Officiating: Rev. Raymond Pugh

Ellison J. Mack was born September 30, 1950 in Buffalo, New York to the late Tavid and Julia Lucille Mack. On December 1, 2014 he left his earthly body and answered the heavenly call.

Ellison, affectionately known as SKIP, married Patricia, the love of his life September 7, 1996. He introduced her to his other greatest love, which everyone knows was FISHING.

Skip was educated in the Buffalo school system. In addition, he served in the United States Army. He was an American Veteran of the Vietnam War.

Skip was an avid lover of fishing and hunting which he learned at a young age. He was also a family man, and could often be found SOMEWHERE spoiling his 2 grandchildren, Kheiness and KaiHeir. Although Skip was not a religious man, he was spiritual and recently gave his life to Christ through baptism.

Skip leaves to mourn his wife, Patricia "Blinkey"; children Samuel and Marla; a special son-in-law Joseph; sisters, Lee Martin of Greenwood, South Carolina and Jean Rantin of Georgia; grandchildren, Kheiness and KaiHeir; nephew Terence T. Mack (Rita) of Capitol Heights, MD; niece Monique (Frankie) Lang of Newburg, NY and other devoted family and friends. He was also preceded in death by his Sister Velma Jean (Samuel) Houston.

I've finished life's chores assigned to me,
So put me on a boat headed out to sea.
Please send along my fishing pole
For I've been invited to the fishin' hole.

Where every day is a day to fish,
To fill your heart with every wish.
Don't worry, or feel sad for me,
I'm fishin' with the Master of the sea.

We will miss each other for awhile,
But you will come and bring your smile.
That won't be long you will see,
Till we're together you and me.

To all of those that think of me,
Be happy as I go out to sea.
If others wonder why I'm missin'
Just tell 'em I've gone fishin'
