Thank You

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a floral piece, if so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friend could say;

Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts

We thank you so much, whatever the part.

We especially would like to thank family and friends and the Hopewell Baptist Church members, Annie Hooks,

Jessie Buford, Thelma Macklin, Ida Pollard and Gwendolyn Brown who participated in helping our family to create memories for our dear mother.

Lovingly,

The family of Doris Mae Johnson

Doris Mae Johnson

The Lord is my Shepherd - Psalm 23:1

Beloved mother of Darlene and Lita Doris Mae Johnson was born in Buffalo, New York to the late James and Tiny Crockett on July 5, 1936. She departed this life after a lengthy illness on December 21, 2014.

Doris was educated in the Buffalo Public School system. She was a very loving and caring person who spent her life caring and helping others. Her beautiful smile would light up a room.

She touched many lives in her profession as a Nurses Aide at the Buffalo General Hospital. She will be greatly missed by her family and everyone who knew her. Doris was married to the late Roosevelt Johnson. She leaves to mourn two daughters, Darlene Crockett and Lita (Roy) Goodman.

She accepted Christ at an early age and was baptized at Calvary Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Reverend L. T. Boyce where she was a member of the Usher Board. She later joined Hopewell Baptist Church.

Doris was a recreational assistant at the P.A. L. Community Center. Some of her hobbies and interests included: music, dancing, bowling; where she won several trophies and crocheting which was often shared with family and friends.

Doris was preceded in death by four brothers, James, Ernest, Sherman Crockett and Edward King. Surviving sisters Bernice (late Shack) Masten, Beverly (William) Shane and Eunice King. Grandchildren, Tiffany (Derrick) Houston, Jillian Goodman of Memphis Tennessee, Parrish Goodman, Dominique Crockett of New York, New York, Denzel Crockett. Great grandchildren Keyana, Kiarra, Shanice and Jenay and a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends. Special family friends Anita Garner and Steven Currin.

Granny

*Now that you are at peace and your soul
has been dispersed
I will look for you, In bowling alley crashes,
Blues bands and hard candy
Always remembering to revel, in the warmth of ovaltine eyes
And the joy of a smile.*

Your Grand son Dominique Crockett , New York , NY

The Serenity Prayer

God Grant me the Serenity to accept the things I cannot change, the Courage to change the things I can, and the Wisdom to know the difference.

To Our Mother

By: John Gilson

*If I were granted one wish today, and knew it would come true; I'd ask the Lord for a little time, to speak alone with you.
To hear your voice like it used to be, so soft, so quiet, so clear; that voice which has been silenced, during these last few years.*

*I know my wish will not come true, and that is all right too; For I treasure all my memories, of the Mother I once knew.
So I thank God that when I visit and hold your hand in mine; I see a peace upon your face
I see my Lord Divine!*

A Grand Daughter's Tribute

*I had to love from a distance, But I loved you just the same.
And even though at times you didn't know my name, My love for you never changed.*

Your frame was small, But your love was strong and you fought through it all.

*The Lord saw your life, saw you climb and saw you fall,
And He held your hand through it all. Now, it's our time to let you go, So go to the Lord where your soul shall glow. You will always be in my heart, and this way we will never part.*

*Your Grand daughter, Jillian Goodman
Memphis, Tennessee*
