He's Sweet I Know

1. I can't forget when I was sad, Head hanging down and soul feeling bad, All I could say (was) Lord take my heart, Jesus heard and saved me (and) gave me a start. know; know dark clouds may rise and strong winds may blow I'll tell the world wher-e'er I go, I have found a Savoir, He's sweet I know.

2. Some-time I'm tried by Satan's snare, My burden seem so hard to bear, I'm talked about what-e'er I do, But I know a Savoir (and) He'll take me thru. He's sweet I know.

3. I have my ticket here in my hand, I'm going to that beautiful land, Sometime I weep (and) sometime I moan, But I'm bound for Glory (and) I'm going on. He's sweet I know; Dark clouds may rise and strong wind may blow I'll tell the world wher'er I go, I have found a Savior, He's sweet I know.

Remember Me

'Mother Jackson'

Amanda C. Jackson
August 6, 1913--November 28, 2016

103 Glorious Years!!
Now I have wings.....

Born Amanda C Pugh August 6
1913 to the late Andrews Pugh
and Cora Davis in Jefferson County Alabama.

Amanda was the 5th child of seven. The youngest was her sister Maggie. These are her grand children and greatgrand
and great great grands here worshipping with you.

Amanda married the late Johnny Gamble and later married the late Rev Albert Jackson.
She worked here in Buffalo in the 60's at Childrens Hospital as a nurses aide It was too cold here
so she returned to her home in Alabama where she stayed until coming back to Buffalo in 2007

'I thank you all. My family (kin) my church family Hopewell and all my folks at the Moot center. My coming here was the best thing that ever to happen to me. You have all shown love and attention that I had never known. So know, that I appreciated and loved you all.

REMEMBER ME...

As everyone knows I love to DRESS.. My clothes were my everything. No such thing as dress down day.

'Mother'... with all those hats, One for every occasion.

*Don't be sad for me I have lived well. I have seen the world go from the first cars and people
still using horse and buggy to self driving cars.
Communication has gone from telegraph to smart phones ( I had one) and facebook.
I have lived to see seven generations of my family. What a blessing!*

Most of all I loved to read my bible and talk about the Lord. God has been good to me!

Now, I am resting but do REMEMBER ME!
