I must leave you for a little while. Please do not grieve and shed wild tears, and hug your sorrow to you, through the years, but start out bravely with a gallant smile for my sake and in my name live on and do all good things the same. "Good bye all"

Caesar Scott Jr.
Caesar Scott, Jr. was born in Lake City, South Carolina, the son of the late Caesar and Itline Scott. He departed this life on Tuesday, December 12, 2000 at 7:30 a.m.

Caesar was raised and educated in South Carolina. After which, he served in the U.S. Army, a veteran of WW2. He entered into holy matrimony with Odessa Diann Cockfield, who pre-deceased him. Presently, his wife is Eddie G. Scott. Upon his honorable discharge in 1945, he moved to Buffalo, NY where he raised his family. He was employed at Harrison Radiator, a division of General Motors where he retired after 30 years as a supervisor.

Caesar remained active in his church, Lincoln Memorial, for over 50 years, involved in many projects, including positions on the Finance Committee and he had a particular interest in the church's youth programs. He was a dedicated member of the Elks organization, the Lodge of Pride of Western New York #1502, serving as a District Deputy as well as New York State's Director of the Education Department. He loved music, building model cars and was an excellent chef. Caesar was a lover of life, who was respected by everyone who knew him. He will be fondly missed by all.

Caesar is pre-deceased by three sisters: Olivia Gene Rosina Scott and Fannie Moore.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his loving wife, Eddie G. Scott; his children, three daughters: Lillie Pearl Jackson, of Spartanburg, SC, Sandra Diann Scott, of Albany, NY, Carol Elaine Scott of Buffalo, NY; two sons: Timothy White and Caesar Jeffrey Scott III of Buffalo, NY; one step-son, Raymond Goggins of Oklahoma City, OK; several grandchildren; one brother, Walter Scott; one sister, Pearl Green, and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.
