Alma Mater

(As written in 1928)

A branch that is lifeless and fragile,
When caught by the gleam of red coals
Is fanned to a quivering torch flame;
So love changes all human souls.
So we whom you love, Alma Mater,
Are touched by the warmth and the glow
Diffused on the hearth of your spirit
As into your service we go.
Now bearing the light from your hearthside,
Soul-strengthened, inspired by you,
We shall share the warmth of your firelight
And kindle youth's dull fires anew.

The New Campus

State Teachers College at Buffalo, formerly Buffalo State Normal School, will move within a few years into the beautiful and spacious buildings which will soon arise on the ninety-one acres set aside for the purpose from the State Hospital grounds at the Elmwood and Forest avenues. Buffalo will construct a boulevard 106 feet wide and over one-half mile in length which will separate the hospital property from the college grounds. The tract will have a depth of 1,106 feet along a line drawn at right angles to Elmwood Avenue; the rear line of this property will be 1,428.5 feet in length and will intercept Scajaquada Drive at a point east of the little promontory projecting into the creek.

This tract will be ample to provide for a football gridiron, a baseball diamond, tennis courts, and several new buildings as needed for future years. The pressing requirements of the present dictate a necessity for a girls dormitory in the near future. The proximity of Delaware Lake will provide for boating and for such winter sports as skating and hockey. It is the general consensus of opinion that nowhere in the city could a more advantageous location have been found. It combines beauty and unusual park and landscape effects with an atmosphere of cultural educational achievement already assured by the presence in the neighborhood of the classic Albright Art Gallery, the McKinley Vocational School, a branch of the Buffalo Society of Natural Sciences, a prospective open air theater and the beautiful Historical Building. The accession of this remarkable tract and of the buildings which are to be erected on it will not have been accidental. As the time approaches for the actual fruition of the plans for the new college location, the realization of the source of that progressive step will probably lose emphasis, yet it must be noted that during the few years in which the project was initiated and concluded, a number of men worked and fought until all opposition was defeated. In March, 1926, in connection with the proposed removal of the Buffalo State Hospital in Gowanda, the subsequent housing of the Buffalo State Normal School was considered. A three-day hearing was held in Buffalo, beginning on April 12th, under the auspices of the City Planning Commission, at the close of which it seemed that the State Hospital could not be moved in the near future, but that this did not "necessarily foreclose the possibility of the use of a portion of that site for the expansion of the Normal School." It was not until March 31st, 1927, one year after its initiation that the plan was culminated in the signing of a bill by Governor Smith which provided:

- 1) That the State of New York cede to the city of Buffalo 85 acres comprising approximately the northern half of the State Hospital grounds.
- 2) That the State of New York deed over to the city of Buffalo the present Normal School property and grounds.
- 3) That the city of Buffalo, under the direction of the State Department of Education erect a new Normal School building on the new tract, facing Elmwood Avenue, at a cost not to exceed one and one-half million dollars.

This bill, now a law, has been prepared by Corporation Counsel Gregory U. Harmon, with the authorization of Mayor Frank X. Schwab and the city council. It was introduced in the senate by Senator William J. Hickey and in the Assembly by Assemblyman Henry Hutt and was passed unanimously in both houses.

During the past year, the plans for the new building were started by Sullivan W. Jones and completed by William E. Haugaard and have been presented to Edward H. Butler and Dr. Harry W. Rockwell for final examination.

The Jinx burning is a tradition that is believed to ward off any bad luck that may linger where one of our teams is playing.

A well-dressed 1937 soccer team embarks on a road trip. The man on the left is Coach Hurbert Coyer – the football and track field was later named to honor his achievements in promoting athletic competition at the college.

WBNY Celebrates 16 years of Success!!

On October 16, 1998 Buffalo State's own radio station, WBNY celebrated 16 years on the Buffalo airwaves. The station is not the same as it started – it has traveled a long road. The styles of music have changed almost as much as the name of the station. Originally, in the 1970's, the station was WSCB 620 AM. It was broadcast only to the campus. The music was Classical, Jazz, and Rock played in a Top 40 format. In 1982 WSCB AM became WBNY 91.3FM. The station kept the Top 40 format as before. In 1983, however, the members of the radio station decided on a radical style change. They went to a new format called Newmusic, programing a type of music that had grown out of the New Wave music of the past few years. The transition from Top 40 to Newmusic was not initially well received. It took the DJs a while to get used to the new style. But they did a very good job and they made the station what it is today – one known in the music industry as a cutting edge broadcaster. The station is commercial free and plays a lot of music. They do have some talk shows and carry live broadcasts of some BSC sports events. The station is a student organization and invites anyone to join. You don't have to be a communication student. Anyone who has something to say can be a part of WBNY. To celebrate the 16 years of WBNY the station commemorated an event held the day they first went on the air: an Airwaves Party in the Student Union Social Hall featuring bands from the Airwaves album released on BCMK Records. Some of these bands were the Jetsons, Nitecrawlers, Madcaps, Nick Angelo & the Killing Floor, and Cold Water Flat.

The Looking Glass

Stumbling blindly through the cold
Reflecting on the stories told of men who faced ten thousand more Discomforts in the years before.
Then onward 'til I reach the point which leads me to my favorite joint.
Here I sit with glass in hand ,
Listenin' to a local band.
Then suddenly to my surprise ,
A man appeared with deep, brown eyes !
Struggling just to turn away ,
The voice within began to say ,
"There's peace among such goodly men ,
Relax ... and buy a round again."
Reaching for my stash of gold
I bought the poison that they sold
And passed it to the chosen few ,
Selected for this moment too .

We drank it down and then some more
Forgetting then, we had to store
Enough away- though at our peak,
We put it all off 'til next week.
As we consumed the alcohol,
I noticed something on the wall.
Besides the bottle of vermouth,
There it hung the naked truth.
And after paying for the beer
The looking glass began to clear.
I saw myself a ragged bum.
Destroyed by whiskey, wine and rum.
I searched for something I could blame,
A name I knew so very well,
Forgotten in me for a spell.
The only one to blame was me,
And not our great society.
For all along I've known the Way,
Yet chose to fight another day.
Perhaps somehow throughout the years,
Something heard my lonely prayers
To send a blessed angels hand,
To help me finally understand.
Before I let the moment pass,
I thank the one who cleared the glass.

The Scar

You reach for me and I become a warming hearth
I feel the pain
In some strange way
I like it
For I hope
I'll get the change
to drive it all away
I feel your hand
caressing mine in ecstasy far higher though than flesh provides
I feel your warmth
You burn me
with the mark of love so I stop in silence
to know this one will never fade

The Rose

by Susan Browne

Life is like a rose.

It is beautiful.

Its aroma fills our senses.

Like a rosebud
a child will bloom,
each one perfect
in its own way.

And in its prime
the essence is overwhelming.
But, for only too short a time.

And like a rose
life withers,
the essence is lost
and its beauty becomes forgotten in the abundance of the garden.

Its petals fall
and the rose is gone
and the garden is filled again.

The Elms

The Yearbook at Buffalo State College

The Elms Yearbook at Buffalo State College has gone through many changes in the past years. The lack of staffing and funds alone has had a great impact on the turnout of this book. Though we did our best, next year's book will be a great deal better. We would like to thank the Record newspaper staff, Vicky and Dave in Press Services, Delaware Camera Mart, everyone in USG, and Dave (our Jostens Rep.), for all their help and putting up with our shenanigans. Thank you also to all the people who pitched in with taking the photographs.

BUFFALO STATE COLLEGE CLASS OF
'99

Graduation!

The 127th Commencement Ceremony took place at the Buffalo State Sports Arena on Saturday, May 15, 1999. Students gathered with their families and friends at 9:30 that morning, with a second group assembling at 1PM on that sunny, warm – and happy – day.

All Photos by Eric Jensen

Everyone stopped at least once for pictures with their family members and their friends – posing with flowers, balloons, and smiles.

After pictures in the sunshine, the candidates for degrees moved into the hockey rink where they assembled for the procession into the arena.

The Buffalo State Wind Ensemble played processional music as the graduates filed into the Arena and, after a welcome from President Muriel Moore, the Chamber choir sang the National Anthem.

Right: Muriel Moore and Byron Brown present James Brandys, 1971 BSC graduate and Vice President at Merrill Lynch, with the Distinguished Alumnus Award.

Below: Arnold Gardner, a member of the New York State Board of Regents, received the College Council Medal.

Author Barry Callaghan was presented with an Honorary Doctor of Letters degree.

Buffalo Jazz Pianist Al Tinney received an Honorary Doctor of Music Degree.

Honors...

Various students, alumni, and community members were honored and spoke at the Commencement Ceremonies.

BSC President Muriel Moore presented Theater and Spanish graduate Yolanda Solís with the President's Medal for [an] Outstanding Undergraduate Student.

Math student (and football star) Craig Dana was given the SUNY Chancellor's Award for Student Excellence.

Sociology grad Dawn LaMendola spoke at the morning ceremony.

Two-term Student Government Treasurer Marlon Roberts gave the student address at the afternoon ceremony.

Speakers...

Tom Calderone, a 1986 BSC graduate, was given a Distinguished Alumnus Award and presented the main Commencement Address at both ceremonies. His appearance was preceded by a video with testimonials from some of the educators and broadcast professionals he's worked with, and detailing his exploits in campus, local and national radio. Calderon currently is senior vice president of music programming at MTV.

It wasn't in the program, but a special surprise closing address was given by Biff Henderson, technician/personality from Late Night with David Letterman. His speech was taped for later broadcast.

Once all of the speeches were over, the moment everyone was waiting for arrived... the Conferring of Degrees.

After the ceremonies graduates gathered in the Student Union Quad for a brief reception. It was a final chance for a photo with a favorite professor or fellow student. Then it was off to the future.

Living in the Dorms

OK... the college doesn't like the word "dorms" any more. They prefer to call them Residence Halls, but somehow "my room in the hall" doesn't sound quite as comfy as "my dorm room." And make no mistake, between good friends and teddy bears, the rooms can be pretty comfy.

The Student Experience

Being a college student involves a lot of sitting in classrooms and out-of-class studies – but there's more to it than that. Those approaching graduation can choose a school ring. Some students find employment on campus at such places as the student union information desk. If you're lucky enough to have some free time on a sunny day there's friends to lounge with. Then there's the many choices to be made when looking for a meal on campus. The ultimate getaway for a Buffalo State student is the Whispering Pines Collge Camp in Franklinville... where pie fights are not unheard of.

International Fiesta

One of the features of the annual International Fiesta is a series of musical dance presentations with students from all over the world showing off their home-style.

Washington D.C. Trip...

The USG Banquet

In May the United Students' Government held their "Academia Awards" Banquet at the Statler Rendezvous Room in downtown Buffalo. Recognition awards were handed out to students, student organizations, staff, and faculty members. Music was provided by Dr. Phil Santa Maria (Associate VP for Student Affairs appropriately enough) and his band. Finally, as seen on this page, the 1999-2000 Executive Officers were sworn in by the outgoing USG officers.

The Cherry Poppin' Daddies

The biggest event of the year was when Swing Rock came to Buffalo State and the Cherry Poppin' Daddies headlined a show at the Sports Arena on Sunday, November 1, 1998.

The eight-man band played a mix of jump-blues swing, mambos, and straight rock for an audience of about 1700 – a crowd that included not just college students but a generous number of highschoolers and even grade school kids who came with their parents. The arena bleachers were filled with observers – the floor with more active dancers.

The Daddies, dressed in pinstripe suits and colorful ties, brought down the house with their radio hit “Zoot Suit Riot.” The three-piece horn section socked out the melodic lines behind singer Steve Perry’s vocals and added occasional background shouts and harmonies.

The evening opened with Ozomatli, a 10-piece band with a more world-music approach. Lots of percussion, bi-lingual lyrics, and both on- and off-stage dancing made their set a treat.

Ozomatli was followed by The Pietasters, a band similar to the Daddies in their swing rock and horn augmented line-up, but with the faster tempos of ska added to their mix. They also periodically filled the stage with fog from an off-stage smoke machine – a curiously '70s effect for a '40s cum '90s act.

THE FUTURE... BUFFALO (ALTERED) STATE - 2999 A.D.

MANY IMPROVEMENTS WILL BE MADE BY THE NEXT MILLENNIUM.

THERE WILL BE FEWER LECTURES AND TEXT BOOKS DUE TO DIRECT DOWNLOADING OF CLASSES.

SUBLIMINAL COURSES WILL GIVE NEW MEANING TO THE TERM "NIGHT STUDENT."

THERE WILL BE GENETICALLY ENHANCED ATHLETES AND ZERO-GRAVITY GYMNASTICS.

THE NON-TRADITIONAL STUDENTS WILL STILL BE HERE

AND THE UNIVERSITY POLICE WILL BE ON GUARD FOR OUR PROTECTION.

PARKING WILL STILL BE A PROBLEM, BUT ADMINISTRATION WILL PROVIDE SHUTTLES TO LOT-2 ON THE FAR SIDE OF THE MOON.

HIGH COSTS WILL FORCE STUDENTS' CLONES TO HELP PAY THEIR ORIGINAL'S TUITION, FEES AND FINES.

AND, OF COURSE, THE FOOD WILL STILL SUCK!
