Emily Butler Beale was born on June 30, 1904 in Sparrows Point, Maryland, the daughter of the late John Mack and Manie Marshall Butler.

At two months of age, her family moved to Lackawanna, NY. She received her education in Lackawanna and later in Washington, DC. In 1924, Emily met Joseph Leroy Beale and they eloped on June 30th that same year. They had two children: Mamie Rose and Joseph John. In 1930 the family moved to Buffalo, where she lived until the time of her death.

A former member of Michigan Avenue Baptist Church and First Shiloh Baptist Church, Mrs. Beale sang in both choirs. She received much joy from singing and playing the piano. Later she joined Lincoln Memorial United Methodist Church where she often sang and played piano during the Lenten season.

An excellent homemaker, Emily was known for her delicious pound cakes and mouth watering rolls. She was a virtuous woman and a role model to many.

She is survived by: her devoted daughter, Mamie Beale Johnson (the late Horace); a loving daughter-in-law, Miriam Cannon Beale (the late Joseph J.); grandchildren: June Johnson Stanford, Joseph J., Jr., David (Vickie), Daniel (Jessie), Patricia Johnson Isaac (Darrell), Holly Johnson Fisher (William) and James; ten great-grandchildren, eight great-great-grandchildren, cousins and a host of relatives and friends.
