Beloved Mother,

The memories of our times together have become a priceless treasure.

Thank you for your devotion, unconditional love and selflessness, which makes the difference between being a mom and a mother. Thank you for laying the foundation tirelessly and praying without ceasing. You raised the standard for courage and faithfulness through your own trials, which help us put our problems and excuses into perspective.

While we grieve the loss of you, our mother and laborer in the Lord, we can rejoice and take pride in the life that you lived. You will always be in our hearts and memories as we look forward to the day we will see you again.

We Love You "MOM".

Sondra and Michael

Grandma,

There's no more pain and no more suffering. God gained another angel to be with him and watch over us. So this is not a goodbye, it's a see you again someday, until then you will truly be missed.

Love, Your twins Jazz and Kris

Grandma,

We're crying because we're sad but we shouldn't be because you are no longer suffering and at peace. We were blessed to have you as our grandmother. Thank you for all that you have done for us and loving us unconditionally.

Love, Arielle and George

Special Thanks

The family wishes to thank everyone for their prayers and many other expressions of kindness shown during the illness and death of our loved one.

Obituary

Mrs. Annie Pearl Lee was born on February 3, 1937 to Emma Hicks and Roosevelt Peggins in Selma, AL. She attended Hudson High School and accepted Christ at an early age. Annie Pearl relocated to Buffalo, NY in 1965, where she then met and married the late Reverend Dennis Lee Sr., associate pastor of Hopewell Baptist Church. Sister Lee has been a member of Hopewell since 1976.

She retired early due to illness in February 1997, after working many years at the Bakery and Confectionery Industry International. Sister Lee was a strong, dedicated, and loving wife and mother, always encouraging us to be independent while pushing us to do better.

Sister Lee was preceded in death by a sister, Mattie King, and two brothers, Roosevelt Peggins and Robert Guthridge.

Annie Pearl leaves to mourn two children, daughter Sondra (James) and son Michael (Tammy) of San Diego, CA. Also in mourning are: seven grandchildren, George, Jasmine, Kristian (Kevin), Arielle, Anthony, Atalya and Michelle; Brandi (Rashad), Carmelia, and James, to whom she was a special grandmother; nine great grandchildren; three sisters, Callie B. Lewis of Bessemer, AL, Marsetta Danner (Gregory) of Birmingham, AL, and Minnie Peggins of Pleasant Grove, AL; 2 brothers, Alonzo Peggins of Bessemer, AL and Johnny Peggins (Esther) of Hartford, CT; stepson Dennis Jr. (Paulette); stepdaughter Yvonne; and a host of relatives and friends.
