~ Obituary ~

Mr. Bee A. Fogan departed from this life on Monday, September 28, 2015.

Bee, the youngest child born to the late Samuel and Iler Blackwell Fogan, entered the world on August 21, 1932 in Marion, South Carolina. He received his primary and secondary education in Marion County Public Schools.

Upon completion of high school, Bee embarked on his undergraduate studies in Education at his beloved alma mater, South Carolina State College (now, South Carolina State University). Upon completion of his studies he entered the U.S. Army, where he served his country until his honorable discharge in 1958.

Bee moved to Buffalo, NY, following several of his siblings. He began his membership and service to Lincoln Memorial United Methodist Church, where he worshipped and served dutifully for more than 50 years, with more than 20 of those, until his passing, on the Board of Trustees. It was in Buffalo where he met and married his devoted wife, Lucy Hylton. They were joined in Holy Matrimony on August 28, 1965.

In 1971, Bee joined the Buffalo Board of Education as a teacher in special education, where he spent the remainder of his career. He served at a number of schools, including South Park High School and Grover Cleveland High School. Aside from his love of bowling, he dedicated his life to three primary pursuits: the love and protection of his family; educating the children of Buffalo; and, service to God through his church, Lincoln Memorial United Methodist Church.

Mourning his loss, but grateful and blessed that he now dwells in the presence of the Lord are his faithful and ever-devoted wife, Lucy; two sons, Randal H. Fogan and Byron K. Fogan; two daughters-in-law, Shanena (nee Davenport) Fogan and Marian (nee Kee) Fogan; two grandsons, Jacob C. Fogan and Chance Ajani Bee Fogan; two godchildren, Kandis Fuller and Edward Anthony (Tony) Stephens; and, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and other relatives and supportive friends.

Bee and Lucy

"...And what is it to cease breathing, but to free the breath from its restless tides, that it may rise and expand and seek God unencumbered.

Only when you drink from the river of silence shall you indeed sing.

And when you reach the mountain top, then you shall begin to climb.

And when the earth shall claim your limbs, then you shall truly dance."

BERTRON CARTER

*"I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith:
Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day:
and not to me only, but to all them also that love his appearing."*
