A.C. WARE ANGELIC CHOIR HISTORY (CONT)

APRIL 21, 1991

Our first anniversary was celebrated Sunday, July 11, 1982, theme "LET EVERYTHING THAT HATH BREATH PRAISE THE LORD." PSALM 150:6. Mrs. Vera Keith a noted soloist of Buffalo, the Robert Lee Singers of Beulah Baptist Church of Akron, Ohio rendered song service and the Rev. David Harris the Associate Minister of Beulah Baptist Church was the speaker.

Since our first year we have celebrated many anniversaries, rendered concerts, programs and sponsored other activities and since the beginning until now God has continuously blessed us because we have never forgotten HIM.

We have had good times and we have had bad times.

Through the good times we have praised GOD and through the bad times we have continued to praise HIM, we have never forgotten to put HIM first in all our endeavors.

Now on today April 21, 1991 we celebrate our 10th anniversary with a reunion of our former members. This is truly a glorious day because today God is smiling and Satan is mad because Satan did not expect or want us to continue our ministry in song. But he didn't know that we had made a SINCERE PROMISE and COMMITMENT to uplift the name of Jesus, and sing HIS praises.

IF WE THE A. C. WARE ANGELIC CHOIR WERE TO CHOOSE A THEME SONG IT WOULD BE "AIN'T GONNA LET NOBODY TURN US AROUND, AIN'T GONNA LET NOBODY TURN US AROUND, GONNA KEEP ON MARCHING, GONNA KEEP ON SINGING, GONNA KEEP ON PRAISING THE LORD."
