Grandma

Somehow we forgot what we are here for: to love.

God's greatest gift of all.

Just for one more laugh, one smile; I'd trade it all.

We all need a rock; you were my rock.

So hard, yet so tender, so fragile, yet so strong;

Day by day teaching me right from wrong;

Holding my hand and walking along;

The time came for you to move on.

You're in a better place; all I ask is that you save me a space.

You have given me your torch to pass;

Now I'm the rock with a heart made of shattered glass; Promising not to let you down.

I miss you intensely, and will love you perpetually.

Mishae

Acknowledgements

To our many friends and family members who have made our burden less difficult to bare, we are grateful for your love and support in our time of need. We say thank you from the bottom of our hearts.

Obituary

Agnes Brown was born the oldest of three children to the late John Placey and Florence Johnson Placey on December 15, 1938 in Buffalo, New York.

She was joined in holy matrimony on March 27, 1958 to the late William Douglas Brown, and to this union two children were born. Tanya Renee Brown, and William Douglas Brown Jr. Agnes retired from U.S. Sugar Company when her health took a turn for the worst. Agnes Brown leaves to cherish her daughter Tanya (Michael) Mitchell, her son William (Lorna D.) Brown, six grandchildren: LaKishae, David, Aireal, Phameka, Aaron, and Angelo. Eight great grandchildren: Alexis, Audrey, Diamond, Daisha, Kemauri, Devin, Abiden, Aubrey, and a host of other relatives and friends.
