Brother's Love

To my brother...

Happy memories of children sweet nostalgia of my tears with you by my side.

*The best of my life I have seen so much happiness
I owe to you, dear bro, I am indebted to you for life, is what I want you to know, and we love you whole hearted.*

Your loving sisters and brothers.

My Love

We've been loving each other long enough to understand that doing life together isn't simple every day.

But whatever happens, I know your arms are going to wrap me up tight until tomorrow, and the next day, and the day after.

I love you Cynthia Cotton

We like to extend our sincere thanks to everyone for your many acts of kindness, shown during this difficult time.

Robert A. Jones

Robert was born in Buffalo NY, on April 20, 1957, to Martha Woodard and the late Raymond W. Jones, Sr. Robert was educated in Buffalo Public schools and graduated from Burgard Vocational High School. He attended airline school of stewardesses. Since there were no jobs available at that time, he joined the military, Army Division. He served for 10 years. He was employed with Comcast in Hampton, Va. After working for Walmart for several years, he returned to Buffalo. Louie attended Erie Community College, studying Computer Science. He was married in 1988.

Robert (Louie) was a full grown man, but was definitely a mamma's boy with a capital "B". He had his mom's back and with affection called her "Mau" He loved sports, especially bowling, shaking a leg every now and then, family cookouts, reading, watching family feud, playing cards and his favorite making homemade French fries. He had a quite nature and broad kool-aid smile.

Robert loving memory will be cherished by his, mother Martha Woodard Jones and 3 children; Kareem, Carrie and Robert Jr. three grandchildren, Kai Jones, Zaiden Norwood, and the late Ka'Ron Baines, two brothers, Raymond Jones Jr., and Robert(Janice) Alexander, five sisters, Janice Woodard, Patricia (Percell) Walker, Michele (Hansel) Lynch, Shelly (late Eddie) Wildeman, and Shelia (late Willie) Clark. His fiancée' Cynthia Cotton. Five Aunts, and a host of cousins, nephews, nieces, great nephews, great nieces and friends.
