Mr. Lon McAdam
Plant Superintendent
Service Building

Dear Lon:

When I went out to the Rose Garden last evening to check on the work that we wanted to accomplish with the volunteer group, I was amazed to find that considerable weeding had been done! In place of watering the area in preparation for the volunteer brigade to go to work, I found that, instead, weeding had been done.

In view of this pleasant development, plus the fact that the men are working at the opposite end of the Quadrangle this morning, it seems wise that we should keep the services of the volunteer brigade for another time. Hence, we have canceled our plans to work this evening and are asking you to cancel our request for the help of Mr. Arthur Peters, Jr.

Thank you for this happy surprize and for all the helpful thoughts that prompted it.

Cordially,

Edna M. Lindemann
