Pastor Dennis Lee, Jr.
Hopewell Baptist Church
Eulogist
Eliza Williams Davis-Jones (affectionately known as “Madam President”) was born on Friday, November 20, 1936 in the small southern town of Mt. Olive, Mississippi. Her parents, Reverend Fred and Willie B. Williams, raised her and her eleven siblings to know and love the Lord as their Savior. After graduating from high school at the age of sixteen, Eliza joined her older brother, Ray, in Buffalo, New York, where she met and fell in love with the late James H. Davis. Their marriage was blessed with three children: James H., Jr., Dawn M. and Lisa C. Eliza and James, Sr. instilled in their children the same love for the Lord and Christian values that she was raised with. Later, her husband became Pastor of Ascending Baptist church and Eliza served the congregation well as their First Lady. She always credited her husband and children’s support as an important factor in her accomplishments.

Eliza’s compassionate heart and sincere love for people led her into a long career in nursing. She started out as a hospital “Candy Striper”, went on to receive her LPN degree from the Millard Fillmore Hospital School of Nursing and eventually earned her RN degree from Erie Community College. In 1997, after more than 40 years in the field Eliza retired. During her time working, she became a charge nurse in the Emergency Room of Millard Fillmore Hospital and then went on to work at various clinical sites in the Kaleida Health Network. In recognition of her dedication to her profession she was presented with the key to the City of Buffalo on November 14th of that year, which was proclaimed Eliza-Davis Jones, RN Day.

Loving and caring for people went far beyond Eliza’s chosen profession. Upon becoming a member of New Hope Baptist Church under the pastorate of the late Rev. Dr. Paul F. Thompson, Eliza served faithfully for over 27 years. Her work there included teaching Sunday School, assistant Sunday School Superintendent, Missions Ministry, president of the Women’s Ministry, chairperson of the Personnel Committee, choir member, and Vacation Bible School worker. Upon becoming a member of Hopewell Baptist Church, under Pastor Dennis Lee, Jr., she immediately became involved with the Missions Ministry and Vacation Bible School, as well as regularly attending Sunday School and Bible Study. She remained active and committed in her service at Hopewell as long as her health allowed her to do so.
One of her greatest passions was her involvement with local, state and national church associations. After her retirement, it would be hard to name a Baptist Conference or Congress of Christian education anywhere in the country that Eliza did not attend! She was especially proud to be a part of the Great Lakes Baptist District Association where she served on many committees throughout the years. Within the Great Lakes, she served as Recording Secretary and as President of the Women’s Ministry. In 2013, she received the Cynthia P. Ray Service Award from the Empire Baptist Missionary Convention.

Eliza was an entrepreneur, having started and run several businesses, including a visiting nurses service. She also organized a backyard Vacation Bible School, which ran for several years at her home. Because of her commitment to her job, church, and community, Eliza was the recipient of numerous awards and accolades throughout her lifetime.

Eliza was also an avid sports fan. Being small of stature, you probably wouldn’t guess that she played basketball in her younger days. As an adult, she was a golfer who couldn’t wait for Buffalo’s winters to end, so she could hit the links! She was a member of the Delaware Ladies’ Golf League, Grover Women’s League, and one of the founders of the Buffalo Interfaith Network of Golfers. She also encouraged young people to get involved in golf and other sports through her participation in and support of recreational programs for youth.

She loved to travel, citing Florida, Los Angeles, and New York City as her favorite places. She also loved to cook and entertain. Her home was always open, and she was happiest when the house was filled with family and friends eating, laughing, and having a good time.

Eliza was preceded in death by her parents, Reverend Fred and Willie B. Williams; a daughter, Dawn M. Ballard; three brothers, Fred, Robert and Reverend Charles Williams; a sister, Elizabeth Williams; husbands, Reverend James H. Davis, Sr. and Frankie L. Jones and a grandson, Leroy D. Lewis.

Eliza had one goal in life - to serve her Lord and Savior. In her words, “I was taught by my parents that you serve Christ by serving others. Each day of my life finds me reaching out to someone through word or deed.” Having reached her goal, on Sunday, October 2, 2016 at approximately 7:00 am, the Savior opened His arms, welcomed Eliza into His eternal rest and spoke the words she had lived her life longing to hear, “Well done, good and faithful servant.”

Her legacy of love will live on in her son, Reverend James H. (Karen) Davis, Jr.; daughter Lisa C. (Gregory) Napier; seven grandchildren, Sherrell Ferguson, Maria Ballard, LaShari (Sammie) Davis-Merricks, April Adams, James H. (Talea) Davis III, Josef and Nathan Napier; eighteen great-grandchildren; four brothers, Reverend Walter (Lena), Richard (Sherri), James and Clyde (Faith) Williams; three sisters, Earlene Poole, Willie Jean (Holley) Jones, and Queen (Milton) Lamar; stepdaughters, Laura (Milton) Haslam and Ann (Sam) Blackburn. Precious memories will also be cherished by many nieces and nephews, cousins, other family members and friends.

To God be the Glory!
For those who have come to share their love and celebrate with us today…
Words seem inadequate when thinking how to show our gratitude.
Your hugs, laughter and tears are a reminder of the beautiful soul that has departed this earthly existence and yet, reminds us that there will be an even more joyful reunion in our futures. Continue to pray that God will strengthen and guide our paths and that we never lose site of the One who indeed sustains and keeps us under His care.
We ask that when tomorrow comes you will continue to Pray for us.

Special thank you to Pastor Dennis Lee, Jr. and the Hopewell Family; Pastor William Gillison and the Mt. Olive Family; Nieces Audrey Boone and Cindy Stroud; Bertha Robinson, Natasha Thomas and Hospice Care.

We are Thankful to Jesus who provides life. We are Blessed!
