Life is But a Stopping Place

Life is but a stopping place,
A pause in what's to be,
A resting place along the road,
to sweet eternity.
We all have different journeys,
Different paths along the way,
We all were meant to learn some things,
but never meant to stay...
Our destination is a place,
Far greater than we know.
For some the journey's quicker,
For some the journey's slow.
And when the journey finally ends,
We'll claim a great reward,
And find an everlasting peace,
Together with the Lord

Alice Mae Truitt

1937

2018

Alice Mae was born July 5, 1937 to the late Ethel Montgomery in Newnan, GA. She moved to Buffalo with her family as a child and attended grammar school in the Buffalo School District. Alice graduated from Bennett High School.

Alice and her husband, James Truitt, Sr. were married on October 20, 1956. Together they had six children. She was a dedicated homemaker who loved her family. Alice also worked outside the home at Habasat Belting Industries. She retired after thirty-five years of service.

Alice was a member of Antioch Baptist church for 40 years under the pastorate of Reverend William A. Bunton. There she served as a Sunday School teacher; a deaconess; a member of the usher board and she sang in the choir. Sister Alice transferred her membership to Hopewell Baptist Church under the pastorate of Reverend Dennis Lee, Jr. She continued her service as church deaconess. Eventually, an illness prevented her from being as active. In addition to her service at her local church, Alice was a teacher for the National Baptist Congress for many years

Alice was preceded in death by her mother, Ethel Montgomery and a brother, Charles Mitchell.

She leaves to cherish her memories: husband of 60 plus years, James Truitt; children, Caroline Miller, James R Truitt, Jr. (Wanda), Raymond N. Truitt (Velma), Kirkland Truitt, Jennifer Truitt and Gregory Truitt; sixteen grandchildren; several great grandchildren; siblings, Linda Farabee (Bishop Farabee), Christine Jones and Gloria Dillion as well as a host of other relatives and friends.
