Obituary

GEORGIA WORRELL departed this world on December 31, 1997. Mrs. Worrell lived a rich life filled with creativity. The beauty of her sewing and crocheting will remind us all of the vitality and spirit in which she lived.

Born on Christmas Day in 1931, Georgia Christine Lee was the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Lee. Moving to Buffalo, New York to attend high school, Miss Lee became a lifelong friend with Mary McCormick. After graduating from high school, Miss Lee met and married Mr. Henry E. Worrell. Theirs was a union from heaven, close and in love for more than forty-three years.

Mrs. Worrell is survived by her husband, Mr. Henry E. Worrell; sons, Mallory J. Reid and Quinton E. Worrell; daughter, Wendelyn R. Bonhart. She also is survived by sisters, Annie D. Lee, Joella Davis and Florence L. Brown, one brother, Samson Lee. Mrs. Worrell has eight grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren, a host of loving nieces, nephews and friends.

As a life long member of Lincoln Memorial Methodist Church in Buffalo, New York her presence and creative spirit will be sorely missed by all who knew and loved her.
