Sometimes it's hard to understand
   Why some things have to be
But in His wisdom God has planned
   Beyond our power to see
So looking back in tenderness
   Along the path we've trod
We shall cherish the years we have had with you,
and leave the rest to God.

Lovingly submitted,
The Family

- Acknowledgment -
The Family acknowledges with sincere thanks and appreciation all comforting acts of kindness and other expressions of consideration, extended to them during the illness and upon the death of our dearly devoted loved one.

Reverend Dr. James S. Webb, Jr., Pastor
Lacy Lee Bass, son of the late William and Alice Fuller Bass was born in Guilford County, North Carolina. He departed this life on Wednesday morning February 3, 1999 at Rosewell Park Cancer Institute.

He was married to Dorothy Slade for sixty years and to this union two daughters were born.

In 1942 he moved to Buffalo and united with Lincoln Memorial United Methodist Church under the leadership of Reverend William H. Homer.

He was a navy veteran of WWII and a retiree of Moog, Inc. Lacy was a quiet, private person, but was always willing to lend a helping hand in time of need.

Lacy leaves to cherish his memory: a loving and devoted wife, Dorothy; two daughters: Duella (Harold) Tatum of Greensboro, North Carolina, and Patricia B. Blodgett of Alhambra, California; three granddaughters: Karshan Pulliam of North Hollywood, California, Sonya Richey of Stockbridge, Georgia, and Stephanie Tatum of Greensboro, North Carolina; one grandson: Bruce Pulliam of Richmond, Virginia; three great grandsons: Jonathan, Joshua, and Justin Richey of Stockbridge, Georgia, and a host of other relatives and friends.
