Prayer

From Bea to the family.

Weep not for me though I am gone into that gentle night. Grieve if you will, but not for long upon my soul's sweet flight. I am at peace, my souls at rest there is no need for tears. For with your love I was so blessed. For all those many years. There is no pain; I suffer not, the fear now all is gone. Put now these things out of your thoughts, in your memory I live on. Remember not my fight for breath Remember not the strife. Please do not dwell upon my death, but celebrate my life.

She is Gone

You can shed tears that she is gone or you can smile because she has lived. You can close your eyes and pray that she'll come back or you can open your eyes and see all she's left. Your heart can be empty because you can't see her or you can be full of the love you shared. You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday. You can remember her and only that she's gone or you can cherish her memory and let it live on. You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back or you can do what she'd want: smile, open your eyes love and go on.

Poem

Don't spend too much time in the morning
Tears are for the sad
I left to be with Jesus and this should make you glad.

Don't waste your hour in grieving
No need to feel distress
I'm tired of life's frustrations and had to get some rest.

Don't vex yourself with questions or try to reason why
Life here for me was ending, it came my time to die.

Don’t lose the love I gave you, feed it with your care
Grow it with devotion and spread it everywhere.

Don’t fret because my leaving, came in such a way
We will have another meeting, in God’s Eternal Day!
