of the publications offices—as Debbie was the only person on the “supposed” committee for poster-slinger approval.

ATHLETIC BOARD

The officers of Men's Athletic Association, Women's Recreation Association and representatives from each class comprise the members of the Athletic Board. The board controls the entire program of inter-collegiate athletic events and intra-mural sports on campus. With the gradual growth of interest in athletics, this board will grow to meet the needs.

CASTING HALL

Through the productions of Casting Hall the tradition of theater flourishes on our campus. This year's theatrical fare included samplings from the ancient Greek theater to a nightmarish and possible future.

It is with regret that we say goodbye to Mr. Cook. We all enjoyed working with him. Casting Hall is losing an energetic worker and a fine friend. He will be replaced and next year . . . well, the show must go on. Casting Hall, break a leg.

FORENSICS BOARD

The newly formed Forensics Board, formerly the Debate Board, is an organization of the College Student Association open to all students interested in the development of forensic skills. The activities of the board begin with a workshop, followed by several invitational tournaments. The final event is a mock legislature in the government chambers in Albany.

Sam Drago, Cindy Gleason, Judy Thieroff, Rod Harter.

MUSIC BOARD

One of the largest organizations on campus, the Music Board membership consists of representatives from each of the musical organizations. It is the duty of the Board to successfully coordinate the musical programs with other campus activities.

A CAPPELLA CHOIR

Whether at home or on tour, the A Cappella Choir has the ability to entrance their audience. Under the able direction of Dr. Silas Boyd, the choir performs beautifully in the Christmas and Spring Concerts. We can be justly proud of this group which has done much to foster a greater interest in music.

CHAMBER SINGERS

Formerly known as the Madrigal Singers, this name was changed to allow the group to sing a variety of melodies such as contemporary or folk songs. Under the spirited leadership of Olaf Malin, they perform in the Christmas and Spring concerts as well as with the A Cappella Choir on tour.

BAND

The sound of any band is apt to stir the soul of the listener, but the sound of our own State College Band also evokes a great sense of pride in the group. Directed this year by William Champion, they marched in the Moving-Up Day Parade as well as performing at other functions.

STRING ENSEMBLE

Accompanied by Mrs. Annas and directed by Mr. Olaf Malmin. This select group of musicians performs at the Student Recitals and at various other functions on campus.

WOMEN'S GLEE CLUB

Twice each week the corridors of Albright Hall resound with the lovely voices of the Women's Glee Club as they rehearse with Miss English, their director. In addition to performances here, the glee club is occasionally called upon to perform off campus.

BRASS QUARTET

Under the able leadership of Mr. William J. Champion, the members of the brass groups practice diligently. Their versatility is displayed at the Spring Concert and at our Student Recitals.

BRASS ENSEMBLE

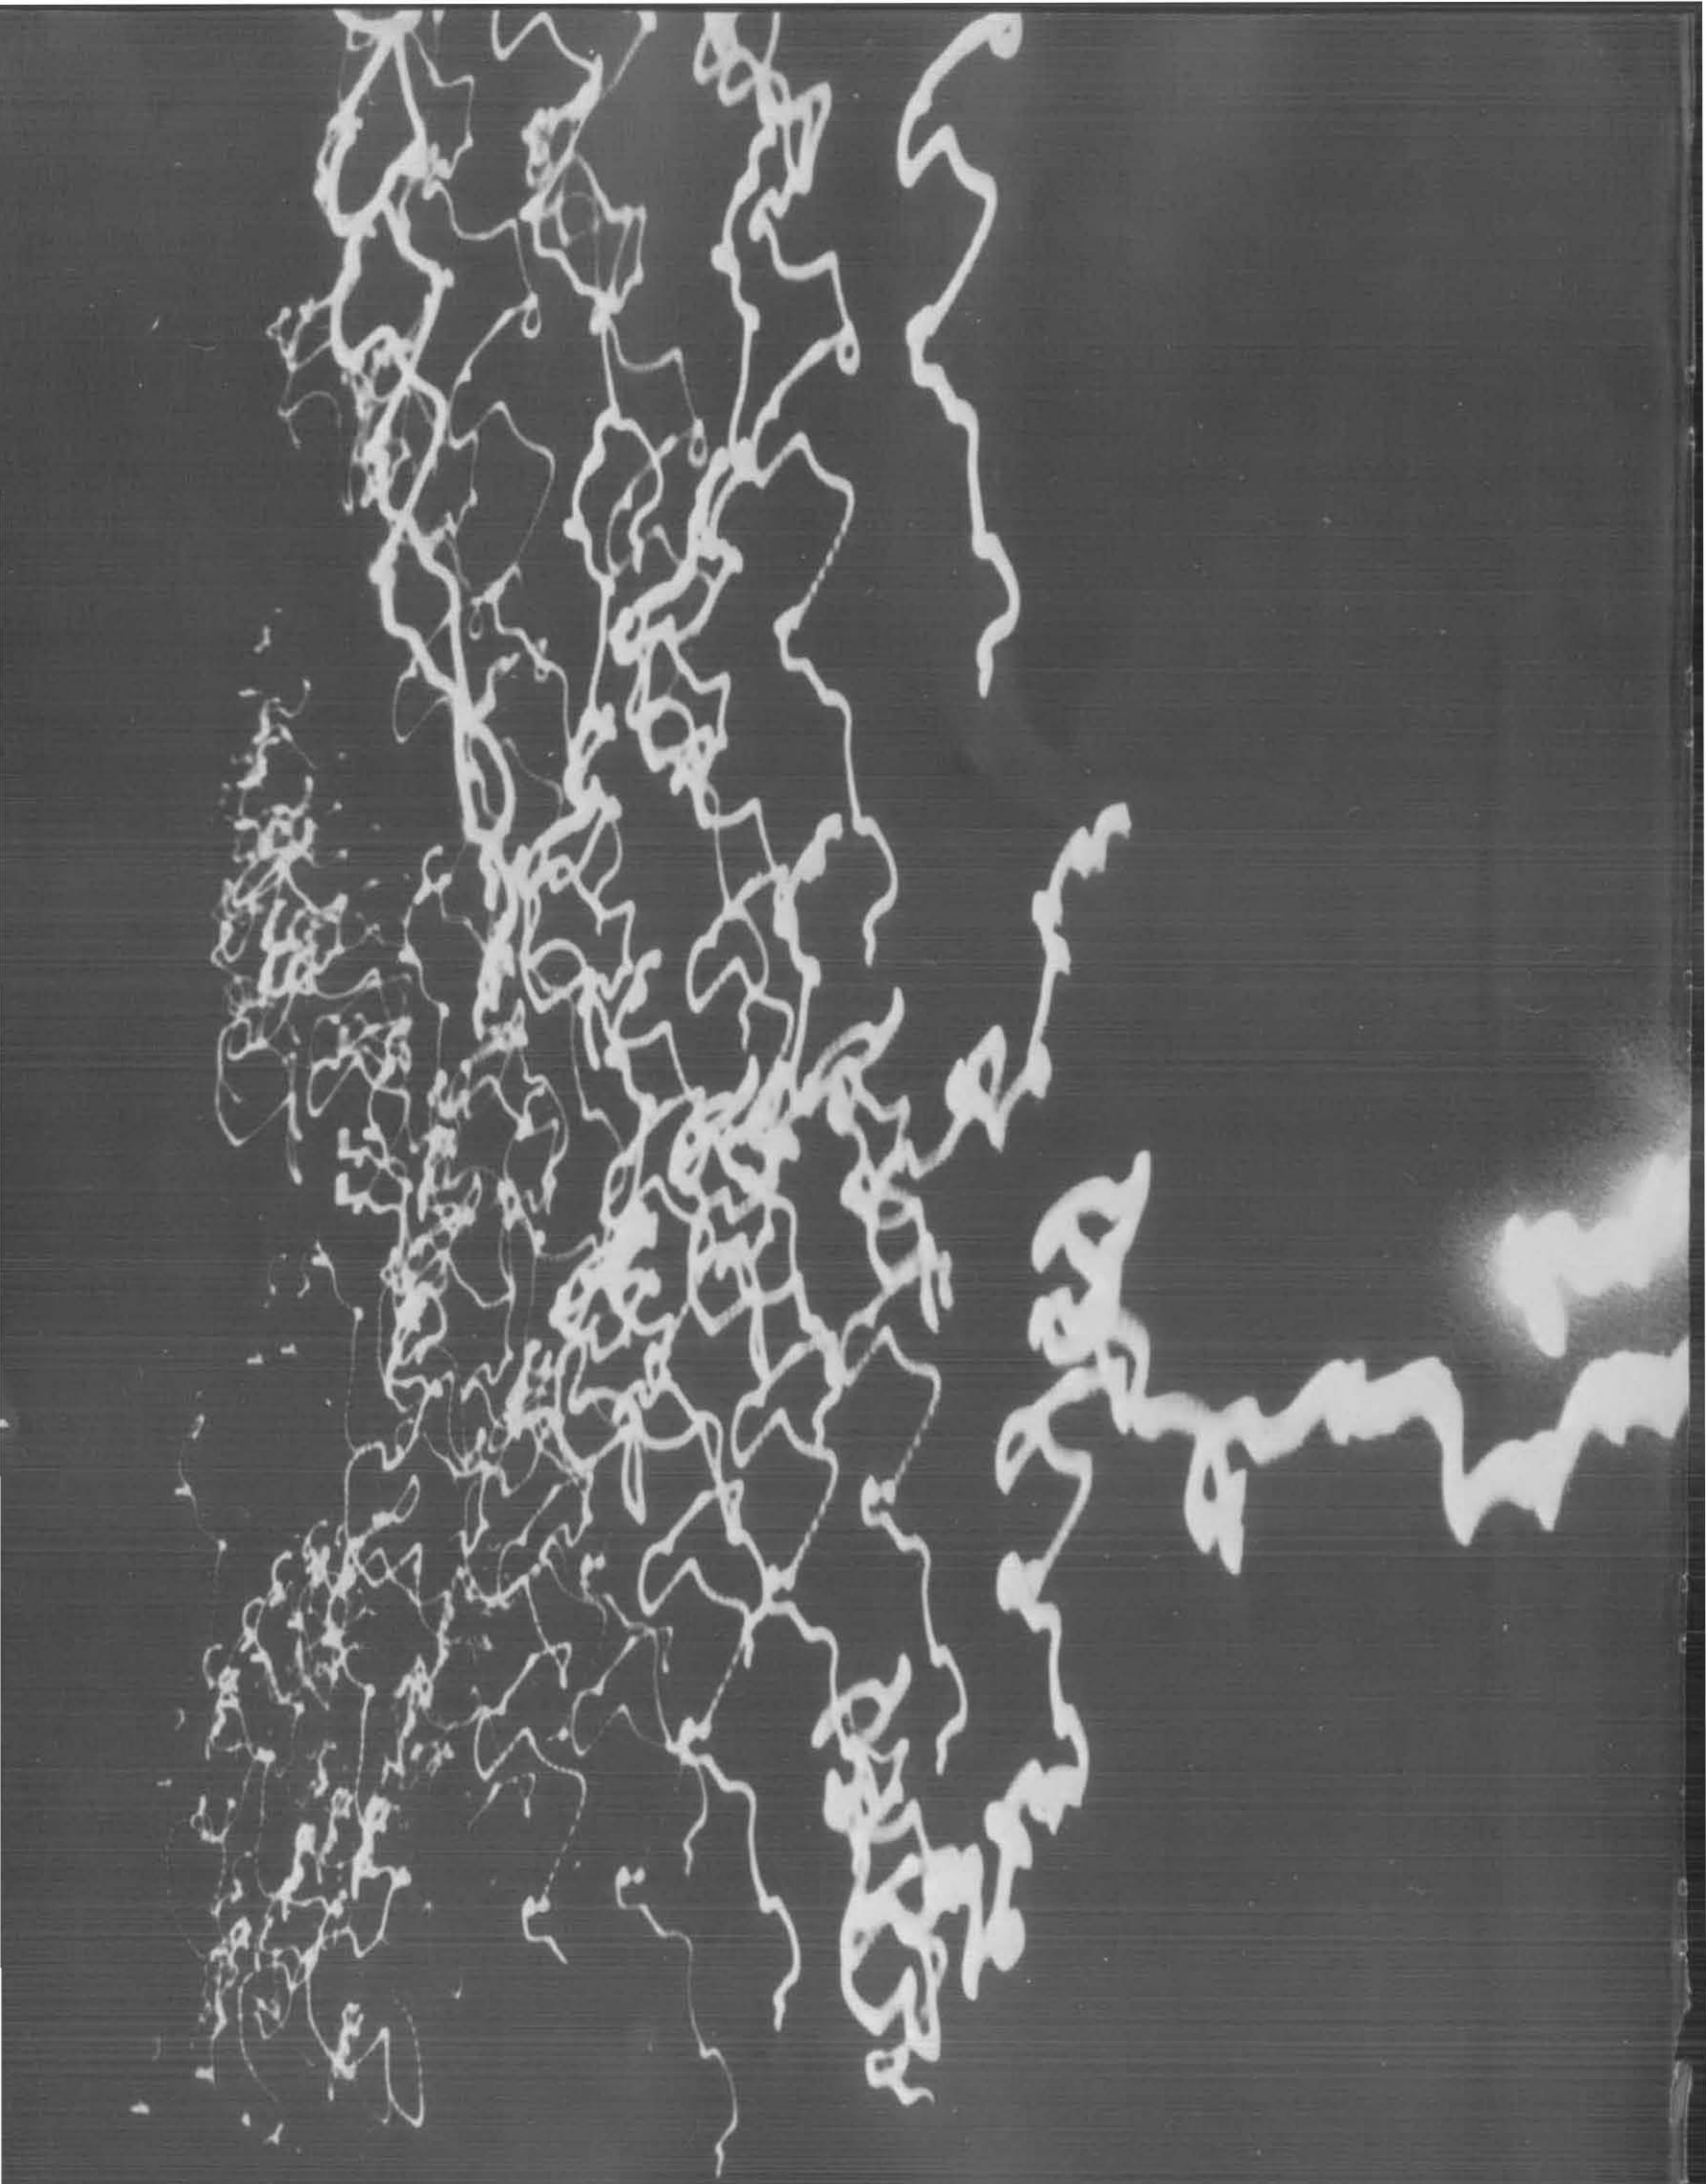

WOODWIND QUINTET

Inspired by the great interest displayed by these students, the Music department and Mr. Anton Wolf organized the Woodwind Quintet. They perform at the Student Recitals held on campus.

WOMEN'S QUARTET

Under the guidance of Paul R. Homer, these women perfect their vocal techniques in preparation for the annual campus concerts. The quartet also sings at various off campus affairs.

“THE THIRD WINTER”

Seventh September

From somewhere inside the bowels of Buff State, I'm trying to complete my epitaph before someone else has the chance. This sincere effort is due to the fact that ELMS '67 has been completed, mailed, and a drunk is about to begin!

But now about the book, and the philosophy—the staff attempted to capture a total view of Buffalo State, and its growing pains, with both the positive and negative images that exist.

The staff realized early in the game that they could not please everyone in the total college community therefore we didn't try.

And a special word of thanks to John Moffat for his auspicious beginnings ...

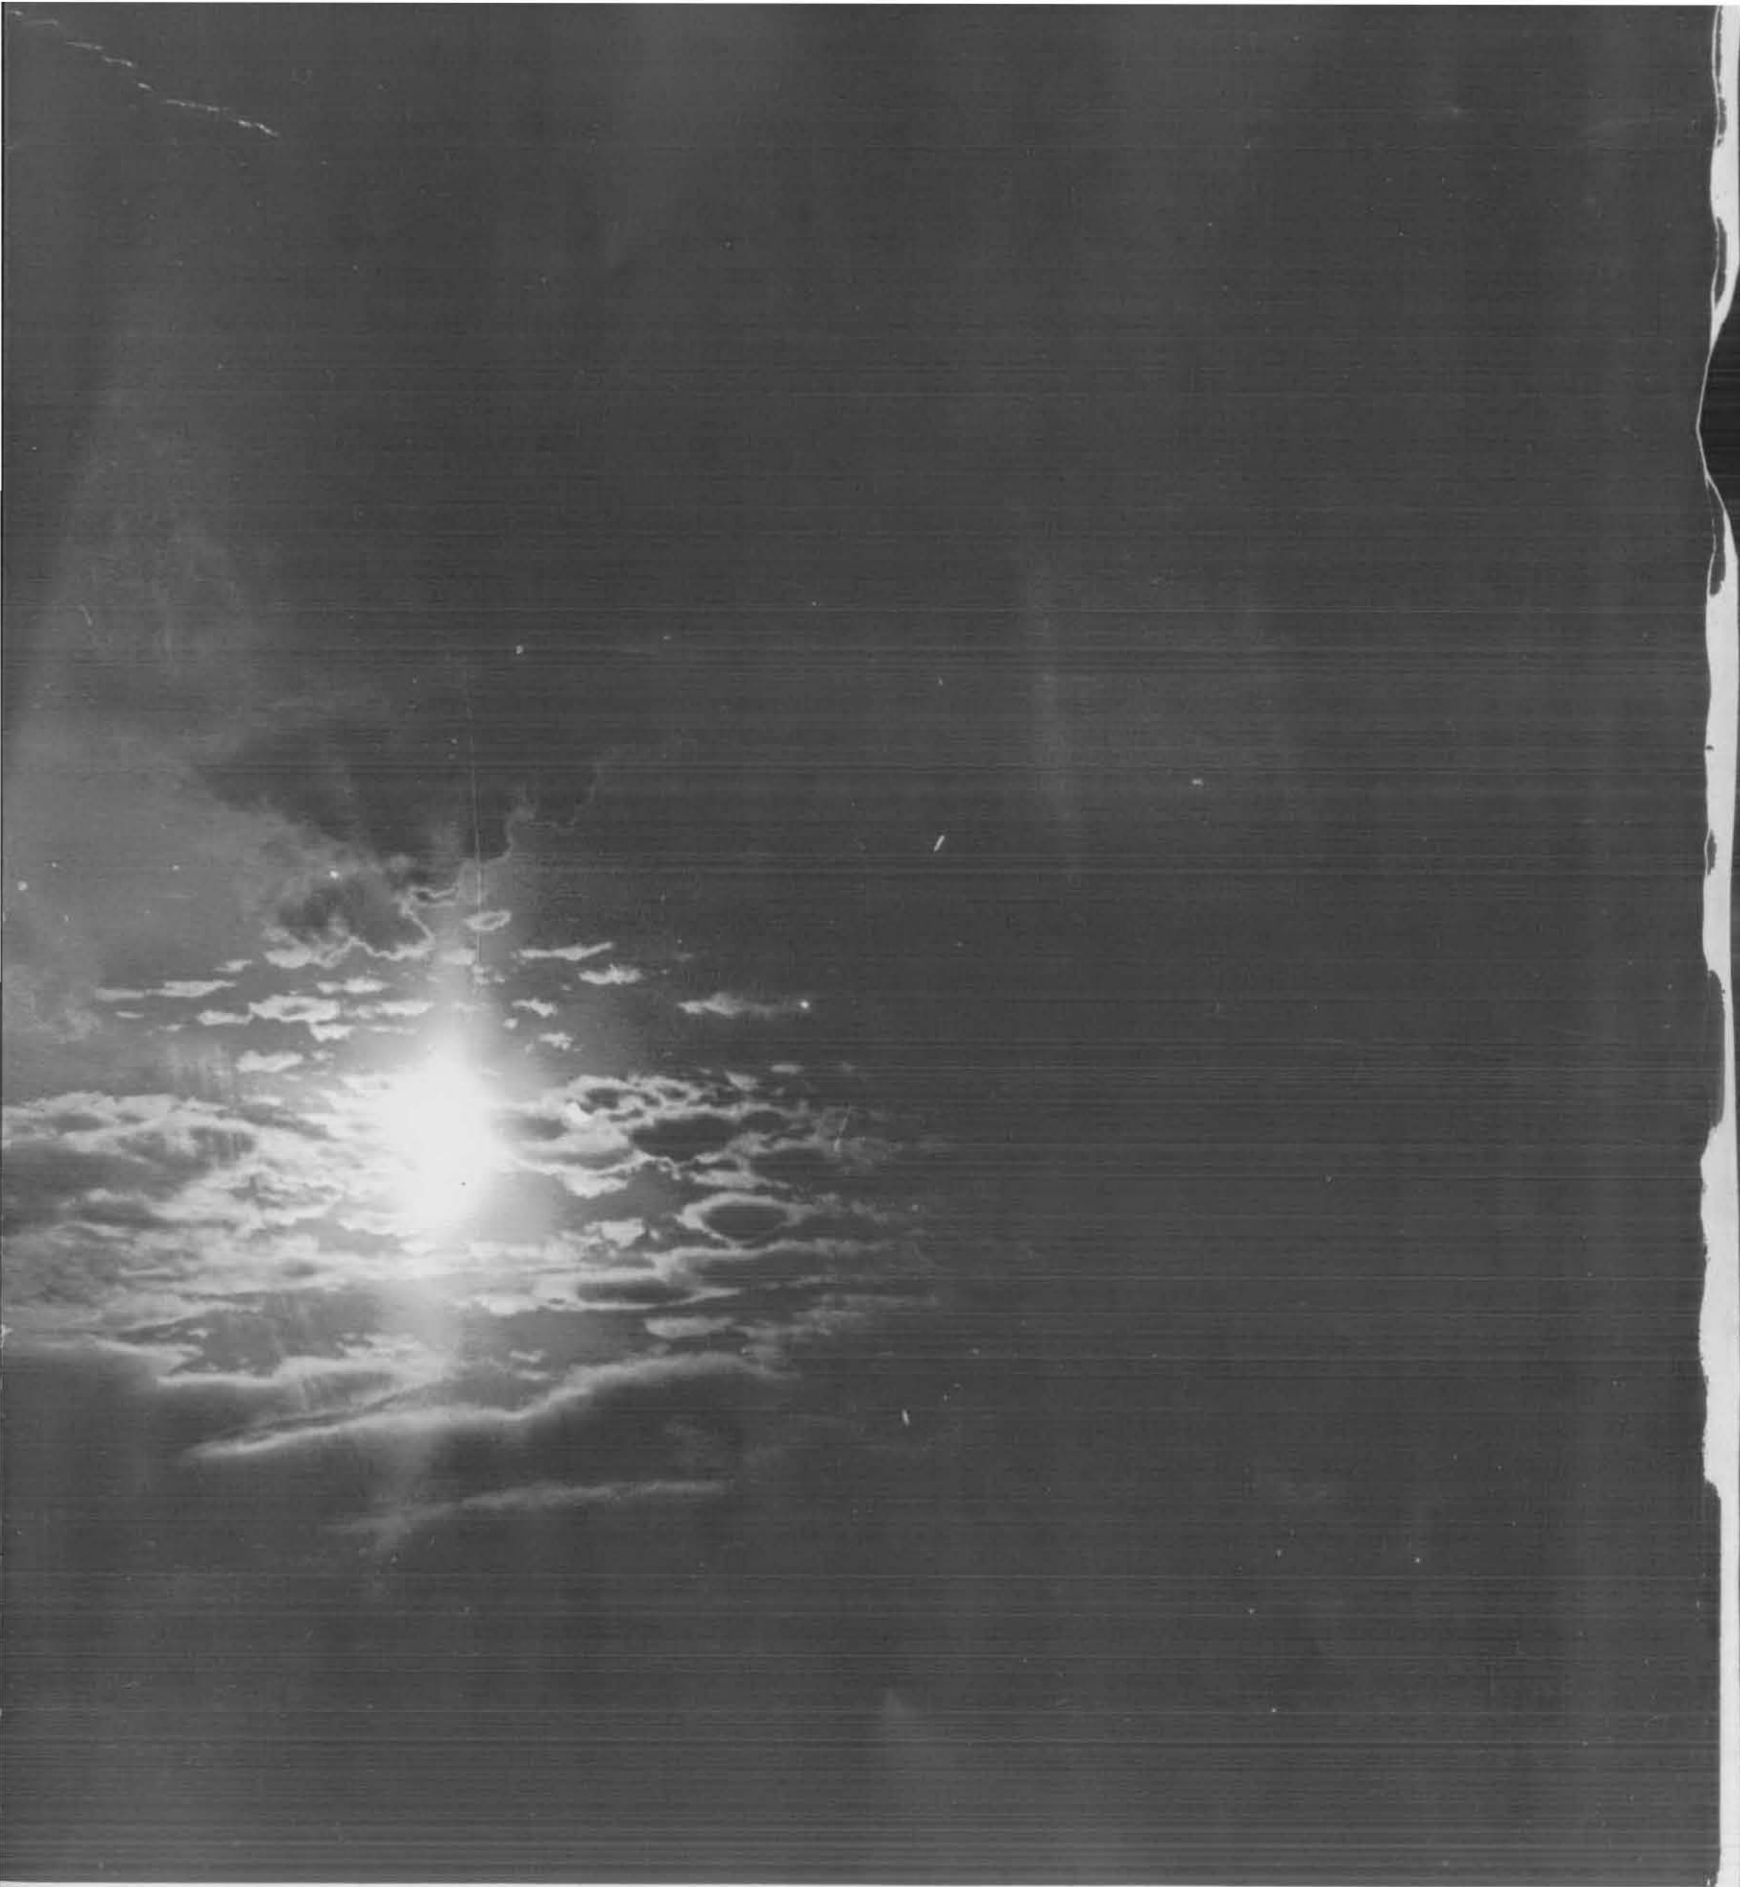

I would also like to acknowledge the wonderful and patient attitudes of Miss Palmieri, and Mr. Dan Hunter our advisors and protectors.

With all due consideration and respect, I now end this epilogue and depart for the local pub.

Editor-in-Chief*

P.S. A special thanks to the unsung heros of this farce—Helen Federici, Dave Stewart, Larry Johnson and "juice".

...and with the ending the challenge of beginning again.
