A TRIBUTE TO SISTER ODA MAE BURNEY HEAD

We, the members of the Pilgrim Baptist Church Choir wish to pay a tribute of love and appreciation to one whose interest and support was sincere and effective.

"Sister" lived a busy, useful, unselfish life; never seeking ease or personal honor for herself. The devotion to her family was beautiful, her helpfulness in the community was excellent, and her loyalty to the church was inspirational. She was active in all phases of church work; President of the Church Choir, and a faithful member --- we will surely miss her.

LET IT BE RESOLVED:

1. That this community has sustained a great loss. She was ever ready and willing to give of her time and talent to those in need.
2. That our society, humbly bowing to His will feels deeply her departing. Her everlasting smile brought cheer and brightness to all with whom she came in contact. We pause to thank God for this life, for the place Oda Mae Head filled in our midst.
3. That we extend to her bereaved family our sincere sympathy.
4. That we place a copy of this resolution as a memorial to her in our choir minutes, a copy be sent to the family, and that a copy be maintained in the records of Pilgrim Baptist Church.

Respectfully submitted,

THE PILGRIM BAPTIST CHURCH CHOIR
Mrs. Freddie M. Staples, President
