Obituary

Ann Elizabeth Anderson was born November 25, 1923 to the late Mary M. Johnson and James F. Anderson of Hume, Virginia. Of the six children born to that union, Ann was the oldest daughter. She was predeceased by four brothers, Carl, James, Charles, and Edward. She was educated in Fauquier County, Warrenton, Virginia.

Ann left Warrenton, Virginia in the early 60's. Following her brother, Carl, she relocated to Philadelphia, PA. After 5 years, she moved to Buffalo, New York where she has lived over 30 years. She was employed at J.N. Adams department store, Lane Bryant, and retired from Rent-to-Own.

Ann's Christian life was as the fragrance of a beautiful rose. She loved the Lord and she loved the Lincoln Memorial church family. She gave freely of her time and service - a true missionary, blessing many by her Christian influence. Ann was an active member who served in many capacities. She will always be remembered as one who never said "no" or never ignored a task where she could be of help.

Her Daily Word and her Bible were a lamp unto her feet and a light unto her pathway. They were her guides from peace to glory, her comfort and her strength. She had the most important ingredients to living - love and concern for others.

On August 20, 2010, Ann E. Anderson departed this earthly life to begin her eternal life with the Lord. She leaves to cherish her memory her sister, Marion Walton (Joseph), Woodbridge, VA; two nephews, James (Shirley), Arlington, VA and Richard (Earsaline), Warrenton, VA; great nieces and nephews, cousins and her companion, Charley Fisher, Sr., plus a host of friends. She will be greatly missed.

Lovingly Submitted, the Family
