OBITUARY

MARY HINES

Mary Hines, the daughter of the late John and Mary Cokley made her advent on the first day of March, year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred in Ellirie, South Carolina. She was reared up in church and Sunday school and came to know the Lord, Jesus Christ at an early age, uniting with the Holy Jerusalem African Methodist Episcopal Church in South Carolina.

In 1930 she united in Holy Matrimony to Samuel Hines who preceded her in death. To this sacred union two children were born.

For livelihood, Mary Hines migrated to Buffalo, New York in nineteen hundred, thirty-three. Where-ever she went she always would keep her religious principles. On coming to Buffalo she joined Bethel African Methodist Episcopal Church where she served faithfully as a Stewardess on board number three until she became ill.

She leaves to mourn her passing her children, one girl, Mrs. Naomi Washington and one son, Mr. Floyd Hines. Left are seven grandchildren, three great grandchildren. She leaves two sisters, Theressa Gregg and Pedrice C. Davis, three nieces, three nephews and a host of friends.

It is believed that one day we shall meet again.
