Obituary

Joann Hinkle was born to Geraldine Hinkle and Joseph Lomax on February 13, 1950 in Montgomery, Alabama.

Joann moved with her family to Buffalo, New York at an early age. She attended elementary and secondary schools in the Buffalo Public School System.

Joann was employed by the Erie County Department of Social Services. She regularly attended church, enjoyed being with her friends, loved her family, and was especially close to her twin sister, Mary.

Joann suffered a long illness, but was constantly surrounded by family and friends. On Saturday, May 17, 2014 she slipped into eternity with her family by her side.

She leaves to mourn: one son, Terrance (Tunya) Hinkle, twin sister, Mary Ann (Minger) Melvin, sister, Gertrude Hervey, and one brother, Carl Hinkle; two grandsons, Terrance Hinkle, Jr. and Sean Thornton; two uncles, Eddie Fountain and George Fountain (Cincinnati, Ohio), and a host of other relatives and friends.

Joann

We love you and you are not really lost to us, we know you are with us in so many special ways, through friends you cared about and dreams you left behind, in beauty that you added to our days...in words of wisdom we still remember and memories that never will be gone...in everything and everywhere your special loves lives on.
