*There's an open gate at the end of the road,
Through which each must go alone
And there is a light we cannot see
Our father claims his own
Beyond the gate our loved one
Finds happiness and rest
And there is comfort in the thought
That a loving God knows best.*

— Obituary —

Leonard H. Callaway, a native of Beaver Falls, Pennsylvania, was born to the late Joseph and Rebecca Callaway on July 14, 1912. The chapters of his life ended when he slept away on Sunday, August 17, 1997, at the Veteran's Hospital. His two sisters, Alice Thomas and Dorothy Harris, Preceded him in death.

Though accepting Christ at an early age, it would not be until sometime later that he joined Lincoln Memorial United Methodist Church. His loyalty remained with Lincoln until his extended illness began.

He graduated from the public school system in Beaver Falls and attended Indiana State College. Those who knew Leonard acknowledged him for his brilliance in many areas. He was an excellent conversationalist.

Leonard united in marriage to Marcelle Mungo.

"Cal," as he was called, worked for the United States Postal Service for over 40 years before his retirement. As a Master Sergeant in the United States Army, he served his country. He was a member as well as former Worshipful Master of Prince Hall's Masonic Family, St. John's Lodge #16. He was a very active member of the long ago worthy "Pirates Club."

Left to cherish, treasure and keep alive his sojourn here are: his beloved wife, Marcelle Mungo Callaway; one nephew, Daniel Steward; two nieces: Carol Nelson (Roger), and June Steward; one great niece, Corrine Nelson, all of San Francisco, California; one brother-in-law, Willie B. Harris of Buffalo; two very special cousins, Dorothy Gardener of Myrtle Beach, South Carolina, and Marlon T. Morton of Buffalo; as well as a host of relatives and friends.

*The day is over,
The battle is won;
Through courage and patience,
His job was well done.*
