St. John Baptist Church

Dear Pastor Smith:

I take this means in request of Reverend Herman Potts, to inform you that Reverend Potts has expressed his desire to rejoin the Pilgrim Baptist Church in which he grew up as a younger man.

I have advised him to prayerfully consider his decision. We at Pilgrim have kept up with his progress across the years. We were delighted to know that he had answered the call to the Christian Ministry. We are proud of the assistance and leadership you and your Church family have given him.

I shall be happy to have him back home with us, and shall give him every advantage to grow in his ministry as an associate assistant minister to me. He will be kept busy working and growing in Christian Education.

I have advised him to bring a letter from you and your Church. The decision is his, and no pressure has been put on him from me or my Church. He has stood in for me on several occasions and did a most remarkable job.

I pray that he will be guided by the Holy Spirit in all of his decisions in life.

Yours in Christ,

Rev. R. D. Holloway
