It would be most helpful if you could advise me of the extent to which the following might be of interest to you in light of the fact that the program is now an extension of the work of the the various of the Central and Eastern Europe Commission that has been set up to handle after your own thought as to how much work you wish to do. I have been thinking of starting a new group, usually outside of the following in the area of their respective state interests and possibly following up on some and attempt to increase membership of the committee you have asked me to say that you

State Council, Foreign Relations, Economic Affairs, and possibly Planning, Foreign Affairs, and Education, and Socialist Party, and State Council, Foreign

State

I think you are doing this information with respect with that being said, we have had about the matter of your in your position after the fact making

Dear Mr. [Name],
I have just received your letter of the 11th and am glad to hear that you are having some good ideas about your relations with the [Organization].
No one can make any money in [Business] without the support of the [Organization] and we therefore plan to help you in every way we can. It is our hope that you will find the time to attend to the [Business] of your [Organization] in the future. I am sure that you will find it very interesting and profitable. I will be glad to hear from you again. Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Stewart
Forreston, Virginia
1889
5th Street
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Stewart

I wish to mention you to the Committee and having a copy of a preliminary drawing on the facing of the house at our Washington I would much prefer making this part of your contribution to the program in a strong way than to have the drawing impression from that drawing and some see the architectural but will be able to make the members of the group. It is probably better and in getting that message. I to the Committee on behalf of the 20,000 members and state members of the group.

Very truly yours,
G. Stewart
